RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA
ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, nor more than twice on the same subject under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of the committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and after) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.

5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.
6. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.

SECTION III

MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL SESSION
OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCEEdenton Street Methodist Church
Raleigh, N. C., Wednesday, September 12, 1962

Morning Session

Opening: The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, convened in special session at Edenton Street Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, September 12, 1962 at 10:00 a.m., with Bishop Paul N. Garber, resident bishop, presiding. Hymn No. 2, "Come, Thou Almighty King" was sung, after which G. S. Eubank, host district superintendent, led in prayer.

Roll Call: Bishop Garber called on W. C. Wilson, conference secretary, to explain procedure of calling the roll of the conference for this special session. The secretary moved that the clerical and lay delegates register on a slip of paper later in the session and that this be the official roll call of the conference. The motion was carried.

Bar of the Conference: W. C. Wilson moved that the main floor of the sanctuary be the bar of the conference. The motion was carried.

Rules of Order: R. M. Gradeless asked what would be the rules of order for this special session. Bishop Garber announced that the rules governing our annual conference session which began June 18, 1962 in Kinston would be the rules for this special session.

Ballot: D. G. Bradley moved that final vote on the proposal before the conference be by written ballot. It was carried.

Appreciation: Bishop Garber spoke warm words of appreciation for the privilege of meeting at Edenton Street Church.

Purpose of Special Session: Bishop Garber read resolution concerning this special session, that is, to consider the proposal of the Conference Commission on Christian Higher Education and the Conference Board of Education to conduct a three million dollar College Development Crusade.

Host Pastor: T. M. Vick, host pastor, made a statement to the conference.

Proposal of College Development Crusade: Bishop Garber called on Leon Russell, chairman of the Conference Board of Education, to lead in presenting the proposal. The chairman called on J. Nelson Gibson, secretary of the Commission on Christian Higher Education, to present the proposal of the Commission. The secretary read the proposal, and then moved its adoption. Leon Russell called on the following to speak to the conference.

Billy Joe Frazier, a student, representing Louisburg College, Louisburg, N. C.; Reece Edwards, a student, representing Methodist College, Fayetteville, N. C.; Vann Massey, a student, representing North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, N. C.; C. W. Robbins, president of Louisburg College; L. Stacy Weaver, president of Methodist College; T. A. Collins, president of North Carolina Wesleyan College; Newton Robertson, president of the Fayetteville Foundation, Fayetteville, N. C.; Julian Aldridge, representing the Rocky Mount Foundation, Rocky Mount, N. C.; Dr. Arnold K. King of Chapel Hill, speaking on the need of Christian Higher Education.

Bishop Garber asked for discussion on the proposal. Richard Cannon, Vanceboro, spoke, asking for clarification on certain figures in the proposal. The conference granted speaking privileges to Dr. Alexander Stewart from the Department of Finance and Field Service, Board of Missions of the Methodist Church. He answered the questions raised by Mr. Cannon.

Amendment: E. C. Crawford presented an amendment to be substituted for section 4, page 1, of the recommendation of the Commission on Christian Higher Education, as follows: "That each church, after it has determined its QUOTA by a vote of the Quarterly Conference, under the leadership of the pastor and the district superintendent, be free to determine its method of paying over a three (3) year period (which would include four (4) income tax years), or until paid, beginning December 15, 1962, and that the various Commissions and Connectional Leaders of the North Carolina Conference, along with the Officials of the colleges, be utilized in the campaign rather than the services of an outside fund raising agency." It was seconded. He then spoke to the amendment. R. W. Pritchard asked a question, which was answered by Bishop Garber. J. N. Gibson spoke against the amendment. The vote was taken, and the amendment was carried.

Substitute Motion: C. L. At least two of the pastors and two of the laymen of this committee shall be appointed by the Bishop from charges paying their pastors a salary of $5,000 or less. This special committee shall report to the next session of the Annual Conference; provided, however, that if this committee brings in any recommendation or recommendations that would work an undue hardship on any of our paid Executive Board Secretaries or their assistants, then such recommendation or recommendations, if adopted by the 1964 session of our conference, shall not go into effect until the beginning of the conference year 1965-66.

John William Hoyle, Sr., was born in Cleveland County, North Carolina, the son of the late William B. and Theresa Self Hoyle, on June 22, 1868. His death occurred on his 94th birthday, June 22, 1962, in Durham, North Carolina. He was educated in the Cleveland County schools, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges, and graduated from Trinity College, now Duke University, in the class of 1894. At the time of his death he was the oldest living member of the North Carolina Conference. He joined the Conference in Goldsboro in 1903, was ordained deacon in 1896, and ordained elder in 1900. He served numerous pastorates in the Western North Carolina Conference including the Rock Springs Charge at Denver, Sparta, the Lenoir Circuit, and Whitel. In the Upper South Carolina Conference he served the Abbeville Circuit, the Kelton Charge, and the Cherokee Circuit in Gaffney. In the North Carolina Conference he served Pekin Circuit, Robbins-Hemp, Goldston, Roseboro, Aurora, South Camden, Kenansville, East Rocky Mount, and Winter Park in Wilmington.

He retired in 1928 and moved to Cornelius where he lived until 1931. He then moved to Durham where he lived in retirement until his death. During his ministry he was instrumental in building 33 churches and several parsonages. For a number of years he led the conference in infant baptisms.

He was first married to Miss Civilla Cranford who died in 1923. From this union survive three daughters: Mrs. William R. Mattox of Rugby Road, Durham; Mrs. Mary Hoyle Clark of Fairfield, Virginia; Mrs. Elizabeth Hoyle Jeffreys of Creedmoor, North Carolina; two sons, Rev. John W. Hoyle, Jr., of Gastonia, and J. Cranford Hoyle of Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.

In August 1924 he married Mrs. Olive Leola Turner Hoyle of Cornelius, widow of the late Rev. E. Marvin Hoyle, who died while pastor of the Mt. Zion Methodist Church at Cornelius. Mrs. Olive Hoyle survives, as does one daughter, Mrs. Mirian Hoyle Gates of Huntsville, Alabama. Five stepchildren survive: Mrs. Ruth Hoyle Cathey of Davidson, Rev. E. Marvin Hoyle of Lake Junaluska, North Carolina, Jonathan W. Hoyle of Durham, Robert T. Hoyle of Davidson, and David W. Hoyle of Grand Rapids, Michigan. Five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Ollie Isenhour of Newton, also survive.

Funeral services for Mr. Hoyle were conducted on Saturday, June 23, 1962, at the Duke Memorial Methodist Church in Durham with the pastor, Rev. Robert Bradshaw, officiating. Burial was in the new Maplewood Cemetery in Durham.

A poet has written:

"God give us men! A time like this demands
 Strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands;
 Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
 Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy;
 Men who possess opinions and a will;
 Men who have honor—men who will not lie;
 Men who can stand before a demagogue
 And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking;
 Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
 In public duty and in private thinking."

God answered that prayer in the life of Mr. Hoyle. He was a "tall man" — "sun-crowned, who lived above the fog," with the "strong mind, great heart, true faith, and ready hands."

It seemed appropriate, even Providential, that, after ninety-four years of that good life among devoted loved ones and friends, on the anniversary of the day God gave him to us He received him unto Himself. Like Enoch of old he walked with God—all along that long journey of his earthly life—and he “was not,” for God took him unto Himself.

Today we can only say: Thank God for men! Thank God for this man!

—ROBERT W. BRADSHAW

HENRY CLAY EWING

1874 - 1962

Henry Clay Ewing, son of W. T. H. and Edith Ann Ewing, was born at Sulphur Springs, Montgomery County, North Carolina, May 4, 1874. As a young man he went to Waycross, Georgia, and was there engaged in the furniture business. On October 1, 1896, he was married to Sallie Louise Miller, of Rhome, South Carolina.

In 1902 Brother Ewing gave up the furniture business and went to Emory College to prepare for the ministry. In 1905 he was admitted into the South Georgia Conference at Macon, Georgia. This faithful minister of the gospel served with outstanding devotion the following appointments in Georgia: Baxley, Columbus, Mt. Vernon, Perry, Rochell and Poland. In 1921 Brother Ewing transferred to the North Carolina Conference. His first appointment was Branson Memorial, Durham. While serving this church a handsome new church structure was erected. His active ministry in the North Carolina Conference included appointments, in addition to Branson Memorial, as follows: churches in Goldsboro, Mt. Olive, Nashville, Laurel Hill, Conway, Gatesville and Rocky Mount. While serving as pastor in Columbus, Georgia, 1909-1913, St. Mark Church and parsonage were erected.

Brother Ewing retired from active duties in 1934, his last appointment being that of Clark Street Methodist Church, in Rocky Mount.

Brother Ewing lived close to the Lord. His life, both directly and indirectly, pointed people to the Lamb of God. His wonderful Christian spirit was exemplified daily in his home, in the work of the church, and in all of the communities in which he lived. It was truly a blessing to be closely associated with this servant of God. I always shall be most grateful for the privilege which was mine to be closely associated with Brother Ewing during the time that he lived in Durham and I, myself, was pastor of Duke Memorial Methodist Church. He always was eager and willing to render every possible service in the cause of Christ.

Brother Ewing and his wife were blessed with four children: William Waller, of Miami, Florida; Elise Walraven, of Charlotte, North Carolina; Henry Clay, Jr., of Miami, Florida; and Charles Eugene, of Rockingham, North Carolina.

Brother Ewing died at the age of eighty-eight on October 4, 1962, at Rockingham, North Carolina. The funeral service was conducted in the First Methodist Church, in Rockingham, on October 7, 1962, with Dr. Joyce V. Early as the officiating minister. Burial took place in Maplewood Cemetery, in Durham, that afternoon and the service was conducted by the Reverend Robert W. Bradshaw, pastor of Duke Memorial Methodist Church, in Durham.

Through his life Brother Henry Clay Ewing helped to make the world a better place in which to abide, always manifesting the characteristics of a splendid Christian gentleman. Truly he “fought the good fight and kept the faith.” Without doubt he now occupies a place in the home prepared for God’s children to which Jesus referred when he said: “I go to prepare a place for you.”

—EDGAR B. FISHER

ROBERT LATHAN HETHCOX

1884 - 1962

Robert Lathan Hethcox was born in Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, on August 18, 1884. His parents, Hutchinson and Ella Hunter Hethcox, were Presbyterians. When he was seventeen, he moved to nearby Concord. Later he attended Erskine College in Due West, South Carolina.

It was in Concord that he met Miss Minnie Ann Hatley who became his wife and the mother of his five children. When Lathan was thirty, he was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church in Concord. Two years later, in 1916, after further study at Trinity College, he was ordained a minister at the Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church meeting in Greensboro.

An evangelist for two years, the young minister then served as pastor of the M. P. churches at Pleasant Hill, Creswell, Greenville Charge, Asheboro, Mocksville and Fallston. A church was built at Pleasant Hill when he was there.

At unification in 1939, he elected to become a member of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church. He served as pastor of our churches on the Mt. Hermon Charge, at Newton Grove, Clayton, and Oriental. A parsonage was built at Oriental during his pastorate there.

His deep, rich, resonant voice and beautiful white hair combined with his warm, friendly personality and vital, living faith in Christ to make him a man of God whom people loved. He was truly gifted in the pulpit. At little Calvary Church out from Clayton on a rainy Saturday morning, I heard him preach one of the best sermons I ever heard. Never "holier-than-thou," yet always Godly, he was fun to be with and his friendship was uplifting. An evangelist at heart to the very end of his earthly journey, he was a master pastor whose gentle, loving leadership endeared him to all.

This very close and delightful couple, in 1957, chose Clayton as the place of their retirement. It was my privilege to serve as Brother Hethcox' pastor during the last three years of his life here. Often when he did not feel like it he stood in our pulpit. He told me once in confidence when I asked him if he wanted to fill the pulpit in my absence, that he felt God had called him to preach, that he loved it, and that he would rather preach on whether he was weak or strong physically. He was a man truly devoted to his high calling and the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Brother and Sister Hethcox reared five children. They are Walter H. Hethcox of Burlington, Edna (Mrs. R. L.) Bernhardt of Burlington, Ruth (Mrs. Sam S.) Woodley of Columbia, Louise (Mrs. Charles D.) Webster of Clayton, and Ila (Mrs. Karl) Housholder of Sanford, Florida.

After frequent illnesses and much suffering in his latter years, Robert Lathan Hethcox died at Johnston Memorial Hospital in Smithfield on World-Wide Communion Sunday, October 7, 1962. He would have been assisting in the administration of the Sacrament that day had he been well. His funeral was held at his beloved Home Memorial Church in Clayton and as his pastor I was privileged to officiate, assisted by his good friend and former Duke Endowment assistant pastor, Charles H. Mercer, pastor of Centenary Church in Smithfield. His earthly remains are buried in Maplewood Cemetery at Clayton, while his spirit has returned to God who gave it. Methodism is much richer and the lives of countless numbers of us are much richer for having known his fellowship in the Lord Jesus Christ.

—J. MALLOY OWEN, III

WILLIAM EDWARD PICKETT

William Edward Pickett, son of Julius William Pickett and Hettie Marshall Pickett, was born in Durham County, North Carolina, January 19, 1931. He died in Craven County Hospital, New Bern, North Carolina, March 5, 1963. Brother Pickett began his education in the Durham High School, from which he was graduated in 1949. Following his graduation from high school, he entered Wake Forest College, from which he received the A.B. degree in 1953. While he was in college he was a member of the track team, the Delta Alpha Kappa Fraternity and Phi Beta Kappa, a national scholarship fraternity. He was also a leader in other campus activities. He did his theological work in the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary and received the B.D. degree from this Seminary in 1957.

After much thought and a great deal of prayer, he decided he wanted to spend his ministry in the Methodist Church. Following his graduation from the Seminary, he made application and was received into the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, on trial, in 1957, and was admitted into full connection in 1960. During his ministry in the North Carolina Conference, he served the following charges: New Hope-Woodland, 1957-59; North Gates, 1959-60; and Belgrade-Tabernacle, 1960-63. During his rather short ministry in the North Carolina Conference, Bill endeared himself to many people. He was a faithful and good minister of Jesus Christ dedicated to his Lord and to his work. Wherever he served he not only sought to win souls for the Lord, but he also gave due attention to all areas of the work of the church. Under his leadership church properties were improved, mortgages were paid, stained glass windows were installed, visual aid equipment procured, and many persons were received into the membership of the church.

In his ministry he was faithful to the end. On Sunday, March 3, two days prior to his death, he preached his final sermon in both of his churches. He seemed to feel that these sermons would be his last chance to witness for his Lord from the pulpit. He insisted on filling these two regular Sunday appointments, even though his doctor strongly advised against it. He preached with such spiritual power that day that his congregations were deeply moved.

Then early Tuesday morning, March 5, he slipped away quietly and peacefully to be with his Lord, for whom he had witnessed so effectively two days before. His going has brought sorrow to his family and many friends, but he leaves behind, to comfort those who mourn, many happy memories and a multitude of good works. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; they shall rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

His funeral was conducted in the Belgrade Methodist Church by the Rev. John T. Smith, and his body was laid to rest in the Woodlawn Cemetery, Durham, North Carolina.

He is survived by his wife and two children; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pickett of Durham; two brothers, B. L. and C. T. Pickett, in the United States Air Force; and two sisters, Mrs. George Smith and Mrs. Thurston P. Yates, of Durham.

Most fitting for the life and ministry of Brother Pickett are the words found in II Timothy 4:7-8: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but all to all them that have loved his appearing."

—R. GRADY DAWSON

OMER CLYDE MELTON

1890 - 1963

Omer Clyde Melton was born in Rutherford County, North Carolina, on June 28, 1890, and died in his sleep on March 22, 1963, at Clinton. Funeral rites were conducted at the First Methodist Church in Clinton by his district superintendent, M. W. Lawrence, assisted by Dr. J. E. Garlington, Rev. Matt R. Gardner, and Rev. Wade Goldston. He was buried in the Montlawn Memorial Gardens in Raleigh, N. C. Surviving him are his wife, Jettie D. Melton; three children, Mrs. Harold Raynor of Clinton, Mrs. Carlis Edge of Fayetteville, and O. C. Melton, Jr., of Raleigh; and nine grandchildren.

Brother Melton was educated at Rutherford College, and upon the completion of his education he was married to Jettie D. Davis who made him a wonderful companion and an able assistant in the ministry. Together they began their ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference where he served at Misenheimer and Statesville Circuit. From there he transferred into the Virginia Conference and served Gate City and Salem. In 1927 he transferred into the North Carolina Conference at Raleigh and served well and faithfully for twenty-five years. His appointments were Troy Circuit, Garysburg, Shalotte, Lumberton Circuit, Columbia, Garland, Person Street (Fayetteville), Mamers, Cordova, and Clinton Circuit. In his ministry he worked to improve the physical facilities, leading the people at Cordova and Ingold (Garland Charge) in building new churches, at Antioch (Garland Charge) a new educational building, and at Columbia a new educational building was started.

Brother Melton travelled the hard circuits with cheerfulness and with a sense of gratitude for the privilege of preaching the gospel of Jesus Christ. As a pastor he was diligent and faithful to his people, visiting with understanding and with compassion those who were sick or in sin or in trouble. His sincerity of dedication and purpose won his way into the hearts of his people and drew them closer to Christ. He was a good minister, devoted to his people and his church, loyal to his brother ministers, and faithful to his Saviour.

In the sunset years of life there were no doubts or fears in his spiritual skies. He was sure of his Christ and could say with the Apostle Paul, "I have fought a good fight, I have kept the faith, I have finished the course; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness."

As we reflect upon the life of our departed brother there come to our minds these appropriate words:

"Grand old soldier of the cross,
Travel stained and battle-scarred,
But home at last."

—M. W. LAWRENCE

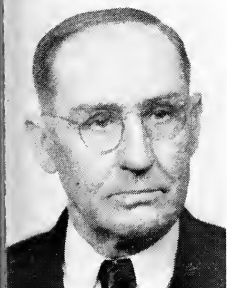

THOMAS WILLIAM LEE

1878 - 1963

The Reverend Thomas William Lee was born in Gates County, North Carolina, May 10, 1878. His parents were Richard Henry Lee and Elizabeth Ann Eure. He was educated in the county schools of Gates County, the high school of Elizabeth City, North Carolina, and received his A.B. degree from Trinity College (now Duke University), of Durham, N. C. He also attended Boston and Emory Universities.

Brother Lee was twice married. His first wife, Susie Southland, died in 1918. To her was born one daughter, Mrs. Hiram Casebolt of Raleigh, N. C. His second marriage was to Miss Clara Powell who survives him. To this union were born three children: Clara Elizabeth (Mrs. John) Harvey, Jr., of Wilmington, Delaware; Jo Anne (Mrs. William) Jeffries of Durham, N. C., and Caroline Powell (Mrs. Eugene) Wollaston of Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Lee was admitted to the North Carolina Conference at Fayetteville in 1912. He had received his license to preach three years prior to that time and thus was qualified to receive deacon's orders after one year of service in the conference. He was ordained deacon in 1913 and elder in 1916. He served in the active ministry 35 years. He served the following pastorates in the North Carolina Conference: Kenansville-Warsaw, Maysville, Pink Hill-Wallace, Williamston, Trenton, Windsor, Brookdale, Middleburg and Efland.

Brother Lee was successful as a builder. Among the building projects which he entered were the parsonage at Pink Hill and churches at Rose Hill, Wallace, Trinity Church on the Brooksdale Charge, and the Union Grove Church on the Efland Charge.

He died April 13, 1963, and was buried in the Maplewood Cemetery in Durham, North Carolina. The Reverend Robert W. Bradshaw officiated at the funeral assisted by a former teacher, the Reverend H. E. Spence.

These are the simple facts concerning Brother Lee's life and works. But there is little indication in these lines of the vastness and significance of that work. As a preacher he was earnest rather than eloquent; sincere rather than showy—a plain preacher of a simple gospel. Modernism found little place in his thinking and preaching. Sin and salvation were his chief stress. He lived the social gospel rather than preached it. His was the simple gospel of lost souls and a gracious Redeemer.

He neither sought after nor received places of honor or greatness. But his life shone out like a beacon light on a stormy coast and his influence was far-reaching. In the sixty years that I have known him, I have never heard him utter a single word that needed retraction nor seen a single action that demanded an apology. His ministry was convincing and effective. The statement of the numerous churches which he served does not reveal the full amount of the man's work, the great number whom he persuaded to turn away from wrong to right, the number he baptized and received into the church, or the countless ones over whom he spoke the last words as he assigned them to Mother Earth and their Maker.

Even if this data could be furnished there would be still left unevaluated the heart-aches which he eased, the faltering hopes which he strengthened, the falling tears which he wiped away, the broken faith which he mended, the despair upon which he cast hope. Only the Recording Angel can adequately evaluate this man's great service to his church and his fellowmen.

—H. E. SPENCE

ROGER EMERSON GARLAND

The Reverend Roger Emerson Garland, son of the Reverend Charles C. and Mildred Emerson Garland, was born December 24, 1900, in Nashua, New Hampshire.

His father, a member of the New England Conference, the Methodist Episcopal Church, was transferred to Boston, Massachusetts, while Roger was yet a lad; thus, he graduated from high school in that city. After graduation from high school, with the realization of his call to the Methodist ministry, he enrolled at Boston University. In 1925 he took the Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Religious Education. That fall he enrolled at the Seminary of Boston University; and, in 1928, graduated with a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree.

Brother Garland received his local preacher's license, in the New England Conference, on January 6, 1925, being recommended by First Methodist Church of Everett, Massachusetts. He was admitted on trial into the New England Conference at Worcester, Massachusetts, at the Annual Conference of 1928. He was ordained deacon, by Bishop William F. Anderson (at the same session), on April 22, 1928. He was ordained elder by Bishop William F. McDowell on April 6, 1930, at Cambridge, Massachusetts.

During his seminary days, Brother Garland served student appointments in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. After becoming a member of the New England Conference, he served churches in the following cities in Massachusetts: Graniteville, Lowell, Lynn, Worcester, Milford, Chicopee Falls, and Boston.

In the early part of 1954, with the realization of God's call to service in the south, Brother Garland contacted Bishop Paul N. Garber; and on October 27, 1954, his transfer to our North Carolina Conference became a reality. Since coming our way, he has served the following appointments: Pembroke: First Church, Saxapahaw, and Ellerbe.

Roger Emerson Garland and Susan Irene Sawtelle were married on June 19, 1928. To this union was blessed one son: Dr. Wesley Scott Garland, a practicing physician at Marshville, North Carolina. There are three grandchildren who will forever hold dear the memory of their wonderful grandfather.

With Irene ever by his side, Roger Garland was able to do great things in the name of our Lord Jesus. Among his most notable works were the remodeling and redecorating of the sanctuaries of the churches which he served in Graniteville, Milford, and Chicopee Falls, Massachusetts; and, during the past months, the fellowship hall and kitchen of Ellerbe Church has been under construction. From now on, this will be known as the "Garland Fellowship Hall."

Yet, as much as may be said with regard to improvements of the physical plants of the churches which he served, the greater emphasis should be put on spiritual achievements. Hundreds of people have come into a saving knowledge of Christ through his ministry, and hundreds more have come into new insight of the gospel and more complete dedication. His congregations were always blessed with the very best of pastoral messages; and he was continually bringing in the great spiritual leaders of our day as guest speakers. Not only so, but he always stood ready to help a brother minister in every possible way. Always, and everywhere, his motto was: "to go about doing good," as a loyal follower of his Master.

After an illness of only a few days, on April 21, 1963, the great heart of Roger Emerson Garland failed; and, to use his own words concerning death, he was "released from the body to go home." Funeral services were conducted the next day in his church, at Ellerbe, by the Reverend Millard C. Dunn, Fayetteville district superintendent, and the Reverend M. W. Warren. Six of his brother ministers of the Richmond Subdistrict served as pallbearers, and members of the Richmond County Ministerial Association sat in a body as honorary pallbearers. Interment was in the Ellerbe Cemetery, according to his request that his body be laid to rest wherever he might be serving when his earthly ministry ended.

It is impossible for any of us, who were his friends and whose lives he touched, to express just how much knowing Roger Emerson Garland has meant. We do know, however, that we are better people because he came our way.

May one of his favorite scriptural passages, which was a part of his Christian philosophy, give to us comfort and peace and joy as we go forth with our memory of this good man of God: "They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

In the home-going of Brother Garland, the writer is keenly aware that a great friend has been promoted to that state of life which Jesus promises to all who follow him. Therefore, his feelings are expressed in the words of James Whitcomb Riley:

"I cannot say and I will not say
That he is dead! He is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an Unknown Land,
And left us dreaming here how very fair
It must needs be since he lingers there.
And you—O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return—
Think of him as faring on as dear
In the love of there as in the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say,
He is not dead! He is just away."

HATTIE PLEASANTS MURRAY PHIPPS

1881 - 1962

Mrs. Hattie Pleasants Murray Phipps, daughter of B. S. and Annie Pleasants, was born August 10, 1881, at Auburn, N. C., Wake County. She was first married to the late J. L. Murray. From this union survive three sons: Fred of Parkersburg, Va., the Rev. Eric O. Murray of Lumberton, and Edwin of Durham; four daughters: Mrs. Annie Franklin, Mrs. Hubert Harwood, Mrs. U. R. Cayton, all of Durham, and Mrs. C. E. Holt of Richmond, Va. She was a faithful member of Asbury Methodist Church in Durham.

On December 27, 1953, she married the Reverend W. T. Phipps, and served with him at Roper, N. C., and Ebenezer in Chatham County, where many friendships were made. Back to Durham in retirement they established their hospitable home at 901 Clarendon Street, where they continued to serve our Lord through Asbury Church.

After a few months of rapidly declining health, she died July 13, 1962 at Watts Hospital in Durham. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend John T. Maides and the Reverend D. E. Earnhardt at the Hall-Wynne Funeral Chapel, with interment at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church Cemetery at Auburn, N. C. From her marriage to Brother Phipps, he survives as does a stepdaughter, Mrs. A. W. Kerr of Greensboro, N. C.

Mrs Phipps exhibited a warmth of friendliness and blessed all who were fortunate enough to enter into fellowship with her. Her family and friends have the assurance, though she has been separated from them a time, do not despair, because, as Frederick Hosmer put it:

“We cannot think of them as dead
Who walk with us no more
Along the paths of life we tread;
They have but gone before.

And still their silent ministries
Within our hearts have place,
As when on earth they walked with us
And met us face to face.

Ours are they by ownership
Nor time nor death can free;
For God hath given love to keep Its own eternally.”

MRS. LENA BIGGS ETHERIDGE

1870 - 1962

Mrs. Lena Biggs Etheridge, wife of the late Reverend L. S. Etheridge, died September 1, 1962, at Franklinton, N. C. Her funeral was conducted on September 3, at Franklinton by her pastor, the Reverend Lawrence Bridges, and she was buried in the Montlawn Cemetery in Raleigh.

She is survived by six children: Mrs. Ruth E. Frye, Wake Forest, N. C., Mrs. Lena E. Harris, Durham, N. C., Paul Etheridge, Raleigh, N. C., Miss Birdie Etheridge, Lee R. Etheridge, and Louland Etheridge, all of Franklinton, N. C.

Mrs. Etheridge was the former Lena Johnson Biggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Biggs of Laurinburg. She was born in the Antioch community, near Laurinburg. She moved to Laurinburg with her family where she joined the First Methodist Church, attended school, and met Mr. Etheridge.

She was married to L. S. Etheridge on November 4, 1888.

She was an unselfish mother, a devout Christian and a faithful wife who lovingly supported her husband's ministry in his charges at Candor, Star, Council Station, Magnolia, Rockingham, Elsie-Kemp-Robbins, and Grifton.

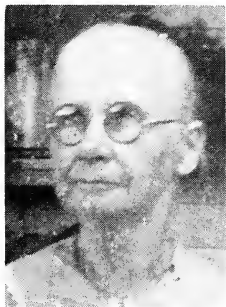

Mr. Etheridge died on August 3, 1906, in Kinston while serving the Grifton charge. Upon the advice of Rev. Coltrane she moved with her children to Franklinton where she continued to serve her family and church in loving devotion.

In the last years of her life she often wondered why she had survived her husband by so many years, but those who knew her never doubted her mission or the reason she was allowed a long life for she gave so many years to her family and her Lord.

A familiar picture in Franklinton in the past was the picture of Mrs. Etheridge “headed for the Methodist Church.”

It is difficult for God to replace women such as Mrs. Etheridge. One of her favorite hymns reveals the source and strength of her character for she loved and sang “What a Friend We Have in Jesus.”

MRS. BLANCHE FLYTHE STANFORD

Blanche Flythe Stanford, the faithful companion of the Reverend James Townsend Stanford, was born February 12, 1884, at Severn, N. C., in Northampton County; according to the records, however, it was called at first Bertie County. Her old home, containing three thousand acres of land, was originally given to her great-grandfather by King George of England. John Fly (as the name was spelled originally) and other members of this stalwart pioneer family were leaders and officers in this county.

The youngest of nine children, Blanche Flythe was afforded the best cultural, educational and religious opportunities available to a young lady. Then she later fell heir to the land and possessions that her forefathers had bequeathed them. When the tall, young preacher, J. T. Stanford, fresh out of the seminary of Vanderbilt University, came to the church of her community, he was quick to recognize in this attractive young woman the traits he admired. It was natural for them to fall in love and marry. Through her companionship his ministry was greatly enriched. She stood back of him in everything he did, and, as all good wives usually do, she reminded him of the little details he might have overlooked or forgotten.

The crowning test of every parsonage queen is how she measures to the requirements and demands of the home. It was here Blanche Flythe Stanford stood out. More than anything else she made the home and instilled in her daughter and those left to her care the highest ideals. To the parsonage home of J. T. and Blanche Flythe Stanford was born one daughter, affectionately known as "Nellie Blanche" by her friends, and later by her pupils whom she taught in school. She is happily married to Phillip Pittman of Scotland Neck, N. C., and Greece, where he serves as an agent for a tobacco company.

The home of this devoted woman was always open to her nieces and nephews who had lost one or both parents. The writer was well acquainted with two of her great-nephews, William L. Pickett, of Scotland Neck, and Walter P. Tuck of Richmond, Va. She was proud that the three children whom she raised, her own daughter, and two foster sons, were very active in the various activities of the church.

On August 29, 1961 Mrs. Stanford suffered the great misfortune of being struck by a car in front of her home in Rich Square, and her injury was so severe that she wasn't expected to live. However, because of her strong faith in God, coupled with the tremendous aid from the kind and loving hands of her dear ones, and also the courageous will to live, Mrs. Stanford recuperated to the extent that she was able to visit her friends and read the many, many cards and letters from those who loved her.

While riding downtown with her daughter, they stopped to visit with friends when the stroke of paralysis seized her. She died that night, Wednesday, September 12, 1962, with her daughter, two foster sons, and grandchildren present, as she would have wanted it.

The funeral services for Mrs. Stanford were held in Rich Square Methodist Church by the district superintendent, the Reverend Jack Page, assisted by the pastor, the Reverend O. S. Williams. Her body was laid to rest at the "old home place" at Severn, N. C., beside that of her husband, Rev. J. M. Stanford, who preceded her in death sixteen years.

MRS. MILIE GAY PIPPIN JOYNER

To Milie Gay Pippin Joyner, our Lord gave a gentleness of spirit, a goodness of heart, and a faithfulness of soul. Thus He equipped her for a mission of love and service, a task she fulfilled by sharing these gifts of grace with the flocks of thirteen pastoral appointments, and the family and friends of a devoted home.

After several years of deep illness, Mrs. Joyner died in Sanford, November 10, 1962. A service to witness to God's promise of resurrection was held at Jonesboro Heights Methodist Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Vernon C. Tyson, in charge. Burial was at Jonesboro Heights Cemetery, Sanford.

Born in Franklin County, July 2, 1868, daughter of Wesley and Lou Lewis Pippin, Milie Gay married the Rev. L. H. Joyner, December 22, 1889. Coming into our Conference in 1892, Mr. Joyner served his appointments with courage and conviction, always with the tender and close support of his wife. When ill health necessitated his superannuation in 1926, they came to Jonesboro to live. Mr. Joyner died there in 1954.

Two daughters, Mrs. Colton A. Godfrey of Sanford, and Mrs. Parrot B. Hardee of Durham, survive Mrs. Joyner. Other survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ella Pippin

Ray of Wake Forest; eleven grandchildren; and eighteen great-grandchildren. Three sons preceded Mrs. Joyner in death: L. H. Joyner, Jr., Paul W. Joyner, and the Rev. Frank Belton Joyner, who was a member of this Conference for twenty-two years. A grandson, the Rev. F. Belton Joyner, Jr., is presently serving in the North Carolina Conference.

The Lord blessed us when He loaned us Milie Pippin Joyner. To Him be the thanks and the praise and the glory for her life.

Let Him to whom we now belong,
His sov'reign right assert;
And take up every thankful song,
And every loving heart.

He justly claims us for His own,
Who bought us with a price;
The Christian lives to Christ alone;
To Christ alone he dies.

Jesus, thine own at last receive;
Fulfill our hearts' desire;
And let us to Thy glory live,
And in Thy cause expire.

Our souls and bodies we resign;
With joy we render Thee
Our all — no longer ours, but Thine
To all eternity.

(CHARLES WESLEY)

MRS. EVA HOWARD COVINGTON CADE

Mrs. Eva Howard Covington Cade was born January 1, 1888, the daughter of Robert R. and Harrett Winston Covington of Laurinburg, North Carolina, one of the younger of ten children. She was fortunate in her parents, who gave themselves without reservations to the sacred privileges and responsibilities of providing for their children the atmosphere of a Christian home—working with heart and hand with the church into which Eva was received in early childhood. This early training in Christian living was reflected throughout the years—confirming God's direction of her life into the ministry shared with that of her husband, the Reverend William Albert Cade, to whom she was married on October 12, 1921, at the altar of the First Methodist Church of Laurinburg, N. C., of which she was a member and of which Brother Cade was the pastor.

Mrs. Cade was educated in the schools of Laurinburg and Elizabeth College, Charlotte, North Carolina. Majoring in voice she taught for several years in the Department of Music in her Alma Mater. She continued her interest in music by singing in the choirs of the churches which she and Brother Cade served.

"In quietness and in confidence she found her strength." In her gentle way she easily found a warm place in the hearts of those for whom she and her preacher husband were responsible. Always, there was room in her heart for those who needed to be loved and encouraged; therefore, she was greatly beloved by members of their congregations.

Following forty full and fruitful years in the active ministry in the North Carolina Conference Brother Cade and "Miss Eva" retired and moved into their new home at 1609 Iredell Drive, Raleigh, in 1952. Hand in hand they dedicated themselves to God in making this their home next to heaven. Family, neighbors and friends all agreed that in this they succeeded.

Impressively, "Miss Eva" was in person an answer to Margaret Bailey's lovely Prayer Poem:

"God, give me sympathy and sense,
And help to keep my courage high;
God, give me calm and confidence,
And—please—a twinkle in my eye."
Amen.

Surviving Mrs. Cade are her husband, the Reverend W. A. Cade; Major William Albert Cade, Jr., Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. William J. Erwin, Columbus, Ga.; and Mrs. Charles V. Close, Wellesley Hills, Mass. Major Cade and Mrs. Erwin were children of a former marriage—having found in the heart of "Miss Eva" all that they desired and required of the heart of a mother. All three children shared without partiality the generous love from the hearts of both "Miss Eva" and Brother Cade.

As a minister's companion, mother, homemaker and friend Mrs. Cade was an example of that excellent word picture of a virtuous woman recorded in the Book of Proverbs as translated in The Amplified Old Testament:

"A capable, intelligent and virtuous woman, who is he who can find her? She is far more precious than jewels, and her value is far above rubies or pearls. The heart of her husband trusts in her confidently and relies on and believes in her safely. So that he has no lack of honest gain or need of dishonest spoil. She will comfort, encourage and do him only good as long as there is life within her . . . Her children rise up and call her blessed—happy, fortunate and to be envied; and her husband boasts of and praises her, saying, Many daughters have done virtuously, nobly and well [with the strength of character that is steadfast in goodness] but you excel them all."

In a tragic automobile accident on Tuesday evening, November 13, 1962, Mrs. Cade was instantly "prompted to the Father's House." Jesus, our Saviour and our Lord said, "I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

"Miss Eva" has gone on ahead—leaving Brother Cade sorely bereft and lonely without her. Characteristic of his fine spirit and dedication he purposes in his heart to live helpfully, unselfishly and meaningfully as she awaits his coming. He and all of us find comfort in the fact that "Christians never see each other for the last time."

*MRS. STELLA IRENE TYSON

1903 - 1962

Mrs. Stella Irene Tyson was born on October 2, 1903, in Greene County, North Carolina, and died on December 14, 1962. She was the daughter of Rev. Willie Lazarus Hart and Etta Stafford Hart.

On December 6, 1919, Stella Irene Hart was married to Marvin Earl (Jack) Tyson. (See Journal of the North Carolina Annual Conference, 1953, pp. 92-93, for memorial paper on Rev. Marvin Earl Tyson.) To this marriage ten children were born, three of whom died in childhood. Of the seven surviving children, six are sons and all of them are Methodist ministers. The daughter is a leader in her local church.

As a teen-age girl, Irene Hart joined the church at Harrell's Chapel Original Free Will Baptist Church, in Greene County.

There is nothing more spiritually fruitful than the Christian home. The Christian home is the church within the church. Mrs. Tyson was a loving, gracious, and sacrificial minister of the church within the church. In some respects, she was more influential than Susanna Wesley who was a minister of the church within the church.

Jack Tyson and Irene Tyson, in their earthly pilgrimage, had minds and souls which moved steadfastly toward spiritual horizons. In the experience of death-birth, they moved into the "land that is fairer than day." There their holy dreams and aspirations find increasing fulfillment among those who are co-laborers in the church of the beyond.

*INA LEONA SMITHERMAN ROYALL

1876 - 1963

Mrs. W. R. Royall, nee Ina Leona Smitherman, was born in Troy, N. C., Montgomery County, January 15, 1876, the daughter of Sam and Mary Smitherman and one of twelve children. She married my father, W. R. Royall, in 1905. She had one son, W. R. Royall, Jr., born in Chapel Hill, N. C., in 1910. She served with my father as pastor in Chapel Hill four years, Henderson two years, Fayetteville four years, Laurinburg four years, Washington one year, Sanford five years, Wilmington four years, Rockingham five years, and Troy four years. She was a most dedicated person to God and the Methodist Church and the ideal wife for a pastor. She was also most generous to the churches served by my father and made many considerable gifts to them. She moved with my father after his retirement to Hendersonville where she lived with her son at Echo Inn until her death in January, 1963. She was truly a great lady and the towns in which she lived are a great deal better for her having lived in them. She thought and lived the Christian life as few people do. Her death brings a great loss to the church and community in which she lived.

The following lines may be truly applied to her noble life:

"He liveth long who liveth well.
All other life is short and vain
She liveth longest who can tell
Of living most for heavenly gain.

She liveth long who liveth well;
 All else is being flung away;
 She liveth longest who can tell
 Of true things truly done each day."

—W. H. ROYALL, JR.

MRS. OLIVE TURNER HOYLE

1886 - 1963

Mrs. Olive Turner Hoyle, widow of the Rev. John W. Hoyle, Sr., was born in Leaksville, North Carolina, August 4, 1886, the daughter of the late Venable W. and Magdalene Wade Turner. She was first married to the Rev. E. M. Hoyle and moved to Cornelius in 1915 where her husband was pastor of Mount Zion Methodist Church. She was later married to the Rev. John W. Hoyle, Sr., and moved with her family to Durham in 1931. She resided there until her death on March 20, 1963, in Watts Hospital where she was a patient for several days. During her years in Durham she was an active member of Duke Memorial Methodist Church.

Funeral services were conducted in Mt. Zion Methodist Church in Cornelius on March 21, with interment following in the church cemetery. Services were conducted by the Rev. Robert Bradshaw, pastor of Duke Memorial Methodist Church, Durham; the Rev. Don Bridger, pastor of Mt. Zion Methodist Church, Cornelius; and Dr. R. T. Montfort, pastor of Davidson Methodist Church, Davidson.

Mrs. Hoyle is survived by two daughters, Mrs. W. A. Cathey of Davidson and Mrs. D. W. Gates of Huntsville, Alabama; four sons, Rev. E. Marvin Hoyle, Jr., of Lake Junaluska; Jonathan V. Hoyle of Durham; Robert T. Hoyle of Davidson; and David W. Hoyle of Grand Rapids, Michigan; three stepdaughters, Mrs. J. J. Clark of Fairfax, Virginia; Mrs. Elizabeth H. Jeffreys of Creedmoor, and Mrs. W. R. Mattox of Durham; and two stepsons, Rev. John W. Hoyle, Jr., of Gastonia, and J. Cranford Hoyle of Roanoke Rapids.

Throughout her life Mrs. Hoyle had two major objects of interest and devotion—her family and her church. She was married to two Methodist ministers and made an exceptional contribution to parsonage life for her husbands and for all the children. Children and stepchildren loved her devotedly and found her a source of strength and inspiration to all their living.

In the latter years of her life she had in her home many young ministers and others training for Christian service and all these found in her a devoted friend and a real source of encouragement for them in their work. She maintained an interest in her church all through her long life. Her minister was blessed and strengthened by her loyalty to and concern about her church. The world was made a better place by the life she lived and by the influence she exerted among all who knew her.

—ROBERT W. BRADSHAW

MRS. MAGGIE LEE DIXON WILLIAMS

1886 - 1963

Mrs. J. C. Williams, nee Maggie Lee Dixon, was born November 21, 1886, in Rockingham County, N. C., and died April 27, 1963, near the place of her birth. Thus she had lived for 76 years. She was the daughter of Levi Ross Dixon and Maggie Frances Williams Dixon, and one of fourteen children—seven boys and seven girls. She was united in marriage to John Cephas Williams in October, 1907. Her husband became a member of the North Carolina Conference in 1917 and for thirty years they served most acceptably in the pastorate of the Methodist Church, before his death in 1947.

Surviving are three children: Mrs. Jack Caudill and Mrs. Jay Williams Barefoot, both of Rockingham County, and one son, John C. Williams, Jr., of Greensboro; six grandsons, two granddaughters, and two great-grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Dixon Crowder, of Greensboro, and Mrs. Sallie Dixon Turner, of Rockingham County.

Funeral services were conducted at Midway Methodist Church, Rockingham County, where she had joined when a young girl, and to which she had returned her membership following her husband's death. The services were held on Sunday afternoon, April 28, 1963, by Rev.

Ray Phillip Vaughan, the pastor, and Rev. S. J. Starnes, editor of The North Carolina Christian Advocate (who had conducted her husband's funeral in 1947). Burial was in the Glenco Church Cemetery by the side of her husband.

It was the privilege of the writer to know this fine couple from the very beginning of his ministry, and from them he received much inspiration. They were devoted servants of God. They were loved and respected and supported by the people whom they served. Perhaps no finer husband and wife team ever worked together more closely and more effectively in the advancement of the kingdom. Their home was Christian, not just in word, but in practice. Just three weeks before she was buried it was our privilege to visit her in the home of her sister, and again we felt we were in the presence of a devoted Christian. She gave strong support to her husband in his ministry, and her Christian influence will be reflected in the lives of her devoted children who "rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her." (Prov. 31:28.) The high regard in which she was held by her many friends where she had served as a pastor's wife was indicated by the presence of quite a number who came from a long distance to attend the last rites and to pay their respects. She was stricken in the night, and passed away within a few minutes. Her final words to her children was an admonition to live a Christian life and meet her in heaven. Because she lived well, we believe she continues to live, and may the mantle of her good influence fall upon those she left behind.

SECTION V

REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

T. B. HOUGH, Superintendent

The 53 pastors and associate pastors, and the 23,834 persevering lay members of the 91 churches have made an enviable record for the Burlington District this year.

Membership and Evangelism: To date, May 11, 1963, the pastors of the Burlington District have reported as follows: received on profession of faith and from other denominations, 538; 323 have been received by certificate from other Methodist churches; and 156 babies have been baptized. We have removed from our rolls, by certificate, death, and action of the Quarterly Conference, 489, leaving a net increase of 323. Some churches receive training classes into membership on Mother's Day, and we hope this number is substantial. The district director and Conference director of Evangelism united to bring subdistrict workshops on evangelism to more than 80% of the churches of the district.

Christian Education: Every Sunday school in the district has been included in the total program to strengthen the program and organization, as well as to provide Christian ministry and training for all who will learn the way of Jesus. To do this more effectively, the district staff on Christian Education has provided training schools in the different areas of the district, making one easily accessible to every officer and teacher in the district. A conscientious effort has been made to carry out the program planned and projected by our Conference Board of Christian Education.

Lay Activities: Mr. Joe Holmes and his associate lay leaders have worked tirelessly and objectively to incorporate more laymen into the total program of the Methodist Church in the Burlington District. A fine group of responsible and talented laymen attended the Conference Lay Retreat at Duke University last August. Another fine group gathered at the Lay Retreat held in connection with the Pastors' Conference on Evangelism at Louisburg College. The depth of interest in the total program of the church in the Burlington District was shown when 704 laymen, in the midst of an epidemic of Asian influenza, gathered in Davis Street Methodist Church for the Annual Lay Rally.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Under the wholesome and dynamic leadership of Mrs. J. E. Davis, the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service is setting an enviable record. With membership increasing, with scholarships receiving new emphasis, with the community service program made more intense, the achievements of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild not only stand as living memorials to heroic women, but these achievements register positively in the lives of multitudes whose lives have been made richer by them.

Christian Higher Education: The Burlington District had a quota of $373,492 for the College Crusade. The churches accepted $319,551 and of this more than 98% was underwritten. About $35,000 has been paid on acceptance to date.

Buildings and Improvements: New parsonages have been completed and opened at Leasburg-Salem and Smyrna. The total value of these houses is more than $30,000. The church at Goldston was dedicated this year, and the educational building at Sapling Ridge, on the Silk Hope Charge, has been dedicated, and Christ Church was opened last fall. St. Luke's Church is near the beginning stage, and Shiloh has begun a new parsonage. Steele Street in Sanford has raised $85,000 this year on their new building program. Jonesboro Heights now has $35,000 in their building fund. Several other smaller building projects are in the planning stage. A total of about one quarter of a million dollars was raised this year for building and improvements.

Change in Charge Boundaries: Divide the Trinity-Lemon Springs Charge and put Morris Chapel with Lemon Springs, making a two-point charge to be named later. Trinity Church will become a station.

Church Finances: The great majority of the churches assumed the 2.14% increase in benevolences for next conference year. Twenty-one charges increased the pastor's salary or travel for next year, and the response to specials is gratifying. A new one the district emphasized this year was the Doane Stott Special. It is to pay his and Mrs. Stott's expenses on a year's mission to Japan.

I am grateful for the opportunity of sharing with the ministers and laymen of this district in the work of our great church. I shall cherish the friendships I have made; and when I stop to evaluate the heroic and courageous efforts of the loyal working people of this district, I am fully expectant of its glowing success in the years to come.

DURHAM DISTRICT

O. L. HATHAWAY, District Superintendent

In the words of Jesus, "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal; that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. And herein saith saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours."

—John 4:35-38

This is true of the Durham District for Doctors E. L. Hillman, W. L. Clegg, and C. D. Barclift, the consecrated pastors, and devoted lay people have laid the foundation. We report the continuation of their ministry and our's for this conference year.

Membership and Evangelism: The report for May 1 reveals that we have added 958 and lost 687, giving us a net gain of 271. We have baptized 160 infants.

Christian Education: There have been Christian Workers' Schools, Vacation Church School Institute, and the District-Wide Youth Rally at University Methodist Church.

Lay Activities: The lay program continues to move forward under the direction of James T. Patrick, our lay leader. New Methodist Men's clubs have been organized at Bethesda and Parkwood. There were 902 persons at the Lay Rally held in February. The lay speakers have been giving a good account of their work this year.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Miss Lizzie Gray Chandler, the president, has given excellent leadership to the women of the district and outstanding cooperation in all the work of the district program. Good planning is being made for another great year of progress.

Buildings and Improvements: The following churches have completed educational buildings this year: Bethesda, Salem, Oxford Circuit, Merritts Chapel, Mt. Tirzah, Union Grove, and University Church, Chapel Hill. Planning for new education buildings continues at Allensville, Carrboro, Duke Memorial, and New Bethel. Dedication service has been held for Lebanon educational building and plans are being made for Brooksdale educational building.

Parsonages: Dedication services have been held at Concord-Oak Grove, Orange, Chapel Hill, and Walnut Grove-Carr Churches. Consecration services have been held at Palmers Grove and Long Memorial. Parsonages have been purchased for Ashbury, Durham, and Gray Rock Charge, Oxford. Repairs have been made at Stem-Bullock parsonage. Chestnut Ridge is planning a parsonage. The district parsonage study has been equipped and the interior of the district parsonage has been painted this year.

Land: Carr Church has purchased lots and houses near the church in order to secure additional living and parking space. Parkwood has secured an option on a site for the new church. Grace, Roxboro has purchased a lot and house next to the church property.

The Durham District has great potential in its people, their resources, and under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we hope to reap a bountiful harvest. I count it a great privilege to be associated with the pastors and people of this friendly district.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

ROBERT L. JEROME, Superintendent

Facts and figures do not always tell the whole story of what our 43 pastors and 5,832 members have done in the work of the Kingdom. Beyond the statistics which we can record are the lives that have been changed, the holy habits that have been established, the unselfish service that has been rendered, and the spiritual growth that has taken place. I am glad that I have been privileged to be a co-laborer of these dedicated and faithful pastors and laymen and laywomen. It is their achievements that I am recording.

Membership and Evangelism: Our pastors have received 497 new members into their churches (270 of them on profession of faith), have baptized 140 babies, and have held 59 revivals. The pastors have reported 18,343 pastoral visits.

Education: The enrollment in our Church Schools is 10,518. In 1962 we had 56 Daily Vacation church schools with an enrollment of 2,582. We have 354 subscriptions to the N. C. Christian Advocate, 278 to Together, 175 to World Outlook, and 1400 to the Elizabeth City District News.

Lay Activities: We had 300 at our Laymen's District Rally with an inspiring program including three laymen from our district who gave their "witness." About 100 lay speakers participated in the No Silent Pulpit program, and 35 of them attended the two schools for lay speakers conducted in our district. We have only 13 active groups of Methodist Men with an average of 25 members for each group.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: With 77 organized societies and four Wesleyan Service Guilds with a combined membership of 2,708, our women are very active in study, service, and giving. The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Society was held in the bounds of our district at First Church, Elizabeth City, in March.

Finances: We have had 35 churches participating in the Every Member Visitation. On the College Development Crusade our churches have accepted a quota of $200,788 and have paid $23,988 on these pledges. On World Service and Conference Benevolences for next year 32 of our 41 charges have accepted the requested increase. We have sent to our missionaries in Korea (Mr. and Mrs. Jack Theis) $1,084, to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin in Alaska $908, and to the Gilbert-Lambuth Memorial Chapel $486.

Building Projects: Our people are busy building and improving church property. These buildings will cost $333,616, and the amount raised this year on these projects is $114,089.

Parsonages: A new parsonage has been built at Asbury ($18,000). New parsonages are planned for Ahoskie ($25,000), Bath ($10,000), Kitty Hawk (17,500), Mackeys-Pleasant Grove (lot has been donated), and Ocracoke ($12,000). Additions and repairs have been made at Manteo ($2,500), Mattamuskeet ($621), and South Camden ($333).

Education Buildings: New education buildings have been built at Anderson (13,000) and Bethany ($9,000, dedicated May 26) on the Chowan Charge, Hertford ($92,000 opened June 16), Mann's Harbor ($12,500), and at Mt. Zion on the Currituck Charge ($5,000). A new education building is under construction at Newland on the Newland Grace Charge ($15,000) and at Stumpy Point ($10,000). An education building is planned for Wanchese ($15,000) and a fellowship hall at McBride on the South Mills Charge.

Sanctuaries: A new sanctuary has been built at St. John, Avon ($17,000). Improvements have been made on the churches at Camden (2,064), Mann's Harbor ($1,100), Manteo ($600), New Hope and Woodland ($1,048), North Gates ($1,000), Stumpy Point ($5,000), and Wanchese ($2,329).

Charge Changes: Plans for next year call for the Columbia Charge to be divided with Wesley Memorial, Columbia, becoming a station and the other three churches remaining as the Columbia Circuit. Newbegun Church from the Pasquotank Charge will join with Union to become a two-point charge, leaving Mt. Hermon and Hall's Creek at the Pasquotank Charge and Brite Meadows, Elizabeth City, as a station.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

MILLARD C. DUNN, District Superintendent

We have had a busy and fruitful year on the Fayetteville District. It has been a genuine pleasure and privilege to work with such dedicated ministers, laymen, and lay women as one finds on this district. I rejoice with them in this report.

Christian Higher Education: We have tried to follow in every way the Conference's program on Higher Education. Our pastors gave as their Fair Share Quota for this report $416,900. According to this report the one hundred churches of the district accepted 81% of this amount or $349,460; 85.5 per cent of this amount was pledged. As of this date the churches report having paid $45,648 on their Fair Share Quota.

Christian Social Concerns: Under the leadership of David L. Moe, a very effective program on Christian Social Concerns has been conducted. A District Conference on Christian Social Concerns was held at Aberdeen, N. C., and a Tri-District Rally on "The Church and the Alcoholic" held at Hay Street Methodist Church.

Membership and Evangelism: We have received this year more than 500 on profession of faith, and some 700 by transfer. Two hundred sixty-eight babies were baptized during the year. Under the leadership of our District Secretary of Evangelism, G. W. Crutchfield, we have cooperated with our General Board and have cooperated fully with our Conference Board of Evangelism in every phase of its Aldersgate Year program.

Buildings and Improvements: More progress has been made this year in this area than ever before. The congregation of the Haymount Methodist Church has begun construction on its new sanctuary which is estimated to cost $350,000.00. Trinity, Troy, is completing its Educational Building at a cost of $105,000.00. The membership of the Biscoe Methodist Church completed its $60,000.00 Educational Building. Bethany Church, on the South River Charge, has completed and paid for a $15,000.00 church, while Hall Church on the same charge has completed and paid for a $15,000.00 church, making a total of $33,000.00. A new $32,000.00 church at Beaver Dam, and $5,000.00 renovation with new pews at Hoffman, and $12,000.00 on building and renovation at the other two churches gives the Pinebluff Charge a $50,000.00 project. First Church, Rockingham, has added a steeple, and renovated its auditorium. It increased its seating capacity to 550, added new lights, carpet, a central aisle and an entrance on Rockingham Road at the cost of $30,017.00. The Uwharrie Church on the Troy Circuit has begun a $12,000.00 renovation project. The Zion Church on the West Rockingham Charge has begun a $13,000.00 Educational unit. Plans are under way to build a $25,000.00 Educational unit at Vass. St. Pauls hopes to be in their new $20,000.00 parsonage before winter. Camp Ground plans to begin work on a new $85,000.00 sanctuary. Pee Dee is to begin work soon on a $44,000.00 building project. Hope Mills has begun work on its new $110,000.00 sanctuary and Educational unit. The estimated cost of the above projects amounts to $926,000.00. Every charge in the district is involved in some form of building program, which will bring our estimated building to more than one million dollars. Cokesbury, at Stedman, Bethany on South River Charge, and Sneads Grove on Laurel Hill charge will be ready for dedication this fall. The parsonage on the Sandhill Circuit was dedicated Sunday, June 2nd.

Lay Activities: The laymen of the district are loyal and faithful supporters of the church program. Under the leadership of Raymond E. (Buddy) Luper and his associates, and with the guidance of our dedicated Conference lay leader, J. Nelson Gibson, Jr., a full program was carried on by our laymen. We have reported 51 organized Methodist Men's groups with well over one thousand members. We have 155 registered lay speakers. A large number of our men attended the Lay Retreat at Duke University. One of the largest and most effective Lay Rallies was held this year at Hay Street.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Under the capable leadership of Mrs. J. S. Hiatt, the Woman's Society of Christian Service continues to champion the cause of the church. They grow in membership and increase their giving. No church is too large to turn them from their course, and no church too small to discourage them. We have in our district a total of 89 organized societies with 4,013 members.

Christian Education: Despite the national trend our Church School enrollment shows a definite increase over last year, and the attendance is up. Three Subdistrict Christian Workers' Schools were held as well as two Vacation Church School Institutes. The Year's Work under the able leadership of W. P. Lowdermilk has made continuous progress. Subdistrict and District Rallies were well attended.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

M. W. LAWRENCE, Superintendent

In the Goldsboro District there are 61 preachers and almost 21,000 laymen who through their dedicated work are bringing this district to the forefront.

Colleges: Some of the finest work was done in the College Development Crusade. Reports from Dr. A. P. Brantley's office show that our district accepted $332,566 on a quota of $348,186, or 95.51%, to lead all other districts. The latest reports (May 1) show the district to be second in amount remitted to the treasurer and first in number of churches remitting funds for the colleges. It is our desire to bring the district to a 100% payment of the Crusade.

Education: Although the church school enrollment shows a decrease for the year, our district has a net gain of 792 for the past three years. One outpost church school is being sponsored by the Airboro Church. More than 4300 were enrolled in the vacation church schools this past summer and 99 of the 104 churches are planning one for this summer. All five subdistricts had excellent schools for Christian workers.

Evangelism: Reports through May 6 show 39 revivals and 77 visitation campaigns held with 434 additions on profession of faith and 454 by transfer, making a net gain of 207. One hundred fifty-two babies have been baptized, and 171 units of "The Twelve" have been organized.

Missions: There were 47 church-wide schools of missions held, and more than $7,000 in "Specials" given by our people. The Ten Dollar Club has 23 new members. The Woman's Society of Christian Service, under the able leadership of Mrs. Cecil M. Page, has made much progress, gaining in membership and increasing pledges. One new society was organized at Sarecta. A mission has been started among the 3,200 Indians in Sampson County under the leadership of Rev. H. C. Ridaught. We hope soon to organize a church among these people.

Lay Activities: Robert C. Rose, our lay leader, and his five associates have given fine, dedicated leadership to the work of the church, directing the "No Silent Pulpit" program and sponsoring the lay rally which had approximately 600 in attendance. These laymen have taken the initiative in encouraging and helping churches to organize "The Twelve" and to promote the Every Member Visitation program.

Buildings and Improvements: Continued progress is being made in providing more adequate parsonages and better facilities for worship and study. New construction and major improvements valued at $462,000 have been started or completed; $220,000 has been raised for construction and on indebtedness.

Brogden purchased a parsonage for $12,500. Two new parsonages are under construction at LaGrange ($22,000) and Fremont ($20,000).

First Church, Clinton, spent $130,000 in renovating and enlarging the sanctuary. Other renovations are: Fellowship education building, $2,500; Rose Hill, $2,500; Hickory Grove $3,500, and Charity $4,500.

Three new sanctuaries have been completed since last conference: Sander's Chapel $35,000; Fellowship $35,000, and Faison, $40,000. Corinth is constructing a new education building and sanctuary at a cost of $35,000.

Two new education buildings have been completed: Salem ($21,500) and Airboro ($45,000). Selma has renovated and enlarged the education building at a cost of $50,000. Two churches have education units under construction: Providence ($38,000) and Rainbow ($15,000). Plans are underway for construction of social halls, kitchens, classrooms at Noble's Chapel, Woodland, and Tabernacle.

Snow Hill has purchased a new organ and has acquired the land beside and back of the church, giving them adequate space for expansion and parking. Rose Hill has also purchased more land next to their church.

Bishop Paul N. Garber was with us on March 31 to dedicate the parsonage at Smithfield, the district parsonage, and the Garris Chapel Church. The educational building at Falling Creek and the parsonage at Browning-Smith are ready for dedication.

The finances of the district are in good shape with an acceptance of 100% of the askings for the year 1963-1964. Payments have exceeded 99% the past two years and we are hopeful of making it 100% this year. Salaries for the new year have increased approximately $12,000.

We have a close fellowship in our district, and it has been a real joy and pleasure to be associated with and to work with these fine ministers and laymen of the district.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

R. GRADY DAWSON, District Superintendent

As I come to the close of my first year on the New Bern District, I am most grateful for the privilege I have had of working with the 56 ministers and with the more than 1,000 laymen and laywomen of the district. I am also deeply indebted to an excellent district staff. Through the fine cooperation and faithful work of the ministers, laymen and district staff, progress has been made in every area of Kingdom work. I gladly give them credit, and offer thanks to our heavenly Father for His guidance and blessings. Of course, there is no adequate yardstick to measure the most important advances made—those in the realm of spiritual development and the soul growth of the people. Furthermore, it is not possible in a short report to enumerate all the achievements in the district this year, but the major areas of work are summarized under the following headings:

Membership and Evangelism: As of May 10th, 1159 persons have been received to the membership of the 92 churches in the district—473 on profession of faith and 686 by certificate and otherwise, with a net gain of 391. During the year 224 babies have been baptized.

The general program of evangelism has been promoted in the district through visitation evangelism, revival meetings, church membership classes, Church School classes, and nine area workshops on evangelism. These workshops were conducted by the Conference Director of Evangelism, Rev. C. F. Heath, the District Secretary of Evangelism, Rev. W. G. Wegwart, and the District Superintendent. They proved to be most helpful, they sought to give special emphasis to the training of the pastors and the members of the local church commission on evangelism in the total program of evangelism for the local church. During the year, 80 revivals, 65 periods of visitation evangelism and church membership classes have been held.

Christian Education: A little more than 16,000 members are enrolled in our 92 Church Schools. The enrollment remains about the same as last year, but the average attendance has increased. In the area of training for Church School teachers and workers, four area Christian Workers' Schools and one Bible Conference have been conducted in the district. The North Carolina Christian Advocate goes into 851 homes in the district, and Together magazine into 286 homes. These two excellent church papers are playing an important role in the total educational program of the district. During the year our people have received some good training in the area of social concerns through the distribution of literature and the conducting of both a district and tri-district workshop.

College Crusade: The College Development Crusade was well supported in our district. A majority of the churches accepted their quota in full, and most of the others accepted an adjusted quota. All of which enabled the New Bern District to attain about 8% of its goal.

Christian Missions: In addition to regular World Service giving, our district is supporting in a fine way the program of Advance Specials, with World, National, and Conference Specials in the amount of $13,975. The Woman's Society of Christian Service continues to be one of the most active and effective organizations in the local church. In our district there are 85 societies with a membership of over 3,600. We are deeply indebted to these dedicated women for their fine work in the area of missions. The World Outlook and The Methodist Woman are monthly visitors in 332 homes in the district. Under the leadership of our District Missionary Secretary, Rev. B. L. Davidson, a most helpful District Missionary Institute was held, with three returned missionaries appearing on the program.

Lay Activities: Under the efficient and dedicated leadership of our district lay leader, Mr. Roy L. Turnage, Jr., and his faithful associates, lay activities in the district are moving forward in a fine way. We have many consecrated laymen who are giving generously of their time, talents, and money to advance Kingdom causes. A fine delegation of laymen from the New Bern District attended the Conference Laymen's Retreat at Duke University, and there was an excellent attendance at the District Laymen's Rally in New Bern. There are 50 Men's Clubs in the district. Our certified lay speakers, 175 strong, continue to do a fine work in the No Silent Pulpit program, and also fill many appointments throughout the year. This year for the first time, a training course for lay speakers was conducted under the leadership of the district lay leader and his associates. The course was well attended and most helpful.

Buildings and Finances: In the area of church and parsonage building, considerable progress has been made during the year. Excellent new parsonages have been erected in Newport, Grifton, Harkers Island, and Bridgeton, at a combined cost of about $90,000. A new parsonage is in the planning stage at Stonewall.

Churches: The congregation at St. Peter's Church has moved into its new church building. The Queen's Creek Church building is well on the way toward completion. Swansboro is in the planning stage for a new church building and expects to begin construction within the next few months. The congregation at Atlantic is beginning plans for a new church building. The Beulaville congregation has purchased a lot for a new church building, and expects to begin construction in the near future.

Education Buildings: A new education building at Trinity, New Bern, and St. Mark, Kinston, will soon be under construction. A beautiful and spacious lot for building purpose has been secured by the Maysville Church.

Dedications: During the year the education building at Centenary, New Bern, new classrooms at Stonewall, a new parsonage on the Kinston Circuit, and memorial windows at Tabernacle have been dedicated.

Finances: In spite of heavy crop failures in the New Bern District this year, our people have responded in a fine way to the financial challenges presented to them. The response to the College Development Crusade was good. In the area of increases in benevolences and pastor's salary the response has been exceptionally good. Thirty-eight charges have accepted increases in benevolences in excess of $4,000, and thirty-three charges have increased the pastor's salary in excess of $8,000. The total raised for all purposes this year will go well above the million mark.

For the good work done in the New Bern District this year I give thanks to our heavenly Father, and express my deep appreciation to our faithful ministers and loyal Methodists.

RALEIGH DISTRICT

GRAHAM S. EUBANK, District Superintendent

This conference year has been a year of progress. The ministers and the laymen of this district continue to challenge their superintendent in every area of the life and work of the church.

Membership and Evangelism: This has been another good year in the membership and evangelism; however, not as good as last year. On May first, the churches in the district had received on profession of faith, 595; by transfer from other Methodist churches, 797; and from other denominations, 252; for a total of 1646 additions. However, we have had a number of losses. Some of the churches have cut their rolls more than necessary for the total reduction of 986, giving a net gain of 660 members. We expect by the Annual Conference to have a net gain of 700 members, for a total membership of 29,570 which assures us that in the six-year term which I will have served the district, we will have a total membership of over 30,000 members.

Christian Education: In the area of Christian Education, we have had several Christian worker schools; some sponsored by local churches and some others by subdistrict. Almost every church has had a vacation church school. Two youth rallies have been held with excellent attendance and programs.

Church School enrollment is 21,459, a decrease of 354 from last year. We hope that the pastors' reports to the Annual Conference will not show a decrease in Church School enrollment. This area needs special attention.

Missions and Church Extension: The churches of the district have had very successful mission education programs. Almost every local church Commission on Missions has had one of more mission studies. The Woman's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild continue their good work in mission studies, mission programs, and projects.

Our plans are to appoint a minister to the Raleigh-Durham Highway area at this conference and to organize a new church there. A site of four and one-half acres has been purchased by the Raleigh Board of Missions at a cost of $24,000. The pastors report seventy new Ten Dollar Club members.

Lay Activities: We have had excellent lay participation this year. A number of our laymen attended the Lay Retreat at Duke in August. Over 900 attended the District Lay Rally in February. We have a large number of lay speakers and had no trouble in filling all requests for speakers during the Lenten season. We have an excellent District Board of Lay Activities in our district. Mr. B. M. Fesmire of Raleigh is our district lay leader.

Buildings and Improvements: The first units of St. James and Cokesbury Churches of Raleigh have been completed during the year. Already these churches need additional buildings. A new church has been built at Mount Ariel on the Marners Charge. A new education building has been built at Dunn and the old education building and sanctuary have been remodeled and renovated. Highland Church has added a new education building. A remodeling of the church sanctuary and a new education building have been completed at Millbrook. A new education building is under construction at Ebenezer. Several other churches are ready to begin construction of new education buildings. New parsonages have been built at White Plains, Tabernacle, and Rehoboth. New parsonages have been purchased by the Franklin charge and by Fairmont for the associate pastor. White Plains has purchased a five-acre site for a new building and is now engaged in developing plans to begin construction on its first unit. Cool Springs Church has been dedicated this year as well as the Tabernacle parsonage. A total of $983,192 has been paid on new buildings, parsonages, improvements, and indebtedness.

Stewardship: The churches of the Raleigh District should be commended by all of us for the continuing growth in stewardship. The churches have accepted the full apportionment on World Service and Conference Benevolences each year during my tenure of office. Last year the District Superintendent reported that all pastors' reports would show all charges paid out in full. This was followed up and at the end of the fiscal year, the charges had paid over 100 percent on World Service and Conference Benevolences and Apportionments.

The superintendent reports again this year that all churches will report paid in full. Again, we expect this goal to be achieved for the second straight year. All churches in the Raleigh District have cooperated in the College Crusade. Fifteen of the ninety-six churches are contributing directly to the foundations. With a quota of $35,366, these churches pledged $59,655. On a quota of $419,140 for the other churches, $388,788 has been accepted. Total district quota of $453,506, total accepted by the churches in the district is $488,410. These churches have not only accepted and made pledges to the Crusade, but all churches are contributing. Again, all of us should commend the laymen and preachers of the Raleigh District for the wonderful support given this program with 100 per cent of the churches having made payments on their quotas.

At the close of my fifth year as District Superintendent of this district, I wish to express my sincere gratitude to our preachers and to our lay leadership in all our churches for their wonderful cooperation and support given the District Superintendent and The Methodist Church.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

J. W. PAGE, District Superintendent

This is my first year as district superintendent on the Rocky Mount District, and at the very beginning of this report I express my thanks and appreciation to my predecessors.

sor, Dr. Walter C. Ball. My task has been made easier by his careful work in keeping the records of the district and by his timely advice concerning the many phases of the work of the district.

The following report is the result of the work of the faithful ministers and laymen of the Rocky Mount District. No effort will be made to deal in statistics, for these figures will be given by the statistician. This report will attempt to lift up several areas of the district where definite progress has been made.

College Development Crusade: The Rocky Mount District responded to the challenge of the College Development Crusade in a very fine way. There was a spirit of enthusiasm on the part of both ministers and laymen. One of the fine laymen of the district, Mr. Luther Hill of Tarboro, was the Conference chairman for the crusade. On the district level, Mr. "Zeke" Cozart of Wilson and Mr. Jasper Cummins of Rocky Mount gave wise and energetic leadership. Many ministers of the district gave of their time not only in their own church, but they assisted greatly the district superintendent in the overall program of the crusade. My deep appreciation is expressed to each minister and layman for their untiring efforts in the College Development Crusade.

Christian Education: The Reverend R. H. Eason is the district director of general church school work, and under his leadership, and with the help of the Conference Board of Education and the ministers of the district, a well-planned program of Christian education has been carried out. There have been several leadership training schools in the district, and as a result, teachers and leaders in the children, youth and adult departments of the church school have been better equipped to do their jobs. All phases of the work of the church school have been emphasized, and there is an increasing response on the parts of both teachers and students in the church school.

Evangelism: The district director of evangelism is the Reverend W. J. Neese, and under his leadership and with the help of the Conference executive secretary of the Board of Evangelism, the Reverend C. Freeman Heath, a full program of evangelism has been pursued. Several training sessions in evangelism have been held in the district, and each minister was urged to carry out a well-defined program of preaching and visitation evangelism. This program was carried out, and as a result, the churches have been strengthened.

Missions and Church Extension: In this area the program of the district has been under the leadership of Reverend R. L. Crossno, district director of Missions and Church Extension. All phases of the missionary program of the church have been given consideration: World Service and Conference Benevolences, Church Extension, and Advance Specials. Most of the churches of the district have accepted the increased askings of World Service for the coming year.

Finances: Progress is being made in the area of Christian Stewardship and Finance. As a result of the College Development Crusade and also increased local emphasis on the every member canvass, our people are responding in increasing numbers to the call to tithing as a means of expressing their Christian stewardship.

Christian Social Concerns: The Reverend Eugene Tisdale is the district director of Christian Social Concerns, and under his leadership a workshop was held at First Methodist Church in Rocky Mount. At this district workshop Reverend Jack Crum, Reverend Vernon Tyson and others told of their experience during a recent trip to Russia. A tri-district meeting on alcohol was held at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church with the Reverend Tom Shippe as the speaker. The area embraced by Christian Social Concerns is a crisis area: it involves not only temperance, alcohol, narcotics, world peace, but it involves the whole gamut of human relationships. The church must rise to the occasion of speaking the truth in love to a world that is torn with prejudice, hatred, and misunderstanding. In this area we are trying to give our best in Christian planning, thinking and acting.

Woman's Society of Christian Service: Under the wise and capable leadership of the district president, Miss Camille Staton of Bethel, the work of the Woman's Society has progressed in an excellent manner. The Rocky Mount District is the second district in the North Carolina Conference in its giving to missions. The Wesleyan Service Guild under the excellent leadership of Mrs. Lena Gray of Rocky Mount, has continued to give inspired leadership to the employed women of the church. We will always be indebted to the good women of the church for their great contribution to all phases of the work of the church.

Laymen: During the first half of this conference year, the work of the laymen was under the leadership of James Creasy, Rocky Mount District lay leader. When Mr. Creasy was transferred to Jacksonville, Florida, in December, Mr. David Speir of Bethel became the acting lay leader for the district. With the fine leadership given by these two men, and with the capable assistance of the associate lay leaders, a wonderful program of lay activities has been carried out. A special tribute is hereby given to the lay speakers of the district who did so much to make the No Silent Pulpit program of the district a great success.

Building and Repairs: Two new churches have been completed this year: Windsor and West Nash. The church at West Nash has a new organ and it is completely air-conditioned. New parsonages occupied this year: Rich Square, Sandy Cross, and Hornes-Mt. Zion. New parsonages that are being built: Nashville, West Halifax, and Halifax. A new educational unit and a new addition to the sanctuary is being planned for South Rosemary. Spring Hope has renovated and refurnished a chapel, and a new organ has been added. The following churches have made additions to their church school facilities: St. Paul, Rocky Mount; Siloam and Wares on the Jamesville Charge; Lebanon on the Spring Church-Garysburg Charge. The Bethel Church had a loss by fire, but the loss was covered by adequate insurance, and the good people of this church have acted wisely and promptly. Their church will be restored and ready for use in the early fall. The importance of the care and upkeep of our parsonages was emphasized at the fourth Quarterly Conference.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

CLYDE S. BOGGS, Superintendent

The consecrated travelling, local and retired ministers; the 19,000 members are due thanks and credit for the ever forward movement of this wonderful district. The district staffs have been willing to give counsel and service at a moment's notice.

Christian Education. The members of this staff are actively engaged in helping the district to have a well-rounded Christian education program. Leadership training schools and workshops have been conducted on district and sub-district levels. This group, with the help of every member and other interested people, has led us through a most successful campaign for the financial support of our colleges. Thank you so much for a task well started.

Membership and Evangelism: Our leaders in this field of endeavor have kept before us the goals of our Conference. The sub-district workshops gave us inspiration and needed information to our many local leaders. One hundred fourteen babies have been baptized; 455 members have been added by profession of faith, 475 by transfer, giving the district a net gain of 483 members.

Missions and Church Extension: The church-wide mission study book has been presented in our churches. We welcome into our fellowship the Pineview congregation. These good folk and their minister came to us from another denomination, bringing with them their warm Christian experience, their church buildings and parsonage. They have encouraged us and led others to become more dedicated to Christ and the church. Dr. F. Lowry will organize another church before Conference, or early in the new church year. Rowland has finished its new parsonage. We are so proud of this lovely home. Other churches are buying lots for future homes. Epworth has bought a duplex, getting ready for expansion. Over $100,000.00 has been used in improving our church sanctuaries and parsonages.

We wish to thank our Conference Board of Missions, our National Board of Missions and the Duke Endowment for their aid through grants and loans. Three educational units have been completed through their aid.

Stewardship and Finance: Wade Pierce, our lay leader, his staff of associates and lay preachers have inspired us with their enthusiasm. Their lay rallies were most successful, their "No Silent" pulpit program lifted the spiritual life of our churches. Several groups of "The Twelve" have been organized. The per capita giving in our churches is increasing through the Christian stewardship of our lay folk. The efforts of our good lay leaders is gratifying to all.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild are always active in spreading the good news of our mission. We thank them for the rural workers that are giving us so much inspiration and labor in our area.

Christian Social Concerns: The district rallies conducted by our conference and district staffs fulfilled a great need and drew our attention to many avenues of concern. Every one who attended received a blessing and felt that our consciences were pricked. These concerns are vital to the life of our people called Methodist.

Christian Vocations: The Reverend W. C. Teachey with the help of the conference staff, is challenging our young people to give their lives in Christian service. Our young people are eager to do something of lasting value. This staff is helping recruit young men for the ministry and young women for full-time Christian work.

BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture of the North Carolina Conference has provided counseling service for churches contemplating building programs, and material and information for architects who have assisted in these programs.

Regular meetings have been held during the year. Presentations have been made by ministers and architects. At the Annual Joint Meeting with the Committee for the Western North Carolina Conference the Reverend Harold E. Bates, Associate Director of the Department of Architecture of the National Council of Churches, presented a paper on "Trends in Church Architecture."

The Committee has participated in the promotion of the Randolph E. DuMont Design Program. The plans for two rural churches in the North Carolina Conference, Bayboro and Buxton, were selected for development and presentation.

The Committee cooperated with the Annual Conference Board of Missions, the Commission on Town and Country Work, the Rural Church Program administered by the Divinity School and other agencies in providing counseling services and materials as well as programs of study and research. It is the purpose of the Committee to assist in determining building needs and the development of long range building plans.

The continued support of Bishop Paul N. Garber, the District Superintendents, the boards and Agencies of the Conference adds greatly to the effectiveness of this program.

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

I

K. R. Wheeler, president; C. S. Meekins, lay vice-president; L. L. Parish, clerical vice-president; J. M. Cline, secretary-treasurer.

The Brotherhood is a group of Methodist ministers and lay people who want to express their sympathy to the bereaved widow of a Methodist minister in a way that will be of real assistance when it is most needed. Instead of sending telegrams or flowers, members of the Brotherhood send money; gifts of $1 by superannuate ministers and lay people; $3 by ministers in active service whose salary is under $3,000; $4 if the salary is from $3,000 to $4,000; and $5 if above $4,000. This money is sent by the treasurer as soon as the death is reported to him, and the widow has the needed money to pay funeral expenses even before she receives any money from insurance. This is not an insurance company. It is a fellowship, a brotherhood.

The membership is made up of 335 beneficiary (ministers) and 185 non-beneficiary (lay) members, a total membership of 520. We express our appreciation to the lay people who are members of the Brotherhood. Their support has meant much to the Brotherhood, and we hope many more will join.

The following calls were made this year: 179—J. F. Herbert; 180—J. W. Hoyle, Sr; 181—H. C. Ewing; 182—R. L. Hethcox; 183—T. W. Lee; 194—R. E. Garland.

Article 10 of the Constitution of the Brotherhood states: "Any minister of the N. C. Conference on trial or in full connection, or any accepted supply pastor doing supply work in the Conference, may become a beneficiary member of the Brotherhood by payment of an initiation fee of $1, and within 30 days from the date of entrance a mortuary assessment of $3, if salary is under $3,000; $4, if salary is from $3,000 to $4,000; and

$5, if salary is $4,000 or above; provided that, if he has served as a clerical member one year or more, the initiation fee and mortuary assessment shall be as follows:

Length of Service	Initiation Fee	Mortuary Assessment
1 Year	$2.50	$ 3.00
2 Years	3.00	5.50
3 Years	3.50	8.50
4 Years	4.00	12.00
5 Years	4.50	16.00
6 Years	5.00	20.50
7 Years	5.50	25.50
8 Years	6.00	31.00

(The table may be projected at the same method of progression to determine initiation fee and mortuary assessment of a minister with any number of years beyond eight.)

Article 10 of the Constitution was amended for the year 1962-63 by the following amendment adopted at the Annual Conference in 1962: "We recommend that the requirements stated in Article 10 of the Constitution of Brotherhood be suspended for the next conference year and that for this period of time the requirements for membership for a beneficiary member of the Brotherhood be an initiation fee of $1.00 plus a mortuary assessment of $5.00."

Article 7 of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Brotherhood reads: "A member who shall fail to pay any assessment due, as aforesaid, within thirty (30) days from the date of notice shall forfeit his membership in the Brotherhood, provided that any member forfeiting his membership under this Article shall be readmitted to the Brotherhood upon payment of all arrears; provided, further, that if a member shall die before the next session of the Annual Conference, and his beneficiaries should at said session pay all arrears, the treasurer shall call an assessment on account of his death."

We hope each member of the Brotherhood will pay his assessments when the notice is sent out so that the beneficiaries may be paid promptly and when they need it. Your cooperation is necessary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

No. 1

THE GENERAL PURPOSE AND PROGRAM OF THE BOARD

A. The General Purpose

Jesus Christ is Lord of all life. Christians proclaim that not only individuals but all societies, all cultures, all nations must finally acknowledge the Lordship and Rule of Christ. He is the One to whom every person must ultimately give account of his life. He also is the standard for judging every corporate activity at local, state, national, and world levels.

The total work and witness of the church involves bringing men to an acceptance of the sovereignty of God over all life. God commands love for himself and neighbor. The love of neighbor demands devotion to the welfare of all men in all their relationships, which of necessity includes the whole realm of public life and social concerns.

The Christian faith is concerned with social issues. Only a person who ignores the teachings of the Holy Scriptures and the social concerns of the Methodist Church's heritage would deny such an assertion. Christ made inseparable the love of God and the love of man. He came not only to seek salvation of individuals, but also the redemption of the social order. Christ's gospel touches human society as well as human souls. The controversy about the "social versus the individual gospel" misleads. Christ had only one gospel. Like a coin with its two sides, His gospel has both personal and social implications.

Social concern and action are not an optional part of the program of the Church. Rather, they are an integral part of its ministry and work. As God reveals himself in Jesus Christ, His involvement in man's total life becomes evident. For the Church to remain true to its role as the Body of Christ, it must manifest Christ's concern and compassionate action wherever human need exists. The doctrine of the Incarnation—that God through his Son became man—has dignified the worth of every man. Thus man's mental, moral, physical, and social welfare become a matter of vital concern for every Christian.

The Christian Church, its ministers, and laymen alike, should relate the gospel to the dominant social forces in economic, political and public affairs. If the Church cannot, or will not speak to the crucial social issues of this era, it may as well close its doors—it will be finished. No area of social or individual experience falls outside the rule of God; and therefore the Church, which is committed to seek, to interpret and to do God's will, must speak to every area of life. The Church must seek to bring every aspect of human thought and conduct—education, world affairs, race relations, politics, recreation, business and family life—under God's rule as revealed by Jesus Christ.

In all its past history Methodism has never had such an effective organization for carrying her social concern and witness to every corner of the church and the nation. Methodism's new organization for Christian Social Concerns is unmatched in all Protestantism. The General Board of Christian Social Concerns leads a social action program reaching to the national, conference, and local levels of the Church. The Board's purpose is "To lift up before the members of the Church and also the secular world the Christian concern for personal, social, and civic righteousness, to analyze the issues which confront the nation and the world as well as the local community and the person, and to propose Christian lines of action."

This purpose and program reaches into every local Church. No Methodist Church, according to the Discipline, is properly organized without the mandatory Commission on Christian Social Concerns.

The local church, then, becomes the heart of Methodist's Christian Social Concerns program. Each local Methodist Church should have a group of concerned Christians—organized as the Commission on Christian Social Concerns—working with their pastor to lead the congregation to study and to act upon social issues confronting their community, state, nation and world.

THE DIVISION OF TEMPERANCE AND GENERAL WELFARE

A. General Policy Statements

1. The General Conference has assigned the following areas of concern to our division (paragraph 1535) alcohol problems; addiction to injurious habits such as use of tobacco and drugs; gambling; pornography; juvenile delinquency and crime; penal system and rehabilitation; mental health and medical care; problems associated with aging, population, and planned parenthood; and traffic safety. Our task is to carry on a program of study, education and action centering around these concerns.

2. The Division commends the following persons and institutions for work in the areas of our concern:

a. The Good Shepherd Home of Lake Waccamaw for its Christian approach in working with alcoholics.

b. The Christian Action League of 424½ Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, and its executive director, the Reverend D. P. McFarland, for their work in high schools and churches throughout our state in the areas of education concerning alcohol problems.

c. The North Carolina Council of Churches of Box 6637, College Station, Durham, for its plans to place a staff person in the area of Christian Social Concerns.

B. Program for the Past Year

1. Commitment Day was observed on the first Sunday in December. No report was called for from the local churches.

2. The Reverend Thomas J. Shipp, pastor of the Lovers Lane Methodist Church in Dallas, Texas, came to our conference to conduct pastor's conferences and public rallies concerning The Church and The Alcoholic. At these Tri-District meetings 245 pastors attended the afternoon pastors conferences and 564 persons attended the evening rallies. Dr. Shipp also addressed the student body of the Duke Divinity School.

C. Program for the Conference Year 1963-64

1. The Division will give leadership to local church commissions which wish to guide their local church in the study entitled "Moral Man and Moral Society." This study seeks to challenge church members to define and discuss morality and its relationship to Christian teaching. The five booklets to be used in this study are:

Sources of Christian Morality by Orlo Strunk, Jr.;

Social Change and Moral Values, by Paul Deats, Jr.;

Decision Making in Personal Life, by Harmon Smith;

Decision Making in Business, by Cameron Hall;

Decision Making in World Affairs, by Harvey Seifert.

Moral Man and Moral Society Local Church sets, including the five booklets and five leaflets, may be purchased for $2.00 per set from the General Board of Christian Social Concerns, 100 Maryland Avenue, Washington 2, D. C.

2. Commitment Day will be observed on Sunday, December 1. Materials will be mailed from the General Board.

3. A one-day seminar will be planned in one of the areas other than alcohol.

4. The following scholarships are being offered to ministers who desire to better equip themselves in order that they may work more redemptively with persons who have an alcoholic problem:

a. Keeley Institute, Box 27, Greensboro, North Carolina, has a 10-day training program for ministers. The cost is $60. Four scholarships are available.

3. At Rutgers (formerly Yale) School of Alcoholic Studies one partial scholarship of $100.00 is available.

c. Anyone interested in participating in these programs may contact the Division Chairman, Vernon C. Tyson, 401 W. Main St., Sanford, N. C.

No. IIITHE DIVISION OF PEACE AND WORLD ORDER*A. General Policy Statements*1. The Church Peace Center at the United Nations

We commend the General Board of Christian Social Concerns and the Woman's Division of Christian Service for their initiative and support in the establishment of the Church Peace Center at the United Nations. This twelve-story Peace Center, scheduled for completion in June, 1963, will cost over $2,000,000, and will house the Methodist United Nations office and its program facilities, as well as those of a number of other denominations and the National Council of Churches. The Center will provide needed facilities for hospitality and services to individuals from U.N. delegations, Secretariat and other visitors from overseas.

Further information on the Church Peace Center, The United Nations and Methodist U.N. Seminars is available from: The Methodist U.N. Office, 345 46th Street, New York 17, N.Y.

2. Charges Against UNICEF

We are aware of irresponsible attacks and charges being made by misinformed organizations and individuals in our state against the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund. We urge pastors, laymen and Christian Social Concerns Chairmen to get the facts and complete information regarding these charges by ordering: UNICEF Fact Sheet ($.15 each), Service Department, The Methodist Building, 100

Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington 2, D. C., and "Facts For Fallacies," U. S. Committee for the U.N., 375 Park Ave., New York 22, N.Y.

We congratulate Mrs. T. S. Newbold of Rocky Mount, a member of our Conference Board of Christian Social Concerns and Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, Christian Social Relations Secretary, who was recently chosen N. C. State Representative for the U.S. Committee for UNICEF. Mrs. Newbold is available as a speaker and resource person for community and church groups interested in UNICEF.

3. U. S. Cuban Policy

We commend President J. F. Kennedy for the way in which he tempered firmness with restraint and his readiness to negotiate during the Cuban crises. We further commend his recourse to the United Nations and the Organization of American States in seeking a pacific settlement of the Cuban dispute. Our government should, where possible, seek to resolve serious differences through these organizations. We believe that the United States, in accord with its own laws and its obligations under the United Nations Charter, should reject the idea of any military invasion of Cuba. We are gratified that United States Policy specifies that Cuban people are not to be denied life's necessities. We support efforts to improve the welfare and to relieve the Cuban people through the United Nations. We urge our church, through appropriate agencies, to seek ways whereby Methodists may send food, medicine, clothing and other evidences of Christian love to Cubans, who are refugees in our own land and those who still live under Communist rule.

4. Foreign Aid

The peace of the world will always be precarious so long as millions of people live in underdeveloped countries in poverty, famine, disease and illiteracy. Churches and other benevolent organizations have made significant efforts to alleviate these conditions but due to the magnitude of these problems, only governments have the resources to make substantial and lasting improvements.

There have been recent criticisms of the manner in which our foreign aid programs have been carried out. These criticisms may be justified but the demand for valid improvements must not be used as an excuse to attack and curtail economic and technical aid. Unfortunately, many see foreign aid only as a cheaper way to support our military and political objectives and they evaluate economic and technical aid on the basis of how these are thereby strengthened. These persons demand cuts in economic and technical rather than military aid. Conditions of hunger, poverty, and ignorance give communism great appeal and this appeal cannot be lessened by arms alone, but rather, only by opportunities for improved living conditions, for which technical and economic aid is needed in agriculture, health, education, industry, and public works. Wherever we fail to meet these needs, the door is open to the false promises of communism and ultimately to communist subversion and control.

5. Support for U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency

We reaffirm our conviction that there is no substitute for world-wide safeguarded disarmament. Our own national security and the peace of our world require the achievement of such a system of effective disarmament. We urge the leaders of our nation and all nations to put all the resources that are necessary into the task of achieving universal, inspected and enforced disarmament.

We declare our continuous support for the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the first government agency of its kind in the world. America's goal, general and complete disarmament, in a peaceful world under law will not come over night. It will take a long time and much hard thinking and work. The complex research and planning so necessary in the achievement of a peaceful and disarmed world is being directed by this agency.

DIVISION ON HUMAN RELATIONS REPORT

The true Church has always been prophet, a voice crying in a wilderness. Prophecy is the interpretation of the past for the purpose of altering the future, not to ulate the past. This is to say that the past is supposed to be a guide post, not a itching post. The Church was called into being to be the one voice in society that was always urging men to come out ahead of the crowd. Yet the organized Church is behind in the race for brotherhood and human relations. The State, industry, and private groups have launched ideas and actions for this cause while the Church's ideas and actions rest silently and camouflaged on the launching pad erected, aimed, and empowered by our Lord twenty centuries ago. Christ's teachings have enough thrust to break through this barrier if he had men with faith and courage enough to launch them. Why have we been guilty of delaying our quest, of exploring new stratospheres in human relations? Part of the answer to that question is that those of us who love our church so dearly believed that the Church should not speak or act on anything that might run the risk of failure or that could endanger her prestige in society. We have been afraid that it was too much of a risk or would demand a price higher than the cause was worth. But as one Christian once said, "It is better to fail in a cause that will ultimately succeed than to succeed in a cause that will ultimately fail." When the Church becomes concerned about protecting herself she is lost. Our Lord said, "He who would save his life will lose it but he who loses his life for my sake will find it." History amplifies the fact that in every period the Church has been concerned with her safety and welfare that she has died and become impotent. Society is expected to lag behind the Church, but regretfully and shamefully we must confess that the Church on this matter is lagging behind society. What shall we do?

We shall not acclaim that we know the answer to all of our human relation problems. Rather we confess that we do not have the answers, but we believe that Christ and his teachings have all the answers. Therefore, we implore our Methodist people in Eastern North Carolina to stop trying to formulate and live by their own ideas and solutions and to make the decision to seek and follow Christ's ideas and solutions. We do not insist that segregation is the cause of our problems in regard to race relations. We know that a segregated society is merely a symptom of the problem and sin. We are not satisfied with treating symptoms, but we want to treat the cause of society's sickness and sin. Even though we believe in social and legal equality, our goal is not merely social and legal equality, but to treat all men as brothers and to proclaim Christian love that can stamp out prejudice.

From the beginning of the relationship between white and Negro peoples in the South there have always been expressions of benevolence and mutual assistance demonstrated from each group toward the other. Though we feel that we have taken a few and more progressive position than our fore-fathers, yet some have lost their benevolence and concern toward our Negro brothers. In these conflicting days and times of instability we recommend that we not let our crusade for Christian principles regarding equality alienate us from this benevolent and brotherly concern even if it has to be done temporarily in the context of a segregated society which we believe is not Christian. Therefore, we make the following recommendation.

We recommend that our Board of Missions be requested to study and report how our Annual Conference could aid the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Central Jurisdiction in Church Extension and that our Minimum Salary Commission be requested to study and report how our Annual Conference could aid the Central Jurisdiction's Conference to establish a minimum salary and raise it more in line with our own.

We recommend and promote the use of interracial committees sponsored by the North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference of the Central Jurisdiction to discuss the problems such as unemployment, migrants, and welfare and social needs.

The General Conference of the Methodist Church has requested studies regarding our jurisdictional system. In response to this request the Central Jurisdiction has presented a report, The Central Jurisdiction Speaks. We recommend that every Methodist read, study, and pray over this report, and that the Board receive, study and make recommendations to the Conference on all matters relating to Christian Social Relations in which the Conference must act.

We encourage every member of the Methodist Church to become familiar with

CITATION

THE HONORABLE TERRY SANFORD GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA

Whereas Governor Sanford has initiated in our state a Good Neighbor Program for every community to end unfair discrimination in employment and to give the Negro in North Carolina a full chance to earn a decent living for his family; and

Whereas Governor Sanford has challenged our state to provide the best possible opportunities for education and employment to insure a good life for all of our people;

Therefore, the Board of Christian Social Concerns and the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church present this citation in commendation for his excellent leadership in improving race relations and opportunities for all the people of North Carolina.

the Methodist Church's position in regard to race relations and brotherhood, and we highly recommend that The Methodist Church and Race be put in the hands of every Methodist in our Conference.

We recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference hold a one-day session on Human Relations in Raleigh during the month of February.

We commend Gov. Terry Sanford and his "Good Neighbor Policy." We hope the Christian leadership in the Church can match much of the Christian action evident in our state and national government in human relations and we pray that the shameful day will never come when the secular government has to legally force the Church to conform to that which is Christian.

REPORT OF THE INTERCONFERENCE COMMISSION ON COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY RELIGIOUS WORK

The Interconference Commission plays the role of a liaison agency between three annual conferences and over 15,000 Methodist students on college campuses in North Carolina. The Commission speaks to students in the name of the conferences and to the conferences on behalf of the students. This strategic and exciting responsibility demands time, imagination, patience, and dedication. Members of the Commission feel their responsibility deeply. At the end of another year we are able to report lively interest and a measure of progress in practically all phases of Methodist student work in the state. The boards of directors and staff personnel have reported to the Commission on their several activities and major concerns. An accounting of the use of funds allocated by the conferences has been made.

To the several employed directors and their associates, as well as to the thousands of participants in Methodism's campus ministry, we express our commendation. To the annual conferences we insist that all leaders of students be undergirded with prayer and the several units of the Methodist Student Movement, financially strengthened.

Below are brief statements describing selected phases of our work at several institutions. These indicate something of the extent and depth of our responsibility and of how we are attempting to meet it.

Many approaches are made in the ministry to Methodist students. At the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, these include: (1) The three-man Department of Religion of the University in which a person may major in religion. (2) The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association. (3) Four Methodist churches ministering within the limits of the village of Chapel Hill. (4) The Wesley Foundation, the organized educational ministry of Methodism to this university community. The Reverend Robert Johnson is director at U.N.C. Because of his knowledge of and contact with a number of Christian scholars of world-wide renown, several of these persons have been brought to lecture to the campus community. In the past several years these have included: Paul Tillich of Harvard, Carl Michalson of Drew, Samuel Miller of Harvard, Paul Lehman of Union Theological Seminary, New York, Gunther Bornkamm of Heidelberg, and others. Under Mr. Johnson's direction a program of concentrated study has been followed. Because of the atmosphere of questioning false presuppositions several persons have been attracted through this ministry of the Church—persons who had formerly considered themselves outside the fold of the Christian faith.

Not only are "name" speakers and study groups a part of the Wesley Foundation's ministry, but so is counseling. The warm, personal ministry revealed so well in personal counseling has been quite in evidence at the Wesley Foundation at Raleigh. Testifying to this is the fact that numerous couples who met and courted at the Wesley Foundation have been united in marriage by the Reverend Neal V. McGlamery who serves as director of the Wesley Foundation at Raleigh.

An open attitude toward others characterizes the campus Christian ministry. In the Methodist Student Fellowship at Duke University, persons of several denominations find avenues of worship and social expression of their faith without the threat of feeling that someone is trying to proselytize them. The Reverend Jackson W. Carroll, chaplain to Methodist students at Duke University, meets weekly with chaplains of all of the other denominations. These meetings are under the supervision of the Reverend Howard Wilkinson, chaplain to the University. Here, joint projects are planned. During the summer of 1962, the Reverend Robert Hyatt, assistant chaplain for West Campus at Duke University, led several students on a work-camp in Nicaragua. The summer of 1963 saw the group more than doubled, with groups being led by the Reverend James Stines, chaplain to Baptist students, and the Reverend Jackson W. Carroll, chaplain to Methodist students. These projects are approached jointly as the university-sponsored program of Christian outreach.

Freedom and friendliness are other qualities which characterize the campus ministry. An open house atmosphere prevails constantly at the Wesley Foundation at Western Carolina College. A hostess is always on duty. Ping pong tables, dancing, a hi-fi record player, the Wesley Foundation library and study rooms are available to students who come and go as they will. Formal programs include worship, study, Sunday school, and discussions.

The need for renewal is symbolized in the several retreats which are sponsored by the Wesley Foundation at Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. Just a few miles from the campus is a small stream with an old mill and cabins which are made available to the students for overnight retreats. The Wesley Foundation director, pastor and two or more faculty advisors usually participate along with the students in these retreats.

The teamwork which is present when the Christian community thrives emanates in the teams which carry on the work of the Wesley Foundation at Boone. One team may be in charge of worship; another, of cooking a meal; another, of washing dishes; another, of the study program, etc.

During the academic year 1962-63, the Wesley Foundation at Boone operated under the capable guidance of a popular professor, Dr. Joseph E. Bryson, who served as acting director. Enthusiastic cooperation on the part of students, pastor, church members and faculty members enabled an effective program to be carried on in the absence of a full-time director. Even greater progress is anticipated under the guidance of a full-time director.

An intangible atmosphere of Christian commitment pervades some campuses such as that at Pfeiffer College. Here, everything seems to be designed to stress Christian commitment—whether it be the character of a physics professor, the quality of a visiting politician, the kind of person who is employed in the field of public relations, or whatever.

The Church's opportunity of ministering in many different areas should not be, must not be, overlooked. Hence, the questioning atmosphere of any campus, whether it is within the context of the Christian faith, or beyond that context, is a fertile field for Christian witness. Needs include: more campus ministers; higher salaries, so that men with families can be employed; parsonages; expenses for continued training, etc. More important than any of these, however, is the need to belong. Campus ministers and other ministers alike should feel that all are in God's Church, working together for Him.

Questions concerning the ministry to campus communities in our state are always welcomed. They should be addressed to the State Director, Methodist Student Movement of North Carolina, 310 S. Spring St., Greensboro, N. C.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ANNUAL CONFERENCE CORPORATIONS

The Annual Conference of 1961, in adopting a report of the Committee on Corporations (see 1961 Journal, pages 168-169), provided that needed amendments be made to corporation charters (see 1960 Journal, pages 161-163). For this work, the time was extended (see 1962 Journal, page 189). The charter of the Board of Trustees, as amended (see 1961 Journal, pages 248-249), is hereby cited as a good example of such work.

A sub-committee of the Committee on Corporations, composed of the Reverend Key W. Taylor, chairman, E. C. Brooks, Jr., and Paul Hardin, Jr., has been appointed to render a definitive judgment as to whether the amended charters fully conform to the directives for such amendments adopted by the Annual Conference (see 1960 Journal, pages 161-163). The amended charters should be sent to E. C. Brooks, Jr., Attorney, secretary to the Committee on Corporations, Trust Building, Durham, North Carolina.

NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR 1962

Christian Education

The Audio-Visual Committee, in cooperation with the National Council of Churches, sponsored a seminar on the use of audio-visuals March 26-30, at Camp Walton Stewart. This was one of two such seminars held in the entire nation.

The College Work Committee, headed by R. P. Hyatt, Associate Chaplain at Duke, cooperated in the establishment of the United Campus Christian ministry at North Carolina College in Durham. It sent out questionnaires to schools of nursing and business colleges throughout the state, asking for religious needs which the committee could meet. As a result, a number of contacts were made and a ministry begun in several schools, including the holding of religious emphasis week at two places. The committee this year continued its sponsorship of an African student at Warren-Wilson College; cooperated in the Raleigh Intercollegiate Conference, and is holding an Ecumenical Retreat in the spring of 1963.

The Youth Work Committee, which sponsors the United Christian Youth Movement, held a four and a half-day summer conference at Linville, a fall assembly at Camp New Hope, and a spring assembly at Durham—all for young people. It also sponsored a retreat for adult workers with youth at Camp New Hops in March. Plans have been made for holding a state-wide Ecumenical Youth Assembly, August 12-17, 1963, at Guilford College, with an attendance goal of 750.

The Council office continues to keep in touch with the local progress of religious week-day education, noting that approximately 50 communities are reaching over 30,000 students in the elementary and high schools. A number of teacher references were made also.

A new committee on Scouting was organized during the year and held its first meeting in November. This committee plans to encourage the growth of Scouting in our Protestant churches and to seek to have a chaplain placed in each Scout camp during the summer.

Christian Social Action

The Committee on Alcoholism sponsored a one-day institute at Concord in October and co-sponsored another in Wilmington in November. Additional institutes are now planned for Greenville, Rocky Mount, and Charlotte. Members of the committee visited high schools over the state, with lectures and audio-visual materials reaching from ten to fifteen thousand students. The committee chairman addressed a county-wide rally of over 750 people in February in Morganton. He appeared in two counties to speak against establishment of ABC stores, and visited prisons regularly.

The Institutional Ministry Committee is sponsoring a one-day conference for ministers, in cooperation with John Umstead Hospital, April 3rd. During the year, the committee contributed to the support of the program carried out by Chaplain Fred Reid at N. C. Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, and, in cooperation with the State Board of Correction and Training, is working toward the appointment of a chaplain for the state correctional schools.

The State Legislative Affairs Committee has set plans for a churchmen's legislative seminar in Raleigh, April 22nd. The chairman and members of the committee have appeared before the General Assembly on behalf of bills in which the Council is particularly interested.

The Commission, spearheaded by the Human Relations Committee, has launched a drive to raise $10,000 a year for the next three years in order to put on the Council staff a director of Christian Social Action. With the majority of funds secured to date, it is expected that the director will begin work sometime in the fall of 1963. His responsibilities will include all aspects of the social action commission program, with particular emphasis on the extremely important field of race relations. At the 1963 Annual Meeting, the Rev. Vernon C. Tyson, pastor of Jonesboro Heights Church, Sanford, was elected chairman of the Social Action Commission.

Town and Country Commission

A re-organized program for CROP—the food relief arm of Church World Service—is being planned for the year 1963.

An excellent Rural Church conference held May 21-23 at State College, N. C. was sponsored by the Rural Church Committee. Rev. Key Taylor represented the Conference on the Planning Committee, Roy Turnage took an active part in the Convocation. A similar convocation is now set for April 29-30, 1963, at State College.

The ministry to migrants enjoyed its most active session, with a staff of fifteen workers engaged in six counties. A used station wagon was purchased during the spring of 1962, and a new station bus is to be purchased in the spring of 1963 which will replace one of the old wagons. New public address equipment is being purchased this year to equip the new wagon. For 1963 two area supervisors are to be employed, lending strength to the over-all direction and coordination of the program. At least two new day care centers are being planned for 1963, bringing the total to four over the state. These will reach approximately 150 migrant children. Rev. Jack Mansfield, Morehead City, is chairman of the Carteret County Committee.

The Department of United Church Women held a two-day spring seminar at Kings Mountain; sponsored the World Day of Prayer in approximately 250 communities; also sponsored May Fellowship Day and World Community Day. Two new local councils were organized during the year—one in Manteo and one in Erwin—bringing the total to 48.

Other Council Activities

A statement of the role of the laity in the church was drafted by a special committee and approved December 7th at the Executive Board meeting. It is hoped this will lead to the establishment of an active program of men's work in the state.

The list of foreign students in the institutions of higher education in the state was compiled in the Council office, listing 993 students for the year 1962-1963.

An enlarged program of collecting clothing for Church World Service was launched, with 135,000 pounds collected during the year.

A list of church membership in North Carolina was compiled in the Council office. Numerous pamphlets and educational materials on the world-wide work of the ecumenical movement are also available in the Council office.

At the Annual Meeting, held in Winston-Salem January 28-30, 1963, Dr. Harold J. Dudley brought to a close his two-year administration as Council president, leaving behind a record of high achievement. His successor is the Rev. George R. Whittecar, Salisbury, president of the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina. Members of the N. C. Conference serving on the Council's Executive Board are: Blaine M. Madison, member of Edenton Street Church, Raleigh, chairman of Public Relations; Dr. Cecil W. Robbins, president of Louisburg College, chairman of Christian Education; Rev. Vernon C. Tyson, Sanford, chairman, Christian Social Action; and Mrs. Guion G. Johnson, Chapel Hill, member-at-large.

At the 1962 Annual Conference in Kinston, conference delegates to the N. C. Council of Churches met for the first time in a special session, and elected Dr. E. L. Hillman, Durham, chairman. Dr. Hillman is a former president of the Council.

Mrs. Harold J. Dudley also closed her three-year administration as chairman of the Department of United Church Women and 4th vice president of the Council, after one of the most successful administrations in the history of the Women's Department.

Your Council of Churches feels that the year 1963 should be the most significant year of development since the Council began in 1936. For this reason, the growing support being given by the Conference is particularly encouraging and is deeply appreciated. Let us go forward together united in the cause of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

MORTON R. KURTZ, Executive Director

REPORT OF THE DEACONESS BOARD

We have one active deaconess in the North Carolina Conference—Miss Ethelynde Ballance, Director of Christian Education in the Raeford Methodist Church. Two retired deaconesses reside within our conference: Miss Elizabeth Davis, Nash Mont Rest Home, Rocky Mount, North Carolina, and Miss Mary Nichols, Grace Street, Wilmington, North Carolina.

This year, members of the Conference Deaconess Board have helped in the observance of the 75th anniversary of the deaconess movement in America. Miss Ballance, Miss Nichols, and Miss Mamie Chandler who served many years in our conference, led in this observance at the Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Elizabeth City in March. Miss Ballance spoke at the Annual Meeting of the North Carolina Conference Wesleyan Service Guild in Goldsboro in March, and in the spring meeting of the Fayetteville District Woman's Society of Christian Service held in Southern Pines.

The Deaconess Board, with the North Carolina Conference Woman's Society of Christian Service, had printed a souvenir booklet for distribution throughout our conference. This booklet interprets the deaconess relationship and lists the opportunities open for deaconess service in our conference.

Recognizing the rich heritage of the deaconess movement, we accept the challenge before us. We must continue to present deaconess work to our youth in local churches, district and conference vocational conferences. We must continue to stress the importance of the Committee on Christian Vocations in the local church. We must continue to present the deaconess relationship to all women employees of the church, and to business and professional women in the local church.

In this 75th anniversary year, when our recruitment goal is "75 for '63," the Deaconess Board of the North Carolina Conference rejoices that we have two who are in the process of becoming deaconesses. Miss Bernice Ballance, Educational Assistant in Divine Street Methodist Church, Dunn, is in the process of applying for the deaconess relationship. Miss Louise Sparrer, Director of Christian Education in First Methodist Church, Wilson, is an accepted candidate serving her period of probation.

We submit this report with gratitude for our heritage and with acceptance of the challenge before us.

COMMITTEE ON GENERAL CHURCH SCHOOL WORK

O. KELLY INGRAM, Chairman

SUMMARY REPORT FOR 1962-1963

Church School Membership and Attendance

We are pleased to report an increase in church school membership, 1961-1962 over previous year, of 1.5% for a total of 146,998. The Methodist Church as a whole showed a decrease of 4/10 of 1%. Average attendance remained approximately the same as the previous year. There was an increase in the number of church school members joining the church on profession of faith of 308 for a total of 4,163 out of a grand total of 5,325 or 78%. The Methodist Church as a whole showed a decrease in the number of additions to the church by profession of faith. 61.7% of these were church school pupils. Our Conference had a gain of 13 new church schools while the total gain for The Methodist Church was only 46. We hope the report of the year 1962-1963 will be equally as good. There is ample room for improvement if we are to reach the masses with the Gospel of Christ.

Outpost Church Schools

Approximately 56 possibilities for outpost church schools and classes have been reported by the pastors of our Conference. While we have no reliable report on the number that have already been started, we are reasonably confident that at least twelve of these are in operation. We feel that this is an effective way to reach persons not being reached by our regular church and church school programs and we call upon our pastors and laymen to participate in this significant ministry.

Leadership Training

During the past year 35 Subdistrict Christian Workers' Schools have been held with an enrollment of 2689 and 1812 course cards of credit issued. In addition five one-teacher schools enrolled 187 and issued 82 course cards of credit. In connection with these schools 18 laboratory observation courses were taught with an enrollment of 240 and 11 course cards of credit issued. A grand total of 3116 local church and church school workers were enrolled in these leadership training enterprises of which 2105 received course cards of credit. Thirty-five persons attended the Leadership and Laboratory Schools at Lake Junaluska. Six attended the seminar for prospective laboratory instructors and one person attended the audio-visual seminar at Lake Junaluska. Our executive secretary served as dean of the Leadership School and our director of Children's Work served as supervisor of the laboratory school. Ten delegates from our Conference attended the Church School Administrators' Conference and ten persons attended the Institute of Church Music at Lake Junaluska. Four persons attended the Sej Recreation Workshop at Leesburg, Florida. Three couples attended the National Family Life Conference in Chicago, Illinois, and ten attended the Jurisdictional Family Life Conference at Lake Junaluska.

One thousand three hundred twenty-nine persons received training in the 15 vacation church school institutes. Sixty persons received training in two staff training camps. A total of 4,479 persons attended our camps during the past year. Of this number 1,153 were enrolled in organized camps for junior children, junior high and senior high boys and girls, family camps, etc. Three thousand four hundred twenty-six of these were in local church retreat groups of from one to five-day duration.

Numerous local church consultations, weekend labs, seminars, etc., were conducted by the Conference staff in such areas as planning church school buildings, classroom arrangement and equipment, team teaching, planning a unit of study, curriculum selection, etc.

Local Church Consultation Service

Nine district training sessions and pilot lab consultations were held in September for local church consultants with the Reverend Randle B. Dew of Nashville, Tennessee, as the resource leader. Approximately 100 persons received training in these sessions and have agreed to serve as local church consultants in the various areas of Christian education. Approximately 20 local church consultations have been conducted by these consultants during the past year. We are anxious for our local churches to use this service which is administered by the district directors of general church school work.

Emphases, 1963-1964

Purpose of Christian Education: "Through Christian Education the fellowship of believers (the church) seeks to help persons become aware of God's seeking love as shown especially in Jesus Christ and to respond in faith and love to the end that they may develop self-understanding, self-acceptance, and self-fulfillment under God; increasingly identify themselves as sons of God and members of the Christian community; live as Christian disciples in all relations in human society; and abide in the Christian hope." Foundations of Christian Teaching In Methodist Churches, page 31. To the end that this purpose might be realized in the churches of the North Carolina Conference the Board of Education proposes the following emphases:

I

Training for Leadership in Church and the Church School

1. Recommended courses for Subdistrict Christian Workers' Schools, 1963-64:
 - a. Foundations for Christian Teaching
 - b. The Life and Mission of the Church
 - c. Understanding the Bible
 - d. Christian Beliefs
2. A coaching conference will be held for prospective instructors for the above-mentioned courses, September 10-12, 1963. The coaches will be Dr. Wayne M. Lindecker, Jr., the Reverend Roy Ryan, the Reverend J. Ervin McDonough and Dr. A. J. Walton.
3. Small churches are urged to take advantage of the special provisions made for one-teacher schools.
4. While conference and subdistrict leadership education opportunities are indispensable in our total program of leadership education, increasingly our local churches should come to the realization that local church training classes designed to minister to the special needs of the particular church represent the sine qua non of the church's program of leadership education.
5. While the Lake Junaluska Laboratory Schools this summer will be restricted to selected teams, attention is directed to the fact that the Leadership School to be held July 28-August 6, 1963 will be open to interested persons.
6. Local churches are urged to send their general church school officers to the Church School Administrators' Conference at Lake Junaluska, August 9-11, 1963.

II

Local Church Consultation Service

Local churches are urged to continue calling on the staff of the Board of Education for consultation in the area of building and improving church school facilities. In case of the need to secure counsel with reference to other problems of the church school, the pastor or church school superintendent is requested to get in touch with the district director of general church school work who, in turn, will arrange for a qualified consultant to visit the church for a period of consultation. These consultants serve without honorarium, but the local church is expected to pay travel and other expenses.

III

Outpost Church School and Classes

An outpost church school is defined as "an organized, sponsored, supervised continuous teaching ministry, beyond the usual and regular program of the church, to groups of persons who are not now being reached by the church." Pastors and Commissions on Education are urged to consider establishing outpost church schools in churches that do not now have church schools and abandon churches, in new churches, in locations which may grow into churches, in non-churched communities which may not grow into churches, and in church communities to reach persons who do not come to the church because of occupational, social, economic or cultural barriers.

Pastors and district superintendents are urged to continue the establishment of such outpost church schools and are requested to report to the executive secretary of the Board of Education concerning any such schools which are brought into existence.

IV

Evangelism through the Church School

It had been the hope of some that evangelism through the church school might be the special emphasis for the year 1963-64. This special program has been postponed because of the congestion of the Conference calendar, but pastors, church school superintendents, superintendents for membership cultivation and Commissions on Education are urged to make evangelism a permanent concern. Attention is called to the definition with which this section on emphases began, and all our workers are urged to keep in mind the evangelistic nature of the purpose of Christian Education. Teachers should be trained for their evangelistic functions. Pastors should apply themselves conscientiously and more extensively to preparation for and presentation of classes in church membership.

V

Increasing Church School Membership and Attendance

1. Increasing church school membership:

a. Pastors should seek the best qualified person to serve as superintendent of membership cultivation and take a personal interest in helping that person to become equipped to do his job. There is an abundance of material available to guide this superintendent.

2. Increasing church school attendance: Every church school, regardless of size, should systematically keep a record of its absentees, referring their names to the church school superintendent for membership cultivation who, in turn, should see to it that such absentees are contacted. Also, attention should be given to the causes for absenteeism, such as, uninteresting lesson procedures, lack of hospitality, poor organization and age grouping.

VI

Special Days

1. World Service Sunday in the Church School, fourth Sundays
2. Church School Rally Day, September 22, 1963
3. Promotion Sunday in the Church School, September 29, 1963
4. Christian Education Week, September 29-October 6, 1963

5. Student Recognition Sunday, December 29, 1963
6. Race Relations Sunday, February 9, 1964
7. Children's Day, May 4, 1964
8. National Family Week, May 4-11, 1964
9. Methodist Student Day, June 7, 1964

The Executive Secretary of the Board of Education

The North Carolina Conference has enjoyed the services and wise leadership of one of the veterans in the field of Christian education in its executive secretary of the Board of Education, Dr. C. P. Morris. Through the years he has demonstrated prophetic courage in his efforts for social righteousness and personal integrity in all his dealings. The Board takes notice of his selfless attention to duty and his enlightened leadership within the Board and the Conference and expresses for both sincere gratitude and warm affection. We respectfully call upon our bishop to reappoint Dr. C. P. Morris to the post of executive secretary of the Board of Education for the year 1963-64.

COMMITTEE ON CHILDREN'S WORK

E. C. SHOAF, Chairman

PROGRESS REPORT FOR 1962-63

The transmission of our heritage in the Christian faith to our children is a continuous process of the church involving the securing, training and supervision of teachers, the making and use of a curriculum, the intelligent support of parents, and a variety of special learning activities provided by the local church and conference.

The committee on children's work has given emphasis to the following areas of need this year:

1. The Nursery Home Visitation program in each church has been stressed by arranging for contacts and new materials to be given to each nursery home visitor to encourage family support and participation in the Christian education of their children.
2. A renewed emphasis has been made on the importance of the use of Methodist curriculum materials and additional aid has been given in their use and interpretation. The committee has also spent considerable time planning to introduce the new curriculum for children in the fall of 1964.
3. In order to continue the effectiveness of our vacation church schools, fifteen institutes were held with 1329 teachers attending for special training. In connection with the institute, a class to introduce day camping to local church leaders was held with interested response.
4. During the year ten laboratory courses were conducted. Of the 123 persons enrolled in these courses, 105 received course cards of recognition. Two week-end laboratory courses were held in local churches for teachers and prospective teachers.
5. Four hundred and five persons enrolled in children's workers' courses in nineteen Christian workers' schools. Of this number 276 fulfilled the requirements of the course and received course cards of recognition.
6. Mission study institutes were conducted in several of the districts to prepare teachers to conduct the special mission study this year. The district directors of children's work and the WSCS secretary of children's work along with the district missionary secretary jointly planned and conducted these enterprises.
7. One of the most exciting and promising projects undertaken is the plan to provide a special ministry to exceptional children. The committee has met with representatives from the North Carolina State Association for Mentally Retarded Children, Murdoch and Caswell Schools, supervisors from the State Department of Instruction, professors of special education at the University of North Carolina and other interested leaders. These efforts have produced two types of program plans. First, a camp will be conducted for mentally retarded children at Camp Don Lee, August 18-23, 1963. A part of the counseling staff will come from the Murdoch and Caswell schools along with some of their children; other children will come from the various communities in our conference. Second, the local communities are being canvassed across the conference to identify where there is a need for special church school classes for mentally retarded and handicapped children. When they are found, the committee will meet with the local church pastor, commission chairman, and the local chapter of the Association for the Mentally Retarded Children to make plans to set up and staff such a class. We believe that during the next two years several such classes will be established.

8. We have continued our supervision of many additional regular areas of work, including camping, leadership development and teacher training in workers' schools, workshops, weekend clinics, contacts with weekday kindergarten teachers, participation in conducting area laboratory schools, church building consultations, and others.

9. It is good to take note that there continues to be an increasing number of requests from local churches for consultation in all phases of children's work. This enables us to deal effectively with the local church. Our Conference director has spent a great deal of his time and effort in the field doing this work and has found it to be very productive. Because of the necessity to limit the director's time in this area, we are now beginning to use qualified resource leaders in some of these consultation sessions. We hope this trend will continue.

Recommendations for 1963-64

A review of our work with children suggests that the following emphases should be made during the coming year, 1963-64.

1. That vacation church school institutes be held in 10 areas during March 1964, using the theme, "Learning About Jesus and From Him." We recommend that the institutes be conducted from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., with a brief period being given to prepare plans for the new children's curriculum.

2. That Mission Education institutes be conducted in each district under the joint direction of the district directors of children's work and Woman's Society of Christian Service, district secretaries of children's work. We recommend the use of the world mission study theme, "The Christian Mission in Southern Asia." We suggest the dates November 10-17 for an afternoon or evening training session. A coaching conference for district directors and secretaries of children's work will be arranged, if possible, for August 11 at Duke University.

3. That Christian workers' schools include the recommended courses for children's teachers to prepare them for the new curriculum. Boards of Managers are urged to consult the list of recommended courses related to the new curriculum.

4. We express concern over the lack of response to the current leadership training program of Christian workers' schools. Pastors and church school superintendents are urged to give most careful thought in selecting courses which will meet the needs of their people and to vigorously encourage their participation in these schools.

5. We recommend that the North Carolina Board of Education present the following solution to the Department of Leadership Education, General Board of Education, Nashville, Tennessee. "Appreciative of the current emphases on theological and Biblical studies and anticipating this continued emphasis, we also believe that there is a need for special courses in the leadership training program which will aid teachers in developing particular skills in creative teaching, such as creative activities in the classroom, using drama, music, storytelling, etc. We urge that leaders' guides be prepared for the teaching of these courses; and that they be listed in the Manual of Christian Workers' Schools. Although the presupposition is that these skills may be dealt with within the framework of the present age group courses, the practical aspect of the time element makes this an impossibility.

We most earnestly request an immediate improvement in texts and course design. This is especially urgent for the effective preparation and continued training of workers to use the new curriculum for children and for those curriculum innovations now being planned for youth and adults."

6. That our committee continue its two phases, camping and local church school classes, in the development of a ministry to exceptional children.

7. That our major effort for the year 1963-64 be concentrated in aiding the local church prepare for the use of the new curriculum for children entitled, "Christian Studies for Methodist Children." The plans for introducing the new curriculum include the following:

- a. July, 1963, Special classes in the Southeastern Jurisdictional Leadership School.
- b. September, 1963, Subdistrict meetings of church school administrative officers to give guidance in grouping, change of quarter system, literature order and step-by-step plans for local church preparation.
- c. November 12-15, 1963, District pastors' meetings—to give information to pastors and also preparation for informing the WHOLE church about developments in the new curriculum.
- d. July, 1964, Subdistrict training sessions for local church personnel
- e. August 1964, Three area laboratory schools using "Christian Studies for Methodist Children."
- f. September 6, 1964, all churches begin using "Christian Studies for Methodist Children."

We are pleased to note the continued good response being given our director of children's work by local church workers as well as personnel at conference and general board level. By his competence, good will, and efficient service he has enabled teachers and workers to reach children with the gospel. We therefore heartily recommend his re-appointment as conference director of children's work.

Section C

COMMITTEE ON YOUTH WORK

W. ALBERT GRAHAM, Chairman

PROGRESS REPORT FOR 1962-63

Enrollment in the Youth Division increased 687 to a total of 29,135, for an increase of 2.4%.

The Senior Workshop was held for the first time at North Carolina Wesleyan College. A capacity of 225 delegates and staff attended the week-long activities.

A new venture in the senior summer program was attempted in July. The purpose of this weekend conference, called the Moral Concerns Conference, was "to help youth discover principles through which they may establish personal standards for moral conduct in the light of the Christian gospel." The area of moral concern discussed was "The Role of Sex in Christian Living." Eighty-nine delegates and staff attended this conference.

Five hundred delegates and staff attended the Eleventh Annual Conference Session at Duke University in August. These persons were joined by 1900 youths and their adult leaders for Rally Day.

Four hundred and fifty-three Junior Highs participated in the summer camping program. The third Senior Camp was attended by eighty-eight youth, an increase of thirteen over the year before.

An effort was made last year to stop the seemingly waning interest in the summer program for seniors. The Senior Youth Council tried to develop a program which would meet the needs of the youth, as well as a program which would be of interest to them. Attempts were made to improve the publicity and a set of slides was developed for local church use. We can report that 902 seniors participated in the summer program last summer, compared with the 722 of the year before. This was an increase of 180 youth.

The Youth Committee and the Youth Council have felt that a varied program should be offered to the youth of the conference. We believe that a program which is varied will appeal to the differing interests of the youth of our local churches. Though the number attending each event might not be large, the total impact would be to reach more youth with the gospel.

In this vein the first Senior High United Nations-Washington Study Tour on Peace and World Order was held March 16-22, 1963, with thirty-six youth and five adults paricipating. Sixty-four youth applied for this new experience!

The projected summer program for seniors is one which will offer experiences for differing interests and needs. In addition to the Senior Workshop and Annual Conference Session, another Moral Concerns Conference will be held at Camp Don Lee. Two new programs are offered this year. One of the most exciting opportunities is the Senior Work Camp to be held among the migrant workers in the Morehead City area. Here is a concrete opportunity for a young person to render service to persons in need. The second new feature is the Recreation Workshop. This is the first time a workshop of this type has been held in the summer months. This is a cooperative venture with the Young Adult Council.

In the area of leadership education, we can report twenty-six courses were offered in Christian Workers' Schools with 440 persons enrolled and 331 receiving credit cards. This report includes four Junior High Labs and four Senior High Labs.

Last summer two persons from our Conference attended a special training opportunity sponsored by the General Board of Education and Social Concerns. Help was offered in how to use the new undated unit entitled "Sex and the Whole Person," by Frank Wier. As an outgrowth of this experience, two training opportunities for adult workers with youth have been held in Christian Workers' Schools. The adult workers were given help in how to use this unit in their local churches. In addition, a week-long conference wide experience was held in April for selected ministers and directors of Christian Education.

As of February 28, $8,197.01 has been raised for the Methodist Youth Fund. This is a decrease of $968.65 over the same period last year.

The special MYF Study Commission has been at work this year. Dr. Leo Rippy, Jr., our director, and a graduate assistant at Scarritt College, Miss Phyllis Silcox, have spent a great deal of time in determining the design to be used in discovering the answers to the questions raised by the Commission. A questionnaire has been sent to a "sample" of the local churches. During the summer these youth groups will be given further tests. While this tedious work is going on, members of the Study Commission have been divided into two sections. One group is working on "the theological foundations of youth work" and the other is concerned with "understanding the youth and his world." In the fall the results of the work done by Dr. Rippy will be given to the Commission. Then the task of evaluating and recommending will begin, to be followed by experimentation in the local churches. A word of thanks is expressed to Dr. Rippy, Miss Silcox, and the members of the Study Commission for their untiring service in this most important project.

Excellent reports have come from each district regarding the youth programs in that area. We express our appreciation to the district directors for their service.

Recommendations for Youth Work

1. That the work of the special MYF Study Commission be endorsed as it continues its task of studying, evaluating, and recommending programs for all levels of the Methodist Youth Fellowship.
2. That a Convocation of Adult Workers with Youth be held in the late summer of 1964 with special emphasis being placed on "Youth—Their World, Their Dreams, Their Faith, Their Gospel."
3. That a second Senior High United Nations-Washington Study Tour be held March 14-20, 1964.

8. That the possibility for a statewide Methodist Youth Assembly be explored.
 9. That an Assembly for Engaged Couples be considered for early spring 1964.
 10. That recognizing the need for a more effective ministry among older youth-adults, a committee explore, with General Board personnel, the possible approaches to this age group, possibly to leading pilot seminars.

 17. That courses for adult workers with youth be included in all Christian Workers' Schools and, where possible, a laboratory course be offered.
 18. That recognizing the youth are a part of the church, all boards and agencies hold their meetings at a time when the youth members may attend.
- The Youth Committee feels that the Conference Youth program has broadened considerably under the guidance and direction of the Rev. J. C. Glass, Jr.
- We commend him for his diligence in guiding and encouraging the youth in their work and for his leadership in the undertaking of new projects which are offering our youth greater opportunities to grow as Christians and to enrich their faith and understanding of the ministry of the church.
- We feel that this diligence in carrying out the youth program, and his willingness to add new responsibilities to his already considerable duties, is an indication of his deep commitment and devotion to this task.
- We heartily commend his reappointment as Conference director of youth work.

COMMITTEE ON ADULT WORK

R. L. CANNON, JR., Chairman

PROGRESS REPORT, 1962-63

Enrollment in the Adult Division increased by 751 to a total of 61,685 (1961-62). This is an increase of 1.2% over 1960-61.

A total of seven courses pertaining to the work of the Adult Division were offered in Christian Workers' Schools. There was an enrollment of 125 with 76 course cards of recognition. One Adult Laboratory course was held with twenty-three enrolled. Twenty-two received course cards.

The Young Adult Assembly at Camp Don Lee was attended by thirty-three delegates. The Assembly was devoted to helping young adults understand the nature and purpose of the church in changing times and to comprehend how they can be the church in these changing times.

The Third Annual Spiritual Life Retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge had thirty-five participants.

Much progress has been made during the year in the training of adult leaders in the proper procedures and methods in leading individual groups in selecting study materials.

Young Adult Week was observed in many local churches during the week of Janu ary 20-27. Activities for such an observance were suggested by the Conference Young Adult Council in a mailing to all local churches.

New resources, activities, and ideas were presented to local churches through mailing the "Young Adult Letter" by Conrad Glass.

Quadrennial Goals—1960-64

1. Create a consciousness of the unique importance of Christian adults in the life of the community and of their need for continuing spiritual, mental and social growth.
2. Increase awareness of the significance of the Adult Division in the church organization, and stimulate the formation of Adult Councils in local churches, to increase service to adults of all ages; and to inform members of work of our Methodist agencies and institutions.
3. Help to increase understanding and mutual appreciation between members of various economic, social and racial groups both inside and outside of the church.
4. Foster an increased knowledge of the Bible, and acceptance of the Christian's obligation and desire to relate it to daily living.
5. Help local adult classes to become redemptive fellowships, increase active participation of nominal church members, and help the church school become a more effective evangelistic arm of the church.
6. Improve teaching procedures so as to involve class members in learning situations and help each person to understand and assume leadership and membership functions.
7. Help adults understand themselves, to strengthen marital relationships, and improve family life through increased parental competence.

Programs and Recommendations for 1963-64

A. Leadership Training:

1. We recommend refresher courses for local church consultants in the area of adult work. Curriculum selection should be emphasized in each one of these consultations.
2. We urge the inclusion of a course on Adult Work in every Christian Workers' school. Special emphasis should be given to 410—"Understanding Adults," 412.1—"Young Adult Work in the Church," and "Goals and Materials for Methodist Church schools."
3. In conjunction with the Committee on Youth Work, we recommend that a joint study committee, under the leadership of General Board staff members, be set up to determine how the local church can best minister to working youth-young adults in metropolitan areas.

B. Conference Meetings and Concerns:

1. We recommend that district directors of Adult Work encourage young adults in each local church to participate in the Young Adult Assembly and the Spiritual Life retreat.
2. We recommend cooperation with the Committee on Youth Work in the sponsorship of a Recreation Workshop during the conference year 1963-64.
3. We propose that special emphasis on Ministering to Older Adults be presented in the Annual Conference agenda to help the local church become more aware of its responsibility in this area of service.
4. We support the Family Life Committee in its recommendation urging the establishing of a Conference Counseling Service, and the conducting of local Family Life Workshops.
5. In order to encourage teachers in the local church school to become more effective in their efforts, we recommend the selection by the Conference Board of Education staff of one book for each department to read.

C. District and Subdistrict Work:

1. Training of District and Subdistrict Directors
 - a. One-day District Adult Council Meetings—Fall, 1963

 - a. Mental Health Workshops—in cooperation with State Board of Health.

- b. Bible Conferences—in cooperation with local Board of Managers.

D. Adult Education in the Local Church:

1. We emphasize the importance of the local church Commission on Education making full use of the Workers' Conference for planning and coordinating work to reach all adults with sound Christian teaching; and we propose that the Local Church Consultation Service be used in implementing its work.

2. We recommend the setting up of Pilot Classes or Study Groups for the purpose of introducing new curriculum materials and new methods of teaching them as a means of increasing interest in curriculum selection and effectiveness of teaching in all classes of the Adult Division.

3. We call upon every church to observe Young Adult Week, January 19-26, 1964.

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

H. L. HARRELL, Chairman

Progress Report for 1962-63

Bishop Hazen G. Werner said that "home is where life makes up its mind." Our Conference Committee on Christian Family Life is working constantly to help our families within the bounds of our Conference to make up their minds in Christian love, understanding and service.

Courses and lectures in all phases of family living have been varied and extensive in our Conference this year. They have been held in Christian Workers' Schools, local churches, PTA's and other school organizations, and in other community groups.

The Board of Education staff has cooperated in every way, and has made its contributions through camps and conferences and laboratory classes.

Courses on boy-girl friendships and preparation for marriage have been taught in local churches, public schools and other organizations.

Family life courses have been taught in churches of other denominations by leaders in our Conference.

The National Methodist Family Life Conference, held in the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, October 19-21, 1962, was attended by Rev. and Mrs. Kelly Wilson of Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Satterwhite of Fairmont Church, Raleigh; and Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Harrell of Goldsboro.

9. That the dedication of new homes be promoted.
10. We recommend family camping, especially that provided by our Conference.
11. That National Family Week be observed May 4-10, 1964. The Round Robin substitute may be used effectively in our own churches and in cooperation with other denominations. (See page 181, 1961 Journal.)

COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS AND DIRECTORS OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MUSIC

JULIAN ALDRIDGE, Chairman

Christian Education Section

Directors of Christian Education are now serving the cause of Christian nurture in forty-seven local churches in our conference. They receive professional and moral support from the Conference Board of Education who certifies them and maintains professional standards, training opportunities and supports their professional association. This year, the Conference Board of Education shared in the planning of the statewide DCE association meeting in November, held a banquet in June at Annual Conference, and supported the Jurisdictional DCE Workshop at Lake Junaluska in August.

The committee recommends the following means of support for these workers during the coming year:

1. That the Board of Education be host to a luncheon meeting of Directors of Christian Education and Music during the annual conference session in Greenville, June, 1963.
2. That continued support be given to the North Carolina State Association of Methodist Directors of Christian Education in their planning for their meeting in November, 1964, at Edenton Street Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina.

3. That the Executive Secretary use every means to keep the DCE informed of programs, training opportunities, and new materials and procedures; and that a special effort be made to maintain contact with all our educational assistants. In this connection it is recommended that each new DCE or Educational Assistant who becomes employed at a local church in our conference be invited as guest of the Board of Education to the offices in Raleigh for a briefing on the services and materials provided by the staff.

4. To further strengthen the level of training and work performance of DCE's and Educational Assistants, it is recommended that the Board of Education through its staff sponsor and conduct a seminar on Christian Education every two years, on alternate years to the North Carolina State Association meeting, utilizing competent leaders to further the training of DCE's and educational assistants.

COMMITTEE ON CAMPS AND CONFERENCES

BROOKS PATTEN, Chairman

Progress Report for 1962-63

Camping within the North Carolina Conference is ever increasing and becoming more diversified. Capacity enrollments were achieved last summer for regular campers at Don-Lee and Chestnue Ridge. Both Junior and Senior High camps are now being held concurrently for a full summer's program.

CAMP DON-LEE—Of special mention is the new two-week Junior High camp which offered sailing and outpost camping at South River. This was a most rewarding experience to all participating. Two such periods of camping are scheduled for 1963. Senior High solidly supported the Senior Camp at Don-Lee last summer with a registration of 88 campers. Regular campers at Don-Lee last summer numbered 684.

Don-Lee was host to the Young Adult Assembly, Family Camp, Moral Concerns Conference (Seniors and Older Youth), the MSM Directors' Retreat, and the Pastors' Orientation Workshop. Attendance at these totaled 248. Weekend Retreat Groups numbered 551 in attendance, with 364 participating in one-day picnic groups. Most noticeable trend was the increasing number of churches who sent groups to Don-Lee for two-night periods throughout the year. There were 20 in all, involving 637 persons.

New additions to the facilities this year include seven new "Sailfish" sailboats. These make it possible for all campers to participate in the sailing program regularly.

We are indebted to the guidance given by Wesley G. Brogan and Gerald Shim for the projection of a Camp for Mentally Retarded Children this summer. Children from Murdock Hospital at Butner, Caswell Training School, Kinston, and communities within our conference will be served by this special program. The hospital staff is lending every cooperation. Civic clubs and church groups are providing camp scholarships for the program to be held August 18-23.

New program addition for 1963 also includes two consecutive Family Camps between July 13-19, making it possible for families to spend an entire week in camp, if desired.

CAMP CHESTNUT RIDGE—In addition to providing a full summer of organized Junior and Junior High Camps, Chestnut Ridge serves churches and organizations the year around for short term camping. For instance, 33 groups with 841 persons were overnight groups; 7 groups with 309 campers were for two nights; and 40 groups with 1,100 persons used the facilities for one-day picnic groups. This new camp is recognized as one of the important camping centers in North Carolina, whose facilities are in constant request.

IMPROVEMENTS THIS YEAR—Program: Two-week camp periods are projected for Junior and Junior High campers. A camp naturalist is being added to the staff to serve as a resource specialist throughout the resident camp period.

Facilities: Beautiful new Crane Lodge and four fine cabins have now been completed and are in use. Our sincere thanks go to Mr. Bill Price for the gift of this fine winterized unit lodge in honor of Dr. Henry Hitt Crane. The lodge is spacious and inviting, with a large fireplace, dining facilities for 42 people, excellent kitchen, toilets, and two large porches. Central oil heat makes it usable year-round. Four winterized cabins with inside toilets and showers provide excellent accommodations. We express our appreciation to our Superintendent of Camps, Mr. Robert Reed, for his supervision of construction and attention to every detail, which has saved many thousand dollars of our construction budget.

Official opening of this new "Crane Crest" camp unit will be held on August 31 at 10:00 a.m., with Bishop Paul N. Garber and Dr. Henry Hitt Crane participating in the opening service. A barbecue lunch will be served at noon. It is hoped that a large attendance will be on hand.

Also at Chestnut Ridge a new nine-acre lake will greet campers this summer. Thanks to the MYF's of the Burlington and Durham Districts this inviting addition becomes a focal point of enrichment and pleasure to camp life. The lake is being stocked with pream and bass.

CAMP ROCKFISH—As stated last year, facilities at this beautiful site on Lake Upchurch, near Raeford, will be ready for use by next spring. Professor Charles Stott, head of the Department of Park Development at N. C. State College, has been secured to master-plan this camp. He has been at work with the Camp Committee, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Camp Consultant of the General Board of Education, and a Fayetteville District Committee. Statement of needs and requirements has been reviewed. Construction on site development will begin in the fall. First major facilities envision a unit lodge and swimming area. These will make possible local church use in the immediate future. Next steps will be taken as funds and gifts make them possible.

KERR LAKE METHODIST CAMP—Facilities here will be reserved for local church and family camp use. Two small group camps, with covered wagons, hogans, water, and cooking areas are completely equipped. A counselor cabin provides refrigeration, and an electric stove, if desired. Seven churches used these facilities last summer for 474 camper days. Mr. Charles Stott is also master-planning here.

This beautiful site provides privacy, good swimming beach, fishing, abundant water and exploration area. With the addition of a truck and maintenance equipment, we are now in position to keep this site mowed and in good shape. A "host" family will be on his property this summer to help orient those who wish to use the facilities. We urge that this be called to the attention of each church and families who want to camp together.

GENERAL—In addition to the program of Senior camping at Camp Don-Lee, a Senior High Leadership Workshop and a Recreation Workshop are being held this summer at N. C. Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount. A Young Adult Assembly will be held in early June at Camp Don-Lee, with the Young Adult Spiritual Life Retreat at Camp Chestnut Ridge in late September. The Appalachian Trail Hike is offered again for experienced Senior Campers.

Throughout the entire camping program the question of man's relation to Christian education out-of-doors is the foundation of every camp program. Camping experiences are planned that between campers themselves and with their leaders, new relationships are achieved and Christian growth takes place. More and more local churches are holding from two to five-day camps. Retreat Groups from numerous organizations in the local church are seeking out camp facilities. Training of leaders from the local church in camping is becoming increasingly important and needed. In this age of automation it is believed that camping with articulate Christian objectives plays a crucial part in bringing man to God and God to man, and that it has a unique contribution to make in the field of Christian Education.

COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

Report No. 1

Christian Higher Education has become an integral part of the development and growth of the church. It was the basic heritage of the Methodist Movement in the 18th century. The very name of our church came from the methodical movements of men in Oxford University. However, far too long have we taken our church colleges for granted. Much of our thinking has derived from an increasingly complacent attitude toward colleges in general. Our thinking generates such attitude as, someone else built the colleges and someone else supports them, so why? Why should we not be concerned, when the life of our church depends on our colleges for trained leadership?

Fortunately we are becoming more aware of the dynamic role our colleges are playing in the life of the church. We now have three colleges in this Conference area, which are growing in an unprecedented manner. These colleges will demand much of our time, money and talents to keep them moving and abreast with the times. Our church cannot afford to falter in the field of Christian Higher Education. We depend on church colleges to train church leaders. As our church colleges go, so goes the church. Therefore, support the church colleges, for they support you, in training and educating ministers to fill our pulpits, training directors of Christian education, missionaries, deaconesses, ministers of music, educators, and a great host of Christian men and women.

This has been a year of progress in the churches of the North Carolina Conference in the support of our church colleges. The College Development Crusade which started in September has made remarkable progress. The goal was $3,000,000.00 for higher education. Thus far our churches have accepted by Quarterly Conference action a quota of $2,938,289.00. The 56 churches in Nash, Edgecomb, Cumberland and Franklin Counties (in the local College Foundation areas) accepted as their quota $331,488.00. The other 72 churches outside the Foundation areas have accepted $2,559,011.00. We have had special gifts in the amount of $47,700.00 for a total of $2,938,289.00.

We have 841 churches in the North Carolina Conference and 778 churches are participating in this crusade. This leaves only 63 churches not participating in the College Crusade Development program to date. This is 92% of all churches taking part in the support of our colleges in this Capital Fund campaign.

The Commission recommends that the second Sunday in November be observed as College Day in each local church. This year it will be Sunday, November 10th. It is hoped that each local church will observe this day with an appropriate message concerning our Methodist colleges.

We urge all local college Crusade Committees on Higher Education in local churches to remain organized and to meet regularly for the purpose of promoting the following:

1. The collection of the College Development Crusade pledges in each local church.
2. To be responsible for, and to make a report to the Quarterly Conference on plans or the continued payments on the local church's accepted quota.
3. To promote College Day in each local church on the second Sunday in November.
4. To encourage and devise means by which our youth may visit our church colleges.
5. To plan and arrange schedules, for college representatives to speak to the young people in the local churches.
6. To keep the membership of the churches informed about our church colleges.
7. To recruit students for our church colleges. This is a vital issue for the churches.
8. To secure new pledges for the College Development Crusade as prospects are discovered and as new members join our churches.
9. That each district superintendent be requested to appoint a district director of Christian Higher Education in his district, after consultation with the executive director of the Commission, to promote and further Christian higher education in each district.

* COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

After careful study, the Conference Committee on Entertainment finds that it is costing the Annual Conference for entertainment, approximately $8,000.00 annually.

The cost of Conference entertainment is paid from Conference Benevolences, and we hardly feel justified in taking this amount of money each year from so many needy causes to entertain the Annual Conference. We feel reasonably sure that this amount for Conference Entertainment will continue to increase as the Conference grows.

Therefore, we propose that each charge set up in its local budget the sum of $50.00 to cover the expense of the minister and the lay delegate from the charge. This money shall be paid directly to the Conference Treasurer, who will pay $8.00 per diem to each clerical and each lay delegate for entertainment, which includes Supply Pastors serving charges. The Treasurer will also pay the expenses of invited guests. Lay members who are not delegates required to attend meetings of Agencies and Boards at the Annual Conference, may be reimbursed for room and board by agencies involved.

Our study shows that it is becoming increasingly hard for local churches to find rooms for delegates attending the Annual Conference. It is with this in mind that we propose $8.00 per day to cover room and board for each delegate.

The local church entertaining the Conference would set up a Housing Committee, through which rooms could be reserved. The local church would set up a Conference Finance Committee. This committee would collect all bills of Conference expenses and certify them before submitting them to the Conference Treasurer for payment.

We believe that such an arrangement will make it much easier for the Conference Committee on Entertainment to find churches willing to entertain the Annual Conference.

We look forward to the day, when facilities are adequate, for our two new colleges to entertain our Annual Conference, alternately. When this day arrives, which we hope will not be too far away, our proposed plan should satisfy all concerned.

The Virginia Conference, the Western North Carolina Conference, and other Conferences are now working under this plan and find many of their former problems of entertainment solved.

We propose that this plan become effective for the Spring Conference of 1964. To do this the District Superintendents will bring this item of $50.00 for Conference Entertainment to the first Quarterly Conference of each charge, to be included in the charge's 1964 budget. This item should be paid not later than October 1st of each year.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

THE PAST YEAR

The Conference Year 1961-1962 was a year of which we were justly proud. We had the full cooperation of everyone in putting on the "Knock on Every Door" program. As a result of this close cooperation between District Superintendents, Conference Boards, local church officials and commissions we were second in our Jurisdiction in net gain of membership, and seventh in our Jurisdiction in the number of persons won on profession of faith. We were eighth in The Methodist Church in net gain of membership.

This year, 1962-1963, our Board felt the need of placing the recruiting, training and assimilating of new members on the consciences of the local church Commissions on Membership and Evangelism. Consequently, we have sought to train local church Commissions on Membership and Evangelism by presenting to them the task, methods of accomplishing this task, and helping them develop a concern and program for reviving the indifferent church members and winning the unsaved persons in their communities to Christ and His church.

In pursuance of this task the Conference Director, in cooperation with the District Superintendents and District Secretaries of Evangelism, has conducted 84 two-hour training Sessions in the nine districts of the Conference with a total enrollment of 300. The enrollment by districts was as follows: Burlington, 151; Durham, 200; Elizabeth City, 214; Fayetteville, 277; Goldsboro, 229; New Bern, 166; Raleigh, 195; Rocky Mount, 168; and Wilmington, 200.

Our Board participated in the program of "Orientation of Pastors New to the North Carolina Conference." The Conference Director gave one and a half hours of training in Evangelism in the Local Church."

The Pastors' Conference on Evangelism, conducted jointly with the Town and County Commission, was well attended. There were five hundred in attendance on Laymen's Day when the presentation of "The Twelve" was the highlight of the day.

Bishop Paul N. Garber, Dr. Lynn J. Radcliffe, and Dr. Truman W. Potter were the principal speakers at the conference. Assisting on Laymen's Day were Nelson Gibson, Conference Lay Leader, and Walter Anderson, member of the National Council on Evangelism. Bishop Garber gave emphasis to Aldersgate in his address to the ministers, using as his subject "Aldersgate Is For Methodist Preachers." This address has been published and has been circulated all over Methodism.

In July the office of the Conference Board was moved from Clinton to 203 Methodist Building, Raleigh. The public is welcome to visit the evangelism headquarters in the beautiful new Methodist Building, where evangelistic materials are displayed and where the Conference Director will be happy to talk with local church leaders about evangelism in the local church.

The Conference Board was incorporated so that a parsonage might be purchased and financed for occupancy by the Conference Director. A comfortable and adequate three-bedroom home was purchased at 2733 Toxey's Drive, Raleigh, in the Hayes-Barton area, not far from Methodist Building. The Board is indebted to the World Service and Finance Commission for a gift of $9,000 enabling the Board to purchase the house from the former owner without refinancing. In case the present parsonage should be sold and the money not re-invested in a home for the occupancy of the Conference Director, the $9,000 will be returned to the World Service and Finance Commission. The Board of Evangelism is deeply appreciative of this gift. The house was purchased for $26,000 and is situated in one of the fine residential areas of Raleigh.

Each district set aside a one or two-weeks period for special evangelistic effort preceding Easter. All churches in the districts were to conduct Visitation Evangelistic campaigns and a series of evangelistic services.

The success of this program is revealed in the reports of the pastoral charges as recorded below. The first half of the conference year was largely given over to the Christtian Higher Education campaign. This means that the work of recruitment, training and assimilation of members, for the most part, was done in the last six months of the conference year.

This report, of necessity, is being compiled before Aldersgate Sunday. It is hoped that each church will have entered into a special Aldersgate emphasis on May 19, and Aldersgate Cottage Prayer Services on May 24, the day of John Wesley's warmed-heart experience.

The Board of Evangelism believes that a Pentecostal experience of spiritual power—an Aldersgate experience—is essential to the growth of the individual Methodist Christian and to the growth and continuance of The Methodist Church as a transforming power for Christ in a world determined to pressure members of the church into its pagan mold.

No. II

THE NEW YEAR

The Board of Evangelism calls upon every member of The Methodist Church to "Go Deeper" that our church may "Go Forward" in the tradition of our great founder John Wesley, whose faith, warmed heart, and Christ-centered life was used to stop the forces of decay in his own country and to give to the world a church with a Christ-like love and concern for all men.

The Board of Evangelism calls upon each member of our North Carolina Methodist Conference to wait in the Upper Room of prayerful examination of self, repentance for sins, and expectant prayer for the promised infilling of the Holy Spirit. Jesus says, "If ye being evil (human) know how to give good gifts unto your children how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask Him."

We therefore recommend the following Conference Program for this Conference year:

"GOING DEEPER TO GO FORWARD"

Program — 1963 Session

The Reverend Carl J. Sanders, pastor, Centenary Methodist Church, Richmond, Virginia, will deliver the address.

Appreciations

The North Carolina Conference Historical Society has as one of its objectives the collection and preservation of all valuable information in connection with the rise and progress of Methodism. Any rare objects, e. g., records, manuscripts, pamphlets, books, and portraits, are of historical interest and value to The Methodist Church.

During the past year the Society has acquired a rare portrait of the 1858 General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which opened in Nashville, Tennessee, on May 1, 1858. The Reverend and Mrs. Ernest R. Clegg of the Methodist Retirement Home told the Reverend Key W. Taylor of their acquisition of the print and its rescue from an old farm house in Warren County. Realizing the rarity of the portrait, Mr. Taylor brought it to the attention of the Society. The portrait has been restored and framed and will hang on the mezzanine floor of the Methodist Building in Raleigh.

Another Methodist minister has indicated a desire to give to the Society for permanent display copies of the first Hymnal and Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The Historical Society and the Conference wish to express appreciation to the Ernest Cleggs for this unusual gift and to Key Taylor for bringing it to the attention of the Society.

During the past year, the Society's president attended the Southeastern Jurisdictional Historical Society meeting at St. Simons Island, Ga.

Recommendations

We recommend:

1. That each Methodist church in the North Carolina Annual Conference organize a Committee on Records and History as recommended by the General Conference as prescribed in the Discipline. The Southeastern Jurisdictional Society recommends that the North Carolina Conference Society concurs that this is urgently needed if all the records of the local church's history and activities are to be preserved.

2. That pastors and laymen subscribe to the new publication, Methodist Story, which is devoted entirely to Methodist history in the United States and other lands. The subscription rate of this quarterly publication is $2.00 per year. All of our colleges are now receiving Methodist Story.

. That a conference committee be named by Bishop Garber to plan for an adequate commemoration of the Bicentennial of American Methodism and that this committee study the feasibility of writing a history of North Carolina Methodism.

Nominations

We nominate:

The Reverend S. D. McMillan, Jr., for the third vice-president, and the Reverend C. D. Barclift, secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF HOSPITALS AND HOMES

No. I

METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

Trustees' Report

The past year has brought some changes to the Methodist Home for Children. On June 27, 1962, Rev. J. W. Lineberger began his administration as superintendent. The superintendent has reorganized the administration and enlisted personnel to fill key positions that were vacant and to lead in an improved and progressive program. Additional personnel is needed to lead our religious program and our social service program.

The Smith and Massey Cottages, which were dedicated in May last year, have been a wonderful addition to our campus. The boys who live there have profited greatly by the modern facilities which these homes offer.

Ground was broken January 24, 1963 for the Monk Memorial Hospital. Construction is moving forward rapidly and the chapel should be ready for use in the fall. This chapel has been made possible by the bequest of the late Mr. A. C. Monk of Farmville and additional gifts by other members of his family. When complete it will provide an inspiring center for the religious program on our campus. Our children attend Sunday school and church at Edenton Street Methodist Church. On Palm Sunday eighteen of our students were received into the full membership of the church. We hope to have a minister for our Home soon to give the kind of spiritual leadership that our children need. He will have other duties also.

Our children attend public school. This year there are eight seniors.

In addition to public school, our educational program includes a modern library and adequate tutoring service for children who need it. One of our greatest needs is for scholarship funds to enable our seniors to secure a college or technical education without incurring a burdensome debt. Our scholarship and loan funds are very small compared to the need.

A campus activity program has been inaugurated which expands our recreational and interest opportunities. This has been an important factor in improved morale on the campus. We are now able to have our own basketball and baseball teams and to provide a better program of directed recreation, which includes swimming and all the popular sports for all our children.

At the beginning of the year we had 122 children in care; 32 have been admitted; 1 have been discharged. Our present enrollment is 141. Our capacity is 150 children of school age and we anticipate our enrollment reaching that figure in the near future. All applications are carefully screened and admissions are decided by the executive committee.

The cost of child care continues to rise slowly in all institutions as well as in private homes. This is the result of the general rise in the cost of living. Our Methodist Home for Children is no exception. The alternative is a reduction in the quality of service rendered. No one is willing to accept that alternative. We have managed to operate this year within our budget. We need additional funds to operate an adequate case-work service for our children and we hope these funds will be available from some source right away.

We are grateful for the many gifts that have been received this year to supplement the support furnished by the Annual Conference. About 60% of our operating funds come from the Annual Conference through "Conference Benevolences." Approximately 40% comes from our Endowment. The balance comes from many sources—the chief of which is the local church Woman's Societies and other groups who sponsor our children for clothing, school lunches and other expenses. Small amounts for individual children come from relatives, Social Security, Veterans Administration. Many small gifts are received as memorials and as personal contributions.

Several large gifts have come during the year to be added to the Endowment or for capital additions.

From the children of Mr. A. C. Monk for the Monk Memorial Chapel	$25,000.00
From Mrs. C. G. Allen for G. C. Allen Fund	1,000.00
From J. H. Smith, Mrs. Wilbur Cooper and Aberdeen Hosiery Co., from the M. B. Smith Fund	2,750.00
From Mr. Wright Tisdale for William N. Boyd and Lizzie B. Boyd Fund	1,000.00
Bequest from Albert Anderson Will	1,562.81
Bequest from Mae P. Croom Will	4,500.00
Bequest from Albert M. Nobel Will	1,046.61
Bequest from Mrs. Cornelia M. Hedgepath Will	11,718.25
Notice has been received of the following bequests which have not yet been settled:
Will of Mr. Frank Bruce Hooker of Greenville estimated at	$250,000.00
Will of Mr. J. P. Gibbons of Hamlet estimated at	100,000.00
Will of Miss Kate Procter of Roxboro estimated at	25,000.00

We are grateful for all these gifts, and we are hopeful that others will remember our children in their wills and in their gifts. These gifts help to expand the service which the Methodist Home for Children can render to children in need.

Our goal for the next year include two major items:

First, we expect to develop a good program of religious emphasis on our campus which will include the use of our new chapel and the employment of a consecrated and competent leader for this work.

Second, steps are being taken to secure a case-work staff and to develop adequate case-work service to the children in our care and their families.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The real meaning of life at any age is found in man's relationship to God, and this relationship gives meaning to all human values. The goal is not to keep the aging busy but to help them find in every moment an opportunity for greatness. In the Home, members are helped in meeting this goal.

A well-rounded, happy life is found in a religious environment with Christian companionship and an opportunity to be needed and wanted. The members have security with adequate provision to meet their physical, social, and spiritual needs.

The Home serves a two-fold purpose. Besides giving needed care through its benevolent program it offers the finest facilities available for retirement in eastern North Carolina. The apartments offer privacy plus protection. Every service of the Home is available to apartment residents.

The basic requirements for admission are a minimum age of 65 (62 for apartments), and a life of service to the church and community. Members are received on a monthly boarding basis or on a life contract. Each case is considered on its own merits. No one is turned away because of lack of finances, while those who are financially able are expected to make contributions to the Home.

The monthly rate of $160 provides room, board, laundry, the services of the Home's physician, the medicine he prescribes, the nursing and geriatric care, and the religious and social life of the Home. Only forty percent (40%) of the members pay as much as the cost of their care, while thirty-five percent (35%) are Old Age Assistance recipients. The average monthly payment by members is $149. The Home can continue to accept members like these only through a liberal Mother's Day offering and through special gifts made for this purpose. The average monthly cost of operation is $170 including depreciation, but exclusive of interest on investment.

Members desiring apartment living make a capital gift of $10,000 to the Home which gives a couple the privilege of occupying an apartment as long as they are members of the Home. However, they may move into the main building on doctor's orders or on request. They make the same monthly payment as members living in the main building and receive the same services.

Support for the Home comes from many sources: 1. Payments by members. 2. The general giving by the churches of the Conference (used for debt retirement). 3. The Mother's Day offering in the churches of the Conference (used for the benevolent work of the Home). 4. Gifts from individuals and groups. (The furnishing of a room and other memorials are available in recognition of appropriate gifts to the Home). 5. Wills. 6. Memorial contributions sent upon the death of a friend.

The By-Laws of the Home have been changed in accordance with the action of the Annual Conference, relative to nomination of trustees.

The Home has continued to expand its facilities to serve more people. It opened in 1955 with the second unit and the first four apartments completed in 1959. Eight new apartments have been built in the past year at a cost of $140,000 (bringing the number of apartments to a total of twenty).

With land, buildings, and equipment valued at $1,340,000, there is an indebtedness of $475,000. The Home's equity is $1,050,000.

Future Plans

The Home requests the continued privilege of receiving a special offering in the churches of the Conference on Mother's Day.

The apartments will eventually be paid for by the capital gifts made by the members living in these apartments. New apartments will continue to be constructed as long as there is a demand.

The Home is filled with 130 members, ranging in age from 65 to 97 with an average of 80, and there is a long waiting list of people who need the care the Home offers. Many of the most needy applications come from the chronically ill whom the Home is not equipped to serve. We desperately need facilities for the care of the chronically ill, and to provide a home at another strategic location in our Conference for more of our retired people. You and your fellow Methodists can make these possible through your prayers and financial support.

Trustee Nominations

Terms to expire 1966: Ray S. Barbre, Rev. J. K. Bostick, Mrs. D. S. Coltrane, Dr. J. S. Crissman, A. Clements Davis, Edward S. Dixon, Garland S. Garriss, Lewis Gore, Rev. A. S. Parker, Dillard Teer, L. C. Vereen, J. B. VonCanon, Mrs. R. Shelton White, Hugh T. Jones, Wade H. Pierce.

Term to expire 1964: Merle K. Stone, Mrs. Crawford L. Thomas.

REPORT OF GOLDEN CROSS COMMITTEE

The primary project taken on by the Golden Cross Committee during this Conference year was a study of the Conference hospitalization plan and the comparison of this plan with several other outstanding companies' policies. After a great deal of research concerning other policies it was the opinion of the Golden Cross Committee that the Blue Cross we now have is the best available. The Golden Cross Committee further studied the possibility of making an adjustment in the deductible clause of the contract rather than accepting a rate increase which was being necessitated by the fact that during the Conference year the members of the Conference holding Blue Cross would use approximately $5,000 more in benefits than they were paying in premiums. After study it was decided by the Golden Cross Committee to recommend the conference go along with the rate increase rather than make an adjustment in the deductible clause of $25.

The chaplaincy program has progressed very well this year and it is the feeling of the Golden Cross Committee members that the chaplaincy is extremely valuable now and in the future.

the Duke Medical Center but to the local churches in that the chaplain at Duke Hospital represents the local ministers and the local church. Cooperating with the Western North Carolina Conference there have been some changes made in the distribution of funds involved in the chaplaincy program which the Committee feels will further strengthen the program. No change has been made in the amount of money which is being used to support the chaplaincy program.

During the next Conference year the Golden Cross Committee plans to give some study to the possibility of creating through the general Conference some sort of national clearing house for our chaplains in the Methodist Church. It is hoped that not only will this aid the chaplains in being placed in a position to which they are best suited but it will also tie the chaplains and the chaplaincy programs in the various hospitals closer to the Methodist Church.

The funds used for hospitalization through the Golden Cross will come close to paying all outstanding bills during this conference year. The Golden Cross Committee feels that this is due to the change in rules which has been effected during this past year and they recommend no change in rules during the next conference year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Again the Board recommends that $1,000.00 be appropriated from Golden Cross funds for chaplains' work at the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw.

Also, the Board recommends that the Conference accept the rate increase on our Blue Cross Hospital Insurance rather than make an adjustment in the deductible clause of $25.00.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON IN-SERVICE TRAINING FOR PASTORS

The In-Service Training Committee authorized by the Annual Conference of 1962 and appointed by Bishop Paul N. Garber on August 1, 1962 has been organized and the following officers elected: C. Wade Goldston, chairman; Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, vice-chairman; William K. Quick, secretary.

Committee members appointed by Bishop Garber are Dwight L. Fouts, M. W. Lawrence, C. P. Morris, Cecil W. Robbins, Key W. Taylor, Jack W. Page, R. Grady Dawson, B. M. Fesmire, C. W. Goldston, L. S. Weaver and William K. Quick.

The committee met and heard recommendations from the temporary committee appointed by the Bishop in 1961. Representatives of this temporary committee had met with the cabinet and because of the in-service training needs voiced by the various district superintendents, the permanent committee moved to inaugurate an initial pilot project during the 1963-64 conference year in the Goldsboro and New Bern districts.

Dr. Wilson Nesbitt, director of Field Service, the Duke Divinity School, met with the In-Service Training Committee and in addition to making valuable suggestions, informed the committee that there is a strong likelihood that the Duke Endowment will make funds available to assist in the financial cost of an In-Service Training program for our pastors on a district level.

The Committee passed a motion requesting that the Duke Endowment make funds available to help meet these in-service training needs and an application has been submitted to the Endowment requesting $3,000.00 for this committee's work during the 1963-64 Conference year. The application is now pending before the Endowment trustees.

Funds from the Endowment will be expended in accordance with certain requirements laid down by the Department of Field Service, Duke Divinity School.

Participation in the in-service training projects will be on a voluntary basis for the pastors in the districts of the North Carolina Conference.

Other In-Service Training Opportunities Available

The committee reviewed and commends to the pastors the present opportunities available in the Annual Conference for in-service training. These include at least the following:

- (1) The Pastor's Conference on Evangelism
- (2) The Orientation Workshop for Pastors New to the North Carolina Conference
- (3) The three Summer Clinics on Preaching, Pastoral Care and the Rural Church sponsored by the Duke Divinity School
- (4) The Christian Convocation and the North Carolina Pastors' School, sponsored also by the Duke Divinity School
- (5) Rural Church Institutes and Convocations sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches.

In addition, our North Carolina Conference Board of Education has a number of in-service training opportunities, which includes the pastors as well as the laymen.

WILLIAM K. QUICK, Secretary

REPORT OF BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

Several new things have been begun by the Board of Lay Activities this year in order to be of greater service to the Kingdom of God and to our North Carolina Conference. This expanded activity has come in the fields of Stewardship, Methodist Men, and Lay Speaking.

Among the Conferences of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, our North Carolina Conference stands next to the bottom in per capita giving for the year 1961-62 with an average of $49.57. The average for the Jurisdiction was $56.15. Recognizing its responsibility in the field of Stewardship and that much needs to be done, the Board elected Robert Rose, Goldsboro, N. C., as associate Conference lay leader for Stewardship with the specific responsibility to develop a stronger sense of stewardship among our people.

We are among the leading Conferences in Methodism in the number of Methodist Men's Clubs. Yet it is recognized that while many of our clubs are doing outstanding work, there are those which need guidance. Accordingly, the Board elected Roy L. Turnage, Ayden, N. C., as associate Conference lay leader for Methodist Men to work with clubs across the Conference. Schools were held this year and will be held annually in June and July for newly-elected officers of Methodist Men who should assume office in July.

Roy Turnage and Robert Rose have both attended special schools on the national level in their respective fields and are ready and thoroughly able to provide skilled leadership in these most important phases of our work.

In line with the General Conference's directive to train our lay speakers, William McPherson, national director of lay speaking, conducted a school for district directors using the manual for certified lay speakers last September in Raleigh. These men then returned home and conducted 10-hour schools in each district for our lay speakers. Approximately 200 men have completed the course and may be certified as lay speakers in full compliance with the Discipline.

Lay Retreat was held at Duke University, August 18-19, with Bishop Paul N. Garber and Walter F. Anderson as major speakers. "Jesus Christ is Lord" was our theme and 500 men in attendance followed it through in their discussion groups to make it one of the most meaningful retreats we have had.

Laymen's Rallies were held in February with Bishop Garber bringing fine messages at Aldersgate the first week and Dr. Carl Sanders, Richmond, Va., the second week. Departing from our normal custom of having a visiting speaker, this year several of our own laymen gave their testimony and witness. The rallies were probably the most inspiring that we have ever had and we are indebted to our speakers.

Our 1,200 dedicated lay speakers again participated in the No Silent Pulpit program during the Lenten period. We stand ready to provide the No Silent Pulpit program to any church for the entire year when asked.

We continue to urge every church to use the Every Member Visitation program and express our desire and willingness to help the local church in every way possible to successfully carry out this proven method of building and financing the church program.

Scheduled events of the coming year are: Southeastern Jurisdiction Laymen's Conference, Lake Junaluska, July 25-28; our own Conference Laymen's Retreat, Louisburg College, August 24-25; and the Laymen's Rallies, February 10-21.

It has been a good year and we wish to thank Bishop Garber, the district superintendents, and our ministers for the wholehearted cooperation that has been given to our work.

J. NELSON GIBSON, JR.
Conference Lay Leader

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LOCAL CHURCH EMPHASIS

Two revealing pieces of literature have been produced this year to aid pastors and local church leaders. The Committee on Local Church Emphasis has published a Supplement to the Local Church Production Story, covering the conference years 1959-60 and 1960-61. The Committee on Research and Survey of the Board of Missions has published Look At The People 1960. Martin R. Chambers, Research Secretary of the Commission on Town and Country Work, has done the research for these publications. The Ormond Fund of Duke Divinity School has given financial aid. The North Carolina Conference is indebted to these agencies for producing much needed planning tools.

The problems to which this Committee addresses its attention are manifold.

1. Whereas, in the North Carolina Conference area there has been a total population increase of 10.7 per cent and a white population increase of 14.8 per cent, there has been a decrease in total population in 22 of the 56 counties and a decrease in white population in 24 counties.

2. The increase in white population has been at every age level except age 25-29 years, which showed a decrease of 10.3 per cent. The largest increase was for those aged 75 years or over; the white population increase here was 62.8 per cent. This means that churches in some areas will be made up of young or middle-age couples with families, while other churches will be made up of aging people. One pastor reports a congregation whose youngest member is fifty-five years old.

3. Some churches in every district have shown a consistent pattern of decrease in church membership, in church school membership, and in average Sunday School attendance. In some places this can be explained by the decrease in population, but some of the churches with a continuing pattern of decrease are located in places of increasing population. This may indicate pastoral and local church leadership who are not alert to nor interested in the church's responsibility to serve a growing population.

4. There are four types of growing population centers, each of which presents its peculiar cultural patterns, and its own social problems: industrial centers, tourist areas, military installations, and communities where institutions of higher education are located. Each of these presents to the church a distinct and different opportunity to serve persons.

Since our problems vary in nature and cause it is apparent that there is no simple conference-wide remedy. This emphasizes the need for local church study of conditions and local church approach to the problems found. This committee recommends that each pastor lead his official board and commissions in such a study at the beginning of the new church year. Our Conference Boards of Education and Evangelism will provide program activities, working tools, and leadership guidance which the local church may adapt to its own local needs. Our committee hopes that each pastor and local church will make full use of these services.

It is our conviction that this local-church, grass-roots approach will enable any church to work toward the solution of any problem which it may face.

REPORT OF LONG-RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

The Long-Range Planning Committee respectfully reports as follows on matters referred to it by the 1962 Session of the Annual Conference and by Bishop Paul N. Barber:

I. A resolution concerning lay attendance at the Annual Conference (pages 298-299, 1962 Journal)

Recommendation: That the matter of better attendance of lay delegates to Annual Conference be referred to the Board of Lay Activities as a proper function of the Board of Lay Activities and that specific recommendations be made to the Annual Conference.

II. Report No. 6, Commission on Town and Country Work, pertaining to work required of the secretary of the Annual Conference. (Page 286, 1962 Journal)

Recommendation: That since the amount of work required of the secretary of the Annual Conference is heavy and increases each year, this matter should be referred to the bishop, the cabinet, the Commission on World Service and Finance, and the secretary of the Annual Conference for their special study.

III. Report of the Long-Range Planning Committee concerning moving expenses of ministers. (Page 249, 1962 Journal)

Recommendations: That a sub-committee of Long-Range Planning Committee continue study of the matter of moving expenses of ministers; that information be secured from other Conferences on the matter; that a compilation of the costs involved be determined; that a recommendation be made as to when a plan could be implemented and how it should be administered; and that local churches should be informed by the district superintendents of the action of the 1962 Annual Conference requesting local churches to pay 25¢ per mile on the expenses of the moving preacher.

IV. Report of the Long-Range Planning Committee concerning re-districting of the Annual Conference. (Pages 248-249, 1962 Journal)

Recommendations: That two additional districts be established at the 1964 Session of the Annual Conference; that the new districts become operative at the beginning of the 1964-1965 conference year; and that the Re-Districting Committee draw up a proposal for geographical lines of the proposed eleven districts for the bishop's consideration.

V. Resolution adopted at the Special Session of the Annual Conference, Raleigh, September 12, 1962, pertaining to the long-range needs of our educational institutions for higher learning.

Recommendation: That a sub-committee be appointed to contact each named agency in the resolution to determine long-range needs of each and to report back to the Long-Range Committee as to its findings.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION III OF THE LONG-RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE REPORT

Whereas, in our appointive system, pastors move at regular intervals, this often imposes a financial burden on them. Under our Methodist system, this burden, or part of it, should be borne by the Conference.

Therefore, be it resolved, that beginning with the conference year 1964-65, each local church or charge shall pay one-half of one per cent of the pastor's salary to the Conference Treasurer for the moving expense of pastors. The Commission on World Service and Finance shall direct the amount to be paid per mile, until the time when the entire cost of moving can be paid.

The local churches or charges should be informed by the District Superintendent of the action of the 1962 Annual Conference, requesting local churches to pay 25¢ per mile on the moving expenses of the incoming pastor.

T. FANT STEELE, JR.

Referred to Long-Range Planning Committee for further study.

REPORT OF METHODIST BUILDING COMMITTEE

The Building Committee reports that we have an increasing expression of appreciation by the people visiting and using the conference headquarters area. It is the continuing purpose of the Committee that the building be available for the working agencies and boards so as to have more effective coordination of the work of the annual conference. There have been more than 50 group meetings held in the Assembly Room, the Cabinet Room and the Conference Secretary's office. These areas enable us to provide for four meetings concurrently when necessary.

In addition to these meetings, there have been a number of smaller meetings held in the offices of the various agencies. We were also able to provide office facilities for the staff of the Division of National Missions in their conduct of our College Development Crusade.

Four groups of young people, by appointment, have toured the building and we take pleasure in having these visitors.

In our area of leased space, we now have five firms occupying 15,908 square feet, and we have remaining unleased 5,570 square feet, giving us 75% occupancy exclusive of our conference area.

Our permanent financing has been completed and the deed of trust is now held by Provident Life & Accident Insurance Company of Chattanooga. We pay only interest until April 1, 1964, and then we commence paying monthly installments over a period of 20 years. Our present income is more than adequate to meet present demands and we have full expectation of income to meet the demands for the curtailment by April 1964.

We renew our invitation for those who have not seen the building to visit it when opportunity presents.

REPORT OF METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

The Methodist Foundation seeks to grow in wisdom and in stature as it serves the North Carolina Conference. The stewardship of funds by the chosen representatives of the various Conference Agencies is an essential service, but one which is meaningful only in the light of what the earnings from investments can mean in the translation of proposed programs into Christian action. The representatives of the Foundation seek a fuller understanding of the needs and hopes of the agencies of the Conference. A belief in common goals and a sharing of opportunities to work for our Church and His Kingdom can keep our Conference a vital and moving force. It is the desire of the Methodist Foundation as a servant of the Conference to be a part of that vitality.

The representatives of the Foundation were saddened by the death of our long-time associate, Gurney P. Hood. Mr. Hood was a charter member of the Foundation and was serving as its president at the time of his death. This Christian gentleman's presence will be missed by all of his colleagues. His devotion to causes in which he believed will be difficult to replace.

The Commission on World Service and Finance nominated Mr. D. S. Coltrane of Raleigh to fill the vacancy in the membership of the Foundation created by Mr. Hood's death. At its January, 1963 quarterly meeting, Mr. John M. Dozier of Durham was elected president of the Foundation, and Mr. Sandy L. Gullede, Jr. of Raleigh was elected vice president.

The Foundation has realized for the Conference causes an earning rate on prudent investments of 4.6% and over $6,000.00 in capital gains. A detailed financial report appears as a part of the Conference Treasurer's report on Board Operations. All interested teachers and laymen are urged to read this report carefully.

JOHN M. DOZIER, President

INVESTMENT DEPARTMENT

MARVIN J. COWELL, Treasurer

Since the writing of this report for our Book of Reports to the Annual Conference April of 1962, the markets for equity securities (common stocks) experienced a pre-emptious decline in May and June of last year which erased nearly 30% of the market value of listed securities as of January 1, 1962.

Since that date, significant changes in the economy of our nation have brought about a reversal of the trend and the average market price of listed securities is now very close to the all-time high.

During all of this disturbance, Methodist Foundation has been in sound financial condition because of the fact that a strong defensive position is maintained. Only one-third of our total investments are in well-chosen common stocks and our investment portfolio is again showing a market valuation which is importantly above the cost value.

Since early in the life of the corporation, all investments have been made under the guidance of Moody's Investors Service of New York and this is being continued.

DEPARTMENT OF GIFTS AND WILLS

F. OLEN HUNT, Director

I

With the close of this conference year, the director has given 84 sermons and addresses, and also spoken to many official boards and groups of our churches. In addition, many churches have been assisted in preparation for a crusade for funds for buildings, or budget, or both. Over 900 persons have written or promised to write wills, or add a codicil to existing wills, leaving something for the causes of Christ in the North Carolina Conference.

We are earnestly seeking volunteers who have made such provisions in their wills, to permit us to place only their names on record in this department, to be used on a Conference Honor Roll. We invite you to lead the way in your church and Conference in this new endeavor of ours. Those who will do this, please send us your name, address, and the name of your church. This department is constantly researching and striving to develop improved methods of operation in the area of Wills and Bequests, and present our views to you in what we consider to be the best interest of the people of this Conference.

A number of churches, causes and institutions have realized on wills during the year. This is increasing interest and showing the value of writing wills, as well as focusing attention of the individual to write a will and leave something for the cause of Christ as their latest desire and final testimony as to the value of the church in their life.

The greatest breakthrough that we have had was in dinners and programs sponsored by this department in each district through the leadership of the district superintendents. Their response has been wonderful. They gave the invitation over their signatures, inviting the pastor of each church with the chairman of his Wills Committee. They also acted as master of ceremonies at their respective dinners. They are due much

The program at the dinners consisted of addresses by the Reverend Charles S. Hubbard, chairman of the Wills Committee; Dr. John C. Brauer, vice chairman of the Wills Committee; Roy L. Turnage, Jr.; the Reverend Hiram K. King, and the director. A number of laymen made a few well-chosen remarks, among them Mr. John M. Dozier, the new president of the Methodist Foundation.

The results of this program are so favorable that next year we are planning for zone meetings so that the pastors may bring their Wills Committee and other interested laymen.

We are planning for our next Foundation Newsletter, a list of all institutions, boards and agencies to be listed in legal form with a proposed insertion for attorneys to include wills as they write them. A copy with a letter will be sent to all attorneys and trust officers of banks within the bounds of the conference.

RESOLUTION

In as much as the General Conference, Council on World Service and Finance, has requested that a District Director of Wills and Legacies be appointed or elected in each District of the Conference, the Conference is hereby requested to authorize the appointment of a District Director of Wills and Legacies in each District of the Conference by the District Superintendent of each District, so that in cooperation with Director of Gifts and Wills of the Methodist Foundation, Inc., the work of the Committee on Wills and Legacies in each local church may be coordinated for work in this field on a district as well as the local church level.

THE METHODIST STUDENT CENTER—EAST CAROLINA COLLEGE

First of all, let me express my appreciation for this opportunity to speak concerning the work of The Methodist Student Center in Greenville. As most of you know, the center has gone through, this year, the experience of absorbing the blows of a change in staff. The first step, usually being the hardest, was taken with less pain perhaps than was anticipated through the help and encouragement of the many individuals who compose the governing board. This year has been, for my wife and me, one of both anticipation and pleasure in the light of a fresh conception of the possibilities and the potential of the campus ministry. We now have behind us one year's experience which, I believe, is invaluable. I might add also, that my own personal involvement, but frail witness, through this particular ministry has been greatly enhanced and in many ways supported through the opportunity to attend Garrett Theological Seminary this past summer and to relate there with other campus ministers concerning the historical and present involvements and relevancy of the Methodist Church in Higher Education.

It is true that one practical observation contributed much to the rise of the Wesley Foundation on the campus; that observation being the recognition by the many local churches that they could not possibly provide an adequate ministry for the rapidly expanding state colleges and universities. From 1958 to 1962 in our own local situation at East Carolina College, for example, the number of registered Methodist students has grown from 800 to 1500 out of an approximate enrollment of 6000 students, although only 785 of the 1500 reside on campus.

But another factor contributed perhaps even more so to the rise of the Wesley Foundation; that being the recognized need for a qualified ministry adapted specifically for the student who is necessarily experiencing a change of life through this new and sometimes seemingly contradictory culture which he now enters. Not only are religious tenets and faith necessarily questioned for perhaps the first time, but a confusion of social and moral values are often the result of this sudden change and sometimes lack of forethought and preparation. Such a ministry sometimes calls for the availability of the campus minister at times unscheduled and at places frequently outside the Student Center. The possibilities for pastoral counseling are growing and the opportunity for supplementing the student's own knowledge and educational need here has been greatly assisted through the

This supportive role of the campus ministry is important to and for the student in a society which is often impersonal toward individuals, but this is only part of the total mission of the Church as exemplified and symbolized through the Wesley Foundation; that mission being, "to proclaim the Word of God to the college or university through the channels which are made available on the campus and in the Student Center." This mission necessarily calls for a flexible program with continual introspection and self-analysis to determine whether or not the Word as it is spoken or presented is relevant to the academic community to which it speaks; it calls for participation on state and national levels in those programs which will inspire and supplement the local emphasis. But this mission of the Church through Wesley Foundation also calls for a systematic attempt to assist individuals and groups of students in their search for the meaning of life. For this reason, we must have an organized program of study, worship, and fellowship.

In cooperation with both local Methodist churches and their pastors we began the year with an orientation night for approximately 350 freshmen in attendance. About half of those attended an open house following at the Student Center. Many of these students had been introduced previously to the President and Director of the Wesley Foundation through a letter which was mailed in August to all those for whom we had received a blue card from the local W.S.C.S. secretaries of student work.

Our study for the year was centered around the theme as established by the National Student Christian Federation for 1962-63, "The Word, the World and the Sacrament." Relative to this theme we have attempted to take an honest look at the Church, its reason for existing and our role in the Church. We have included the sacrament as a necessary witness to our common concern by participating together weekly in the celebration of Holy Communion, while discussing its basic meaning for the Christian community. We have examined the nature of the Word as set forth in the prologue of John's gospel, and we have tried to discover again the role of this Word in the world today; this being the function of theology; i. e., to relate the Word of God to the world in which we live.

One media which has expressed itself with this concern perhaps with more vigor in recent years on the campus is the Arts: music, drama, sculpture, and painting. Several of us attended the Arts Conference this year at Chapel Hill sponsored by the local Wesley Foundation there in cooperation with the Department of College and University Work of the Board of Education.

Another way through which we have attempted to involve ourselves in the Church's mission is through small group study (usually less than fifteen students) so that each student will have adequate opportunity to contribute whenever possible his own views in the light of his experience in the Church. For one hour each week, during the fall and winter, a group of freshmen and I studied Dietrich Bonhoeffer's well-known book, Life Together. A group of upperclassmen met in like manner to read and discuss Dynamics of Faith by Paul Tillich and to listen to tapes which were made at the joint meetings for Wesley Foundation Directors and College and University ministers in Nashville this fall.

On Sunday mornings attention has been given primarily to some form of presentation by the director followed by discussion. Two books were used as a guide. Conscience On Campus by Waldo Beach was open to freshmen only and was used as an introduction to college life, its problems and demands. Christ And Selfhood by Wayne Oates provided an adequate and provoking study of the meaning of true selfhood in the light of the Christ-event.

Sunday evenings have been set aside primarily for worship frequently led by students and other persons invited to participate in the program. There is a growing concern that worship should be more centralized in our focus and perhaps preceding all other activities of the week.

Other program functions this year have included a weekly supper, a joint social with the foreign students at East Carolina, a fall retreat for the local council, participation by the president of the Foundation and the director of the Methodist Student Movement State planning retreat at Camp Chesnut Ridge, N. C., a presentation by the Fine Arts Committee of Thornton Wilder's three-act drama, Our Town, representation by the Student Council at the Methodist Student Movement State Conference in Charlotte, N. C., and a Christmas interpretive dance presentation in cooperation with the College Fine Arts Department.

Eight students have borrowed $2,650.00 this year through the Methodist Student Loan Fund.

In many ways this has been a year of trial and error, a period of adjustment for the students as well as the new staff. It would be wrong to give the impression that all has gone completely smoothly. The student laymen, however, have been of tremendous help to us during this period of transition, and from the point of view of the staff, this has been an exceedingly good year.

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL TRAINING AND QUALIFICATIONS

GENERAL STATEMENT

The Board is endeavoring to administer the Discipline as it understands it, with fairness and impartiality to every candidate for the ministry, and with a deep sense of moral responsibility to the Conference and the Church as well as to the candidates in upholding the standards for the ministry.

The Board is studying its task diligently with the purpose of strengthening the ministry. Whatever progress has been made may be attributed in large measure to the dedication and cooperation within the membership of the Board and the assistance and cooperation of the bishop, the cabinet, and the district committee on Ministerial Qualifications.

Spring meetings for interviewing candidates will be held two days at St. Paul Church, Goldsboro, April 6-7, 1964; at Duke Memorial Church, Durham, April 8, 1964.

Approved Supply Pastors and Local Preachers

1. Each district committee on ministerial qualifications shall require "Studies on License to Preach" to be taken through the Correspondence Department of Ministerial Education, Nashville, Tennessee, or summer school.

2. For renewal of license the local preacher must make regular progress in required studies, either as a student in school (307.1) or through the four-year course of study (307.2, 1374, 327).

3. A full-time approved supply pastor, unless an elder, must complete each year a full year of the course of study to be recommended for appointment (317.2).

4. A part-time supply pastor must complete a minimum of two books a year in the course of study (317.3).

5. Attention is called by the resolutions adopted by the Conference which appear on pages 199 and 200 of the 1957 Journal concerning "Approved Supply Pastors and Local Preachers" and "The On Trial Status of the Traveling Ministry," which state (1) that ordinarily no person be given Approved Supply status who is over forty years of age, (2) that no person without a high school diploma, or its equivalent, be recommended for Approved Supply status, (3) that district committees on Ministerial Qualifications not grant local license to any person who does not have a high school diploma, or its equivalent, and (4) that the attitude has developed within the North Carolina Conference that after a preacher has been admitted on trial his final reception into full membership is automatically assured. Paragraph 321 of the 1956 Discipline (the same in 1960 Discipline) is quoted as being contrary to that attitude.

Recommendations are, as follows:

1. That a concerted effort be made toward securing highly qualified men and women for full-time Christian service, and that each minister give special attention to this most important matter.

2. That all candidates for the ministry endeavor to attend and pursue their studies in colleges and theological schools related to the Methodist Church, particularly schools approved by the University Senate.

3. That all candidates in the Course of Study be encouraged to attend the Approved Pastors' Schools at Duke and Emory and that financial assistance be continued as funds are available.

4. That all ministerial candidates seeking admission on trial and full connection, especially those under thirty-five years of age, be urged to obtain the B.D. degree or its equivalent from schools of theology related to the Methodist Church and accredited or approved by the University Senate, and that they be encouraged and assisted in every practical way to complete the preparation recommended in Paragraphs 342, 344 of the 1960 Discipline. That those who drop out of seminary for unsatisfactory reasons be delayed in being recommended for Full Connection.

5. That Ministry Sunday be observed in every local church, the Sunday of or preceding May 24 (Aldersgate Sunday).

6. That the Orientation Workshop for Pastors new to the North Carolina Conference be continued and held at Camp Chestnut Ridge, August 19-21, and that the Commission on World Service and Finance be requested to make provision for financing it through the Board of Ministerial Training and Qualifications, as it is a responsibility of the Board.

7. That each local church be urged to make an annual appropriation equal to one per cent of its operational budget (based on the previous year) for the One Per Cent Plan—the fund for ministerial education.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

November 18, 1963, will be the twenty-fifth birthday of the Methodist Ministers Credit Union. We express our appreciation to those charter members who had the vision and leadership to organize this credit union, the second oldest credit union in the United States serving Methodist ministers. These pioneers were opening new avenues of self to bring a higher standard of living within the reach of the parsonage families of our Conference.

We say a hearty "thank you" to all those who through the years have added their leadership and resources to help bring the credit union into a larger field of service. It is a joy to report each succeeding year as better than the one before. This we do again, and predict that the present year will surpass all of those gone by. The tables below the statistical data to bear out these statements.

Loans are limited by law. No member may borrow more than 10% of the total shares. Signature loans are limited to a maximum of $750.00. All insurable loans are covered by Loan Protection Insurance against death and permanent disability as a service to the members who borrow. The Credit Union pays the premium.

Life Savings Insurance is provided as a service to the members who buy shares. Again the Credit Union pays the premium as an extra bonus for saving over and above the regular dividend (4 1/4% last year). This insurance in most cases doubles the savings up to $2,000.00 for the survivor. The Table of Coverage follows:

Age at Date of Deposit	Maximum Insurable Shares	Insurance Coverage in Force
0-6 months	$2,000.00	$ 500.00*
6 months through 54 years	2,000.00	2,000.00
55 years through 59 years	2,000.00	1,500.00
60 years through 64 years	2,000.00	1,000.00

No coverage is afforded on that portion of any member's balance deposited after his 70th birthday.

*This coverage rises to $2,000.00 when the member attains the age of six months.

†The ratio of coverage is determined by the age of the investor at the time of the investment and does not change as long as the shares remain intact.

The Board of Directors, Credit Committee, Loan Officers, and Supervisory Committee have had a busy year keeping up with the work of this fast growing service agency. All of these officers serve without pay, enabling the Credit Union to render greater service than could be afforded otherwise.

We are very proud to report that in all our history we have not charged off any debt against the reserve fund, and the present percentage of delinquency is well below one-half of the national average. This is a tribute to the integrity of the ministers in the North Carolina Annual Conference. We urge each member to strive to keep this record clean.

We are justly proud of the service rendered in the past. To those of you who are not members, we extend an invitation to join and help create a greater future of service to all the members of our Conference who will participate.

SIDNEY BOONE, Secretary

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS, INC. GENERAL STATEMENT

The Board of Missions of the North Carolina Annual Conference reports that progress continues both in the area of mission emphasis and in the area of church extension. The successes that we have enjoyed have been due to the splendid participation by the members of the Board, the cooperation of Bishop Paul N. Garber and his cabinet, and the continuing enthusiasm of the Methodists throughout North Carolina. We, therefore express our gratitude to all who have had a part in the widening horizon for missions.

We recognize and express our deep appreciation for the work of Dr. A. J. Hobbs executive secretary for the Board. Though Dr. Hobbs has only been with us one year he has made a place for himself in the mission program and his careful supervision of our program has resulted in the expansion of our opportunities to be of service. We recommend his reappointment as executive secretary of the North Carolina Board of Missions and Church Extension for the ensuing year.

We express our thanks to the district superintendents for this participation and enthusiastic support of our labor. We are indebted to the district secretaries for their energy and leadership given in extending the program of the Conference Board into the nine districts of our Conference. We appreciate the numerous meetings held within the nine districts by these dedicated leaders of our church. Mrs. H. C. Turlington, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service, has been a continuing influence in helping us project the program of missions in the North Carolina Conference. We commend her and the other leaders of the Woman's Society for their cooperation. We present to you here our report of work done through the year as well as our projected plans for the year to come.

"Our Mission Today"

"Our Mission Today" is the theme for the emphasis selected by your General Board of Missions for this quadrennium. The program is projected with two major thrusts—study and action. The study program is designed to acquaint Methodist people with (a) the basis and the implications of the missionary enterprise, (b) the conditions under which we make our witness, (c) the frontiers which call us no longer geographically, but nevertheless challenging, and (d) the program which unites us in witness and service. The action program for "Our Mission Today" includes the following significant developments:

1. Deepening and understanding of America as a mission field.
2. Developing work in Hawaii as a showcase for the Christian community.
3. Re-doubling the effort to win Puerto Rico for Christ.

4. Obtaining support for an adequate program of church extension.
5. Adapting the program and resources of the church to care for changing parish conditions in the inner city, suburban and in town and country.
6. Strengthening the mission in Alaska with special concern for Alaska Methodist University.

The study program includes the use of two significant materials. The first is a study book called The Bible and God's Mission. It is requested that every church in Methodism make use of this important material as a basis for understanding the new spirit of missions. The second study material is entitled Our Mission Today, by Tracey Jones. This is the recommended mission study book for the year 1963 and we urge its use in every church throughout the Conference. In October there will be special district meetings for the preachers to acquaint them with the study and offer assistance and preparation for its use in the church. The cosmic age has brought with it a decidedly new approach to missions and it is urgent that we not only acquaint ourselves with the change, but prepare ourselves for service in this new era. This is our mission today.

WORLD MISSIONS

World Service: "The world is my parish." A church which has truly experienced the heartwarming experience" will never close its eyes on the needs of the world. Our people are called to open heart and ears to the cries which rise from the agonies of a world that is trying to be spiritually born. God's sons and daughters are proclaiming "O Zion come, thy mission high fulfilling." The answer to these prayers and agonies can only come from the church of the Living God. The people called Methodist have a God-given opportunity and privilege. World service is the avenue through which the saving power of the mighty God is channeled to all the "dark places of earth's human races."

Your Conference Board of Missions is keenly aware that once again each local church must call its people to open their eyes to the fields that are ripe unto harvest. Once again we must feel the pulse of the world and present our Christ as never before. We respectfully urge every local pastor and Commission on Missions to see that each church accepts the full "askings" for World Service. Our people must be challenged to ask the question, "How large is my circle of concern?"

Audio-Visual Aids which will assist the local church in its task are available through AFSCO at the Methodist Building in Raleigh or from the Cokesbury Store in Richmond. We urge a larger use of these tools.

Missionary Conference: The Missionary Conference at Lake Junaluska is one of the great opportunities for inspiration, information, and motivation. We urge each church to take seriously the privilege of sending the chairman of the Commission on Missions to this conference, July 19-25. The Youth and Missions Conference is held at the same time and each district will be represented. From these conferences come commitments which last for a lifetime. Many youth enter the field of missions as a result of attendance at Lake Junaluska.

European Caravan: At this very hour a group of boys and girls, under the leadership of the Reverend and Mrs. Troy Barrett, are representing Christ and you in Europe. The result of the European Caravan is beyond measure. Last year's Caravan was under the leadership of the Reverend and Mrs. Robert L. Bame. Those who have heard representatives from the Caravan speak need no further information of the effectiveness of the program. We recommend the continuance of the "missionary impact" through the European Caravan.

Rene O. Bideaux, Apartado 78 Alajuela, Costa Rica.

Seavy Alexander Carroll, Box 3551, Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia.

James W. Goodwin, Instituto Evangelico, Itapina, Est Esp, Santo, Brazil.

John William Garrison, Caixa Postal 201, Franco Est De Sao Paulo, Brazil

Justin Giichi Haruyama, 137 Kimi, Arata-Cho, Kago Shima Ken, Japan.

William Jack Martin, Box 332, Homer, Alaska

George Caskey Megill, Instituto Ana Gonzaga, Av. Cessario De Melo 2797, Inhoaib (20-26), Guanabara, Brazil, S. A.

Cyrus B. Dawsey, Jr., Caixa 45, Sao Jose De Rio Prito, Est De Sao Paulo, Brazil.

Clyde Hugh Dunn, No. 3, Min Chua Road, Taichung, Taiwan.

Konstanty Naider, 697 West End Avenue, New York City, New York.

James Carlton Sanford, Apartado 1386, Lima, Peru

Jack Theis, Methodist Mission, International P. O. Box 1182, Seoul, Korea.

Louis E. Wethington, P. O. Box 841, Manila, Philippines.

It is the goal of the North Carolina Annual Conference to provide financial support for each of our missionaries from individuals and churches within the conference.

Advance Specials: Since the Advance Special program is the very life blood of the missionary enterprise, each church within the conference is urged to accept at least one mission special in each of the four areas—Foreign, National, MCOR, and Conference.

Our Advance Special Program includes the following causes: Lands of Decision all new Methodist churches (organized since 1932), including parsonages, proposed sites for new churches; tuition scholarships for directors of Christian Education; the Methodist Student Center at East Carolina College; Alaska Methodist College; Bethany Mission or Shiloh Charge, Rocky Mount District; Conference missionaries in other lands; Caravan Methodist Church in Lintz, Austria; work of Methodism in European area; foreign students to assist students to study in Methodist colleges in North Carolina; the Wesley Foundation, North Carolina College; Galilee, Laurinburg (C.J.); St. John, Wilmington (C.J.); John Wesley, Fayetteville (C.J.)

HOME MISSIONS

Church Extension

The demands for Church Extension continues. During the conference year 1962-63 we have secured new sites for new churches. To meet the needs created by large growth in population in some areas, we must acquire more land, even though real estate become increasingly difficult to purchase.

Since the beginning of this conference year, a new church was organized in Lurberton. Organization date was September 12, 1962. Already this young group has some church school facilities and a partially completed sanctuary.

Ten Dollar Club

From all sections of our Conference comes hearty support for our Ten Dollar Club. This enables us to give money and encouragement to newly-organized churches. During the last ten years the Ten Dollar Club has given to our young churches more than money. It has given hope; it has deepened loyalty; it has strengthened the faith of these younger people; and it has inspired them with a greater determination to provide facilities for worship, study, and recreation. This Club needs hundreds more new members who will share their means in a cause that is so worthy.

Since the beginning of our 1962-63 conference year, we have been able to make available $65,000.00 for new church construction. Look at the record:

Ocean View Church, near Southport—Wilmington District	$15,000.0
Bethesda Methodist Church, Durham—Durham District	15,000.0
Christ Methodist Church, Graham—Burlington District	15,000.0
Old Hundred Methodist Church—Fayetteville District	5,000.0
West Nash Methodist Church, Wilson—Rocky Mount District	15,000.0

$65,000.0

At the January 10, 1963, meeting of our Board of Missions the following churches were approved to receive help:

March Call, West Nash Church—Rocky Mount District	$15,000.00
July Call, Airboro Church—Goldsboro District	15,000.00
November Call, Cokesbury Church, Raleigh—Raleigh District	15,000.00

How can we continue to help our people build these new churches where the need is so great? Thus far, we have never found a better way than by means of our Ten Dollar Club. Today we recall with pride and appreciation the dynamic concern of Mr. Church Extension, himself, our own Bishop Paul Neff Garber, who started the Church Extension fire. Our pastors and laymen across the Conference are urged to keep the fire burning. It is our sacred responsibility, our Christian duty, our momentous opportunity.

Churches and Parsonages

We have helped thirteen churches in the amount of $12,850, and sixteen parsonages in the amount of $12,550.00.

When You Build

In order to make a request for a donation from the Board of Missions, the pastor or some official of the church must secure an application blank from the executive secretary, A. Jarvis Hobbs, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. This application for aid must be completed and in the hands of the executive secretary not later than May 1, annually. The applications are then processed and donations granted at the time of annual conference. The funds granted on these applications will be available to churches, parsonages, or other building causes within the ensuing conference year.

We recommend that each church follow the rules of the Discipline of the Church (1960) and the laws of the state in all of its building programs. Any building to cost as much as $10,000.00 must have the approval of the Commissioner of Insurance, and plans for any building to cost as much as $20,000 should be drawn by a competent licensed architect. We recommend that all plans be presented to the District Board of Church Location and Building, to the Conference Board of Mission (if aid is requested) and to the National Board of Missions, Board of Architecture, for review and improvement if needed.

Missionaries from The North Carolina Conference

More of our churches are urged to support specific missionary families. If and when you are ready, the executive secretary will gladly discuss this important matter with you, and help you to secure complete information. The 1962 Conference Journal, page 262, lists names that will interest you. Already one of our younger churches is contemplating plans to assume full support of one of our missionary families for the year 1963-64.

Alaska Methodist College

This is one of our National Mission Specials, a most worthy project. We urge every church to continue its support of this institution.

Pastors' School

The Board of Missions submits the following persons as members of the Pastors' School Board of Managers: Rev. L. C. Vereen and Mrs. George Ratterman, terms to expire in 1966; Rev. C. P. Womack and Rev. C. S. Boggs, terms to expire in 1967; Rev. C. C. McGarver and Dr. W. W. Austin, terms to expire in 1969.

Division of National Missions

Our Board is most grateful to the Division of National Missions for Pastors' Salary Aid, and gifts and loans from the section of Church Extension. Visits by Dr. H. L. Johns and Dr. H. W. Anderson are very helpful. The ministry of the staff members of the Division has been encouraging and inspiring.

IV

AID TO CHURCHES

The Board of Missions, North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church, Inc., was chartered by the State of North Carolina in 1844.

tate the expansion of Church Extension within the bounds of the Conference.

The Board has made three construction loans for the building of churches in six districts.

The Board has helped eleven churches to secure loans for the construction of churches, located in nine districts.

The Board has helped to secure one parsonage and a site for a new church.

MISSION RALLIES

Mission Rallies will be held in the several districts this year. Outstanding speakers will inspire our people to catch a new vision of the missionary enterprise. We, therefore, urge each local pastor to endeavor to have the entire Commission on Missions to attend these meetings. Other members of the church are urged to attend.

Dates for the rallies are: Durham District, October 14th; Burlington District, October 15th; Rocky Mount District, October 16th; New Bern District, October 17th; Goldsboro District, October 21st; Elizabeth City District, October 22nd; Fayetteville District, October 23rd; Wilmington District, October 24th; Lumberton Subdistrict, October 25th; Raleigh District, October 28th. Time and place of these meetings will be announced by the district superintendents.

SURVEY, RESEARCH AND PLANNING

The Standing Committee on Survey, in cooperation with the Ormond Fund of the Duke Divinity School and the Research Office of the Commission on Town and Country Work, has completed a population study entitled "Look at the People 1960." This volume, which has been mailed to various leaders in the North Carolina Conference, is a study of the population within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference by county, race, residence and age during the decade 1950-1960. It contains vital information for pastors, laymen, and Conference officers as they plan for the years ahead. Rev. Martin R. Chambers was in charge of the publication.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGE STANDARDS

The brochure on Parsonage Standards has received commendation from our pastors and laymen, and has been in demand by all who are planning a new parsonage. This brochure may be obtained by writing to the Board of Missions and Church Extension, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Ave., Raleigh, N. C.

Another booklet which proves valuable to those planning to build a parsonage is entitled "Parsonage Planning," and may be obtained at the cost of $1.00 from Division of National Missions of the Methodist Church, 1701 Arch Street, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. Along with other vital information, this book contains suggested floor plans. However, WORKING PLANS are not available, but the book lists firms which you may contact if you find one which satisfies your needs.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

For the support of the Conference Claimants during the year 1963-64, we recommend an apportionment on the churches of an amount equal to 16% of the salaries of the preachers.

We recommend an annuity of $60.00 per service year for Retired Preachers, including Retired Approved Supply Preachers for all full-time, full twelve months years of service. Approved Supply Service years, while a student, cannot be counted for annuity credit (Attention, 1960 Discipline, Paragraphs 1631.1 and 317). We urge all preachers, who have been credited with full-time Approved Supply Service Years, to review their records in keeping with this ruling, and we call attention to Paragraph 1629.2 of the 1960 Discipline concerning "Power to revise, correct, or adjust a minister's service record."

Special or Relief appropriations are recommended as follows: Miss Nannie Pattishall an amount equal to a dependent child's annuity for 28 years of service; Mrs. J. W. Smith, $600.00 annually and James E. Mahoney, one year of Approved Supply Service in the amount of annuity rate of $60.00. This list of Conference Claimants, their records of service years and annuity will appear in the 1963 Conference Journal.

The Conference Claimants who have died since our last Conference report are Rev. J. Furman Herbert, Rev. John W. Hoyle, Sr., Rev. R. L. Hethcock, Rev. H. C. Ewing, Rev. O. C. Melton, Rev. T. W. Lee, Mrs. W. A. Cade, Mrs. L. S. Etheridge, Mrs. J. T. Stanford, Mrs. L. H. Joyner, Mrs. M. E. Tyson, Mrs. W. R. Royal, Mrs. H. Freo Surratt, Mrs. M. D. McLamb, Mrs. W. T. Phipps, Mrs. J. W. Hoyle, Sr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams. We express our sincere sympathy to the loved ones of those who have served so well and now reside in their eternal home.

We call attention to the last two paragraphs of our 1962 Conference Report and point out that Conference Members serving Special Appointments from which salaries are not received from Conference Funds or from which twelve times the annual annuity rate is not paid into the Conference Pension Fund will not qualify for annuity credit for such years of service.

The Board of Pensions is seriously concerned with the fact that several churches are listing excessive travel and expense appropriations much out of proportion to travel needs. This cuts back seriously in percentage apportionments for the Pension Funds and other conference items which are based on pastor's salary. We recommend that the practice of giving pastors travel allowance in lieu of salary be discontinued but that, in any case, any travel allowance be realistic in connection with actual travel done for the church. The District Superintendents are urged to promote this recommendation.

We note that there is a deficit of approximately $14,000.00 in payments of churches of the conference in 1961-62 on apportionments to the Pension Fund. We urge the church treasurers and preachers of the delinquent churches make a special effort to adjust this situation. We call attention to paragraphs 1624 and 1634 of the 1960 Discipline which states, in effect, that during any years in which a church fails to pay a portion of its apportionment to the Pension Fund the preacher, serving the church at that time, will have a lien of that amount placed against his annuity after retirement. We point out that this is a policy of the General Conference Pension Code and must be observed.

We recommend that one Approved Supply Year be added to the service years of Walter C. Ball for annuity credit.

HAROLD STATON, Chairman
W. R. STEVENS, Secretary

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON PROMOTION AND CULTIVATION

The Commission on Promotion and Cultivation recognizes as its purpose the promoting of World Service and Conference Benevolences in the local church. This purpose can be achieved only through a program which will help the local church better understand the financial needs of the Methodist Church.

We wish to commend the work of our Conference in having moved forward in the past two years to full acceptance of the General Conference World Service Apportionment. We urge that every effort be made to continue this progress to the end that the North Carolina Conference accept in full each year of the 1964-1968 quadrennium the entire General Conference apportionment of World Service, for the ". . . payment in full of these apportionments by local churches and Annual Conferences is the first benevolent responsibility of the church." (1960 Discipline, par. 740.)

During the year we have purchased the back page of the North Carolina Christian Advocate to promote such special causes as World-wide Community Sunday, the Ten Dollar Club, Race Relations Sunday, and others. We believe this encourages a wider participation by local churches in these special offerings and it is our desire to continue this practice.

We wish to emphasize the overwhelming need which the church has for our full participation in special offerings authorized to be taken in local churches. We urge each pastor to give full promotion to each of these offerings as they appear. It is only through our continued support of these offerings that the benevolent arm of the church can be strengthened.

We recommend the use of the free World Service leaflets by each local church. These may be ordered from the Central Promotion Office and will be delivered each quarter on a standing order basis. These leaflets describe benevolent causes of the Methodist Church.

We propose to aid in the promotion of the Walton Memorial Library by informing the local church of the World Service and related audio-visual aids available through this library, by publishing a new catalogue, and by supplying the library with the more recently produced filmstrips in the area of World Service and Benevolences.

We urge each local church, in presenting its financial needs to its people, to indicate clearly the percentage and amount being directed to each area of ministry and service within item number 7 (seven)—"Benevolences and World Service." Such an approach will enable people of the local church to see the pressing needs which exist and will encourage them to respond more enthusiastically because they see the needs.

REPORT OF THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION

We are glad to report that the overall picture of the Methodist Board of Publication is very encouraging. The subscription list has grown, although still far below its potential. We are most grateful to those pastors who have given proper emphasis to placing the North Carolina Christian Advocate in the homes of their people. We are hopeful that many more will join their ranks.

The Piedmont Press has also been kept busy. This is the reason we have been able to operate without a deficit. We solicit more of the printing business from our Methodist institutions. We give free publicity, and we need the patronage of the church agencies to make this possible. We are glad to report that more and more of these agencies are turning their work to us, and they tell us they are well pleased, both with the quality and the price.

We are not asking for any subsidy from the Conferences. This is made possible du o the reduction in overhead operational expenses and increased volume, as well as other savings.

The Methodist Board of Publication is now a successful operation, and if we receive the support of our people in increasing the subscription list, and also in the patronage of the Piedmont Press, we believe it will continue to be self-supporting.

Sound business practices, careful management, and wise editorship by the Reverend S. J. Starnes have contributed to the improvement of The Advocate. We appreciate the many fine contributions being made to North Carolina Methodism by this able editor-manager, who labors so faithfully and indefatigably.

We believe there are no major problems at the present in the management of The Advocate which could not be solved by many additional subscriptions!

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS

A recent Manual for the Committee on Publishing Interests clearly defines the overall objectives of this Conference committee as to encourage all Methodists "to read those areas which inform and inspire the reader in his search for an ever-growing understanding of the way of life given by our Lord Jesus Christ." To meet this objective annual Conference Committees, District Secretaries and Local Church Committees are disseminate information about the total program of the Publishing House.

Our growing church, our increased educational responsibilities, the great advances in communications, the more efficient transportation facilities have made the task of our Cokesbury Stores always new and challenging. Yet the goals of the Methodist Publishing House are the same today as they were when it was founded in 1789. This "church in business serving the church" is dedicated to these four tasks:

1. To advance the cause of Christianity through the written word.

2. To promote Christian Education.

3. To publish, manufacture and distribute books, tracts, periodicals, lesson materials, church and church school supplies.

4. To transact such other business as the General Conference may direct. The manual further concludes: "The circuit rider and his saddlebag are gone, but now swift carriers transport six million books a year, 147 million pieces of literature, some nine million copies of the family journal, Together, and a vast variety of church supplies to every quarter of the nation and beyond its borders to other parts of the world. John Wesley told his ministers: 'Take care that every Society be duly supplied with books.' The Methodist Publishing House is dedicated to the carrying out of Wesley's wise injunction."

As a Conference Committee we wish to go on record as endorsing this manual and urging its use by District Secretaries and Local Church Committees. The Publishing House has helped to spread the Gospel and to provoke thought through the printed word; and we know that we speak for our entire Conference when we give it our wholehearted support.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Report No. 1

FIELD WORK CONTINUES TO GROW

As we come to the end of our seventh year as director of field work for the Conference Commission on Town and Country Work we are happy to report a steady growth and acceptance of our labors.

It is increasingly gratifying that our efforts have been widely employed by so many of our people. This year over 30,000 miles will have been traveled within the bounds of our Conference in answering calls for service. Every district has been given aid, on the local church level, in one or more of these capacities:

- 1—Community Survey
- 2—Church Census
- 3—Consultation
- 4—Visitation Evangelism
- 5—Worship Service
- 6—Revival

In addition to representing the Commission on various boards and agencies of our Conference we have had the opportunity of promoting—

- 1) The Rural Church Fund of Methodist Foundation, Inc.
- 2) The Rural Church Clinic of Duke Divinity School
- 3) The 5th National Town and Country Conference

Future plans call for promotion of the following:

- 1) Rural Church Clinic on the district level
- 2) Tour by our new pastors of our Conference homes, colleges and offices
- 3) Map of every local church in our Conference, county by county

After seven years we are more aware than ever that we have not as yet "arrived." The goal of perfection is still in some far-off future. The only assurance that is ours at the moment is that we are traveling in the right direction and the winds of God's grace are with us.

MARTIN R. CHAMBERS: RESEARCH SECRETARY

Rev. Martin R. Chambers, as a pastor, began his work as research secretary for the Commission on Town and Country Work, in 1948. That year he did the statistical study, Rural Churches of the North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Church 1928-1947: A Study in Trends. The work was directed by Dr. J. M. Ormond and Dr. E. D. C. Brewer.

In 1955, he did the study, Look at the People. This is a statistical study of the population of the North Carolina Annual Conference area by county, age, sex, race and residence category, for 1940 and 1950.

After retirement from the pastorate in 1958, Mr. Chambers gave full time to research. The statistical study, Local Church Production Story 1950-1959, North Carolina Annual Conference, Se. J., The Methodist Church, 1959-1961, in nine volumes (the nine districts), by Martin R. Chambers, shows for the entire Annual Conference the churches numerically declining and growing. The study also gives other statistical data on the local churches. Local Church Production Story Supplement 1959-1960 and 1960-1961, North Carolina Annual Conference, Se. J., The Methodist Church, 1962, by Martin R. Chambers, continues the study for two years and condenses the statistical data into one volume.

In 1962, he did the study, Look at the People 1960. This is a statistical study of the population of the North Carolina Annual Conference area by county, race, residence category, and age, for 1950 and 1960.

In addition to the above published studies, Mr. Chambers, through the years, has done many papers (statistical studies) for various agencies of the Annual Conference, and for the Division of National Missions.

Rev. Martin R. Chambers, through research, has made a significant contribution to the work of the Annual Conference. Appreciation for this contribution is hereby expressed.

RESOLUTION REGARDING FOUR CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Report No. 3

The Annual Conference of 1964 will elect the members of the boards, commissions, and committees to serve during the next quadrennium. The bishop and cabinet will prepare the lists of nominees in advance of the Conference session. Thus, this resolution is presented at this time.

The following committees of the Annual Conference have constructive work in process, and so the Conference is hereby requested to continue them for the period of the next quadrennium.

- (1) Long-Range Planning Committee (see Journal, 1962, p. 22)
- (2) Committee on In-Service Training for Pastors (see Journal, 1962, p. 21)
- (3) Committee on Local Church Emphasis (see Journal, 1962, p. 22)
- (4) Study Committee in Reference to Corporations Auxiliary to and/or Controlled by the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction, of The Methodist Church (see Journal, 1960, p. 161)

The name of the committee on corporations would be changed to: Committee on Annual Conference Corporations.

Restore the eight-year limitation for membership on all Conference major boards with one exception, the Secretary of the Board of Pensions.

These committees would continue as standing committee of the Annual Conference subject to re-election quadrennially.

KEY W. TAYLOR, Chairman
RALPH I. EPPS, Secretary

*Report No. 4

COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP EDUCATION

Annual per capita giving by members of The Methodist Church is much below that of some other denominations. (See Statistics of Church Finances, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A., November 1, 1962). Annual per capita giving by members of the Methodist Church is very much below what it would be if based on the Biblical concept of giving.

It is obvious that general Methodist stewardship practice as to time and talents of the person is far less than it would be if based on the Protestant doctrine of the priesthood of all believers.

Therefore, the bishop is hereby requested to appoint a committee (and to name the chairman) to be named the Committee on Christian Stewardship Education. This committee would devise, make operative, and manage an effective, local church, Conference-wide, long-term program of Christian stewardship education. Further, the committee would be composed of lay persons and ministers, would take office at the beginning of the next quadrennium, would be sufficiently financed by the Annual Confer-ce, and would be exempt from the provisions of the resolution "Regarding Persons Holding Memberships on Boards and Commissions." (See Journal, 1952, p. 183.)

This committee would continue as a standing committee of the Annual Conference, subject to re-election quadrennially.

M. J. COWELL, Secretary-Treasurer

The Board of Trustees passed a resolution authorizing the sale of the abandoned Shiloh Church on the Bethel Charge in the Rocky Mount District. C. W. Everett, attorney of Bethel, was authorized to consummate the sale at a price satisfactory to him in the light of the Church's best interest. The proceeds were to be sent to the Conference Treasurer for disposition at the Annual Conference Session of 1963. It is further recommended that funds realized from the sale be added to the funds held for the Conference by the Board of Trustees.

On March 19, a lease was signed by the Chairman and Secretary leasing 864 square feet of space in the Methodist Building to the Westinghouse Electric Corporation for two years with a renewable option.

The attention of the Conference is called to the Report of the Conference Treasurer which contains a statement of the funds held for the Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS — 1963

Members of the Board of College Visitors of the North Carolina Conference, the Methodist Church, were extremely gratified to view the progress made since their last visit to the three Methodist schools: Methodist College, Fayetteville; North Carolina Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount; and Louisburg College, Louisburg.

On April 17, 18 and 19 the Board met with administrative officials, faculties and students at each of the schools and was shown physical improvements at each. Board members were particularly impressed with the steady progress made toward the goals set up several years ago for these institutions. New building, both completed and under construction, increases each month the effectiveness of the education program of the Methodist Church in this Conference.

Equally impressive was the high caliber of faculty members at the three schools indicating an emphasis on scholastic excellence to balance the physical surroundings. The Board was pleased to learn that over 50% of the faculty members have their doctorates and that others are in the process of securing them.

A trend was detected in which students, who had originally intended to stay only two years at Methodist and Wesleyan, are deciding to remain and complete their four years there. This indicated to the Board that the students have been impressed with the instruction they have received and have been happy in their school environment.

At Methodist College the Board viewed two new dormitories which will increase the capacity of the college; talked with President Stacy Weaver concerning the students, 21 of whom are planning to enter full-time Christian service; saw the new gymnasium, a necessity since this college is specializing in teacher training; and felt the need of a library building to enable the college to be ready for inspection for accreditation.

"The complexities necessarily attendant upon the introduction of major fields of study at the junior and senior level have added to our problems considerably, but we feel that we are completing a satisfactory year," said President Weaver.

At Rocky Mount the Board found the N. C. Wesleyan campus undergoing similar construction. In addition to two new dormitories under construction, the group viewed the new infirmary which will be completed this summer.

Since Wesleyan is concentrating on a liberal arts program, preparing its graduates for further study in the professions, emphasis is noted in this. "We expect a high percentage of our graduates to go into graduate study," said President Thomas Collins.

At Louisburg the Board was glad to see the fine new woman's dormitory being constructed which will eliminate the necessity at the school of off-campus rooms for students. Plans for remodeling a former high school cafeteria into classrooms for art and music were discussed, and President Cecil Robbins conducted the group on a tour of the various buildings. Drawings of the projected library building were shown, a building which will add immeasurably to the effectiveness of the total program. It was thought by the Board that efforts to modernize this campus were proceeding satisfactorily, with tangible results already evident.

The Board was impressed with the fact that each college is different, that each is filling a distinctive need in the North Carolina Conference area. At each school it was noted that the student-faculty relationship is good, with the feeling prevalent among the students that the door is open when they need the assistance of their professors. This will become increasingly difficult to maintain as the schools grow, but the Board is hopeful that somehow this close connection between the faculties and students may be preserved, because it is felt that this is one of the major assets of these Methodist colleges.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN VOCATIONS

The church finds itself faced with an abundance of opportunities to minister to the growing needs of mankind. Truly "the harvest is plentiful!" But just when we find the opportunities greatest, we are also confronted with the disturbing fact that "the laborers are few." Realizing this situation, your Commission on Christian Vocations has renewed its mission that "the Lord of the harvest may have laborers to send into his harvest."

This year our emphasis can best be characterized as Greater Impact. There has been a concentrated effort to alert each local congregation to its holy calling of creating an atmosphere whereby God's call may be heard and response made. The district directors, working with the pastors, set about to make active in every church the Committee on Christian Vocations. Persons who should serve on this committee were designated, and work that they could do was suggested. In conjunction with this aspect of our work, areas of church life have been brought to focus on vocations: Methodist Youth Fellowship, Methodist Men, Woman's Society of Christian Service, and others. The local church is being urged to be the instrument whereby a greater challenge is made to youth, and even to those as young as fifth-graders.

Every local church has been encouraged to use as a study in the adult department the book, The Bible and God's Call, by Howard Kee and Montgomery Shroyer. Ministers and workers with youth are requested to make special use of Career Days, either in the local school, or in the local church. Relating to this study, each minister received the booklet, Methodist Church-Related Vocations and Service Projects. Here one finds many fields of service that he can serve. Also he is made aware of the growing number of workers needed to help keep our church mission alive. A final feature of Greater Impact is the observance of Ministry Sunday in May. Each local pastor has been asked to use as the theme for this worship, The Ministry: The call, the joys of the ministry, or some other pertinent subject.

We cannot emphasize strongly enough the need for the local church to maintain its encouragement and interest to those who commit themselves to one of the numerous church-related vocations. The days in which the youth are receiving their formal education are crucial days. Many times the pressures are so great that our youth give up their calling, and train themselves for other work. Many of these would not quit if they had the staunch support of their church back home.

To help implement the work of Greater Impact on the local church level, much has been done on the district and conference level. We give heartfelt gratitude to the district superintendents for giving the district director of Christian Vocations adequate time and recognition at the district conferences. The emphasis on vocations has come to be an inspiring feature of these conferences. District directors of Christian Vocations have also been given ample time at other district meetings to publicize Christian vocations.

This year many of our districts have used as their theme for the annual youth rally Christian Vocations. Attendance at these rallies has been excellent. The programs have varied in each district, but in every instance the impact has been rewarding. The fact that these rallies have been planned through the combined efforts of the district youth director, district missionary secretary, and the district superintendent, along with the district director of Christian Vocation, is indicative of the seriousness on the part of the whole church to reach our youth with the awareness of God's call.

We have further implemented the work of Greater Impact by preparing and distributing to each local pastor a Quarterly Conference Report. The purpose of this report is to stimulate the local church committee in being more active, and to provide the conference Commission with a record of the youth who commit themselves to a church-related vocation and to learn the youth who have interests in these vocations. This gives us the opportunity to keep in contact with these persons and give any assistance we can.

Our work has not been confined to the local scene. One of the most fertile fields to be cultivated is on the college campus. Through the efforts of Reverend William Wells, the state director of the Methodist Student Movement, our commission has begun working with the Commission on Vocations with the Western North Carolina Conference and with the Commission in the Central Jurisdiction. Through this association next year the theme of the state conference is Church Careers. At this time our students will be given opportunity to consider what we call short-term work. This is church-related work for a limited time, possibly through the summer, or even extended to one and two years. This enables them to see some of the great needs of mankind. It also helps them consider their own plan for life. So very much needs to be done on the college level, that this will come to be one of emphasis in the future.

We are grateful to the other Boards in our conference who have come to have a concern for the need of committed and dedicated people to hear God's call. To the Town and Country Commission for its program at this annual conference we express our gratitude.

Not all our work is in the past. Already the new year is bringing many opportunities to exalt Christian vocations. We give our enthusiastic acclamation to the special session of the Annual Conference called by Bishop Garber, November 19, with its concern on recruitment for the ministry. March 6-8 has been designated throughout our conference as the dates for tri-district rallies, "The Bishop's Convocation on the Ministry." The place and time of these rallies will be announced in the near future.

We are happy to cooperate with the Duke Divinity School in its seminar, Recruitment for the Ministry, to be held November 2-3.

While our major thrust has been to youth, we are aware that there is a growing response on behalf of more mature adults to redirect their lives and take up a new vocation. One of the most inspiring jobs that is being done in this area is through our Board of Missions and its work with professionally qualified women. Our Commission is alert to adults responding to the call to be laborers in the Lord's vineyard, and it will make this more and more one of its concerns.

For the confidence you have placed in this Commission, we humbly pledge ourselves to be diligent in alerting you to the needs of our church and helping the right people to channel their lives to its work. Truly "The voice of God is calling its summons unto me."

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND THE WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

It is difficult to measure in statistics and definite facts the work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild for the past year. In fact it cannot be done. Our greatest concern and endeavor have been in those areas dealing more or less with intangible things such as deepening the spiritual life, widening horizons, self-examining, and seeking broader vision of our responsibilities and opportunities. Whatever has been accomplished is due to those Methodist women who have given voluntarily of themselves and their time to fulfill their mission in this day and time.

Accurate statistics concerning membership and finances cannot be given at this time for annual reports will not be in until June 1st. There have been added at least five new societies and one new district member. There are now approximately 764 societies, 8 Wesleyan Service units and 29 district members, making our membership about 35,000.

The last reports showed three districts 100% organized—Elizabeth City, Fayetteville, and New Bern. Our fiscal year ends April 30th and reports have not yet come in, but indications are that we will overpay our pledge and the amount remitted to the Woman's Division will exceed the funds sent in last year. Our pledge for 1963-1964 has been increased.

There have been some changes among our workers and missionary personnel. Miss Jamiej Chandler retired as of September 1st and Rev. and Mrs. James Hobbs started their work at the Methodist Center June 1, 1962. The situation at the Center is unique in that it is the only Methodist Student Center started, built, and operated by the Woman's Society, but which has now become a joint project of several agencies of our church working together in a pleasant relationship. Mrs. Barbara Jean Maynor has been reassigned to the Pembroke area. Miss Rebecca Moddelmog will either retire in September or work on a limited basis. The Woman's Division is looking for her replacement. Miss Sudie Hunt Doughton who has been serving in Santiago, Chile, returns this month. Miss Anne Page Brooks is teaching in Tokyo, Japan. Our newest worker, Mrs. Grace Kemp, is now at the Missionary Orientation Center at Stony Point and will be commissioned this summer to go to Burma, Singapore or Sarawah. We are still trying to find a worker for an urban project.

The Woman's Society, feeling the need of a person whose duty and chief interest would be with our projects and workers, elected a secretary of projects. She with her committee has been organizing committees in each district. The Conference Scholarship Committee has given three scholarships of $500.00 each to girls going to Louisburg, Wesleyan and/or Methodist College. Three girls attending Pfeiffer College have received $200.00 scholarships. A scholarship will be given to a North Carolina girl who will do graduate work at Scarritt College next year. The Annual Spiritual Life Retreat in June and the School of Missions in August with the largest attendance in their history had excellent teachers and leaders.

In order to have a better interpretation of its purpose and work and a closer cooperation with other agencies of the church the executive committee of the Woman's Society invited representatives from the different Boards and Commissions to meet with us in their executive meetings and talk with us. It is our hope that all of us working together might cross any frontier that calls us.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

June 1963 marks the close of the third year of our Quadrennium. Now we should be looking ahead, formulating definite plans for the new Quadrennium and understanding a definite program which not only will encourage tithing on the part of our members, but also enhance our work within this Conference, and our Conference's ability to spread the message of Christ so that His eternal voice will be heard and answered around the world.

As always, one of our fundamental precepts should be to encourage tithing on the part of 200,000 Methodists. Last year we held high this appeal, and we reiterate it again, thus challenging our people to a life of Sacrificial Love. Our program is ever-growing, and we must dedicate ourselves to grow with it. Ours is big business, the biggest business on the face of this earth, this Church of Jesus Christ.

Human nature being what it is, often influences us to believe that others may pick up a share of our responsibilities, if we individually do not measure up. During this Quadrennium, your Commission on World Service and Finance has sought to spread the feeling that Askings to our Districts must be accepted, or the program of the Church and the Conference would suffer. This, for the reason that our Askings are simply set to cover budget, no more. As an example, during this year our Benevolent Budget is $1,293,923. Our Acceptances, $1,311,225, a mere $18,000 cushion for non-payment. One hundred per cent pay-out by all churches in this Conference is almost unheard of, yet to do less involves a measure of failure on our part to fulfill our obligation to humanity served by the Methodist Church.

To challenge our conference members in the year that lies ahead, we set forth herewith a comparison. We are asking the Districts to raise $1,340,119, this being only $19,000 more than the amount needed to meet our budgetary requirements, therefore we urge every Charge to accept the Asking of their District Superintendent, thus undergirding the success of our dedication to Methodism.

Many people from time to time pose the question "When are you going to stop coming to our Church, asking for more and more money?" To this, our answer is simply three words, "When you tithe!" The alternative to this of course is to cut back on our total program, in the face of commitments already made, (1) the continual increase for College Sustaining to support our educational institutions, (2) acceptance of our World Service.

This brings to mind what I consider almost a certainty. With the new Quadrennium will come a stiff increase of our quota on World Service. During the coming year much information will emanate from this Commission pointing toward a financial program which will enable us to meet this goal. In fact some items might well be pointed up in this report in the form of recommendations to be thought over and considered.

There are many demands for our money but we are all devoted to the cause of World Service and "as much for others as for ourselves." In this direction we are thinking that the Boards and Agencies should curtail their budgets with respect to travel, and travel should be afforded only for one meeting of each agency. The Commission on World Service and Finance therefore recommends that mileage payment be reduced to 5¢ per mile for one meeting per year only for those attending, and not more than 7 cents per mile be allowed for Executive Directors. We would expect the budgets next December to reflect substantial reductions in the areas that travel now embraces, and expenses incident to meetings. We realize conditions and expenses are present but we will have to face up to this if we are to meet new World Service Commitments.

The Commission strongly recommends that where Charges have set up travel as a substantial amount compared to the Pastor's salary (this year it averaged 16-2/3% of the amount paid to our pastors) that serious consideration be given to increasing the amount set for the Pastor's salary.

We are suggesting too, that consideration be given to the elimination from our total budget of much of the Conference entertainment expense, by having these borne or shared by the participating Churches and/or delegates.

The Commission on World Service also invites constructive criticism, having to do with the great program of our Church, and also stands ever-willing to discuss any detail, or furnish enlightenment to any interested individual in so far as we are able. Thank you for your understanding and helpfulness.

(c) To provide for Cabinet Meeting expenses.

2. The Commission recommends that each person who has authority to draw check against an account of a conference agency be required to present annually to the full membership of his agency a complete list of all checks drawn, justifying all checks with the budget approved by his agency.

3. The Commission recommends that each agency whose accounts are not audited in the Treasurer's office be required to have an annual audit made and furnish this commission with a copy of it.

4. (a) Under the Church Extension Fund the first $50,000.00 is earmarked to be paid to Board of Missions, Inc. for the revolving fund in order to provide security for money to be borrowed by the Board of Missions, Inc. in the total amount of $150,000.00 (To be used for loans to build churches and/or to acquire choice sites for churches or new congregations).

(b) We recommend that the amount under Section A be considered a fixed obligation annually through conference year 1966-67 or until the borrowed money is fully repaid.

The Commission recommends approval of the following Specials to be arranged by Special Offerings or included in the local church budget. If budgeted, the amount should be liberal. Remit to Conference Treasurer.

5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated for the privilege of promoting the Mother's Day offering for the Home and the receipt of a special Mother's Day offering in the churches for the benevolent work of the Home.

6. The Methodist Home for Children for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

7. The Methodist Foundation, Inc. as provided in its charter.

8. The Town and Country Commission, Rural Church Fund, for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such donations as may be directed thereto.

We recommend to charge or church treasurers that they set up a schedule for remitting at a fixed time each month and to close the year as early as possible. Final remittance should be mailed on Monday two weeks preceding the opening of Conference. Some conferences are recommending that local churches remit in 10 installments commencing on the 4th Sunday in August and terminating the 4th Sunday in May.

They can be exactly equal or approximately equal. It simplifies the work of the Treasurer for these periodical remittances to include one or several items in whole or in part rather than to remit each one-tenth of each and every item.

The pastors bear responsibility to check with treasurers for full remittance of all budgeted items and all funds collected as specials and to harmonize their reports to Annual Conference with Conference Treasurer's acknowledgments both received and pending.

We report the issuance of a Fidelity Bond in Employers Mutual Casualty Company of Des Moines, Iowa, to cover the Conference Treasurer in the amount of $100,000.00 and to cover the Assistant to the Treasurer in the amount of $25,000.00; others to a minimum of $10,000.00 in said office. Also to cover others handling funds: Superintendent of Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., $50,000.00; and others to the amount of $10,000.00 in various offices.

We recommend the continuation of A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Although within our Conference there are diversities of experience and of responsibilities, where better we can realize our unity of life and work than in our corporate offering of ourselves to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ in Divine Worship? For here our lives, which we live for Him, are presented to Him, as we enter into communion with Him.

Conscious of these corporate roots of the Christian life, members of your Commission have continued to teach courses in Christian Worship in Christian Workers' schools, where we note among laymen a rising interest in the recovery of praise, prayer, and the sacraments.

Likewise, courses in the use of the Methodist Hymnal have aided in strengthening both the Christian education and the worship of our Church.

Continuing our cooperation with the Conference Music Committee, we are planning with them another workshop on Music and Worship.

To encourage the formation of Commissions on Worship in the local churches, we have prepared a list of typical local church problems and opportunities which aid any pastor in establishing a functioning commission, able to assist both him and the congregation.

Your Commission aided in the presentation of special afternoon hours on the Revised Services during Ministers' Week at Lake Junaluska, with especially gratifying response to the revised Communion Service.

We have sponsored the study and use of the revised Communion Service in local churches as requested by the General Commission on Worship.

We are now in an interim period following the revision of the Book of Worship and Hymnal and preceding their presentation to General Conference. As an aid to delegates to General Conference we are sponsoring, at the Duke University Christian Convocation and North Carolina Pastors' School, a special lecture to be given by a member of the General Commission on Worship. The lecturer will be Bishop Nolan B. Harmon; the date and the hour will be carried in the official announcements of the Convocation.

We shall participate with several conference agencies, following General Conference, in presenting the revised Hymnal and Services in appropriate public meetings.

We point to significant needs and opportunities for pastors and people; the desirability of Pastors' Church Membership Classes preceding Christmas as well Easter, in order that those persons reached through summer evangelism and education may early be incorporated into the life of the Church, in the Advent Season celebrating "the inexpressible gift" of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We call attention to significant recovery of the service of Holy Communion as a means of grace, and suggest its appropriateness as a conclusion to revival and evangelistic services, confirming the congregation in the Christian life.

We note the continuing need of pastors and building committees for aid in planning the chancel area of the church for Methodist corporate worship, and we suggest the desirability of a study and series of presentations by the Bishop's Committee on Church Architecture as a sequel to their excellent studies of church design.

Aware of the demands imposed upon ministers by the leadership of corporate worship and of its centrality in the education and orientation of our younger ministers, we note with appreciation its inclusion in the Conference Orientation Workshop for New Ministers, and we offer the aid of our Commission in this aspect of ministerial education.

We thank all Conference officials, ministers and laymen for their cooperation as we have followed the leadership of the General Conference Commission on Worship in studying and reforming our Methodist ways of worship and our Ritual. Let us unite in honoring God through our worship, that the Spirit of Christ may empower our witness and work and build us up in the faith.

REPORTS OF SPECIAL COMMITTEES

REPORT OF

COMMITTEE ON SWAIN RESOLUTION REGARDING THE CIRCUIT RIDERS WHO INFLUENCED THE DUKE FAMILY

The committee appointed by Bishop Carber to study the influence of early Methodist Circuit Riders on the Duke Family is composed of William K. Quick, chairman; A. F. Fisher and Dr. B. G. Childs.

After an exhaustive study, your committee regrets to report its inability to identify any of the early circuit riders who may have influenced the life of the late Washington Duke.

With the faithful assistance of Miss Harriet Leonard, a staff member of the Duke Divinity School Library, Dr. B. G. Childs spent a considerable amount of time in searching out possible sources, but no definite data could be found.

Washington Duke and his brother, William J. Duke (often called Uncle Billy), were both born in the northern sector of Orange County (now Durham County) in the Bahama Community.

Because of his loyal devotion to the Church and his extraordinary activities as a local preacher, William Duke appears thoroughly entitled to a large place in North Carolina Methodist History.

It is known that his preaching at old Mount Bethel Church in what is now Bahama was most largely responsible for a development of interest in the Church on the part of his younger brother Washington.

In view of what has been learned from meager records, your committee offers two suggestions.

First: The North Carolina Annual Conference, through the Historical Society, should consider the matter of securing a Historical Marker for the site of the first old Mount Bethel Church. This historic church has been neglected in N. C. Methodist History. Records show that it dates from 1740 and became affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1808. Both William and Washington Duke were converted at old Bethel and joined that church and Sunday School. It deserves permanent recollection, your committee feels.

Second: We believe it would be fitting to consider the matter of marking the final resting place of William Duke, whose grave may be found in a small family cemetery, a few miles north-east of Durham. William J. Duke and Washington Duke were, after moving from old Bethel Church, trustees of Old Hebron Church, Orange Grove Church (in what is now East Durham) and the first little Methodist Church in the city (now Trinity Church). William Duke's unflagging zeal as a local preacher and as a Christian gentleman merits grateful recognition on the part of all North Carolina Methodists—present and future.

MEMORIAL CONCERNING CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

Whereas, the Chairmen of the mandatory Commissions on Membership and Evangelism, Missions, Education, and Stewardship and Finance in each local church are named as ex-officio members of the Official Board in paragraph 209 in the 1960 Discipline, and

Whereas, the Chairman of the mandatory Commission on Christian Social Concerns is not named as an ex-officio member of the Official Board in this above named paragraph, and Therefore, we memorialize the General Conference of 1964 to amend paragraph 209 of the 1960 Discipline so as to include the Chairman of the Commission on Christian Social Concerns as an ex-officio member of the Official Board of the local church.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE METHODIST COLLEGE FOUNDATION OF NORTH CAROLINA, INCORPORATED

Whereas, The Methodist College Foundation of North Carolina, Incorporated was established by the action of the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference, and incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina on January 3, 1949, as non-profit eleemosynary corporation, and

Whereas, The Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. had as its main purpose the raising of funds for our Methodist Colleges related to these two Conferences, recruitment of students, and in general to aid these colleges in securing adequate financial support, and

Whereas, The Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. conducted two separate financial campaigns for our Methodist Colleges in North Carolina, both of which were outstanding successes; The Methodist College Advance for $2,500,000 with almost 100% collected; and the United College Appeal for $2,500,000 with at least 95% collected, and

Whereas, Both the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences since the United Appeal Campaign have found it desirable to conduct separate and not conference-wide cooperative financial campaigns for their colleges, so that the Methodist College Foundation of N. C. Inc. has remained in "status quo" without any activity for the past three or four years, and

Whereas, Since both Conferences now have each its own financial campaigns underway for the colleges of their own Conferences, it does not appear that there is a real need for a cooperative effort between and by both Conferences such as was originally the purpose and reason for the Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. and which in reality is almost superfluous.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That the North Carolina Conference in annual session at Greenville, N. C., on June 19, 1963, and in consideration of similar authorization by the Western North Carolina Conference which has already held its annual conference hereby:

1. Authorizes the proper officers of the Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. to surrender its Charter and to make necessary arrangements to go out of business.

2. Designate the Board of Education of the North Carolina Conference, Se. J, as the successor to the Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. and to receive, hold and administer any present or future assets of the Foundation which may accrue for the benefit of any college related to this Conference.

3. Express the sincere thanks of the North Carolina Conference to the hundreds and thousands of loyal sacrificing Methodists who through their devotion, loyalty and generosity have made the efforts of the Methodist College Foundation of N. C., Inc. such an outstanding success.

In Witness Whereof, we, the undersigned Officers of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church set our hand and seal this the 19th day of June, 1963.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING SEPARATE EPISCOPAL AREAS FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA AND VIRGINIA CONFERENCES

Whereas, There are now 11 districts in the North Carolina Conference with an approximate membership of 200,000 in a geographical area approximately the size of the Columbia, South Carolina, Episcopal area; and

Whereas, The program of the Conference has greatly increased; and

Whereas, The program and responsibilities of the North Carolina Conference will continue to grow to the extent that they will require the full-time presence of a presiding bishop; and

Whereas, The Virginia Conference has been most gracious, with its great size and program, to include the North Carolina Annual Conference in the Richmond area when its own size, and responsibilities demand a full-time bishop;

Therefore Be It Resolved: By this session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, meeting this the 20th day of June, 1963, at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, Greenville, North Carolina, that we request the Committee on Episcopacy and the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church to make the North Carolina and Virginia Conferences separate areas of the Jurisdiction.

Be It Further Resolved: That we request the North Carolina Annual Conference instruct its delegates to the Jurisdictional Conference of the Southeastern Jurisdiction present these resolutions to the committee on the Episcopacy and to the College of Bishops of the Southeastern Jurisdiction at the Jurisdictional Conference, and to urge on them favorable action in the matter.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING OPENING PUBLIC FACILITIES

In the light of the gospel and of previous statements by our conference, this North Carolina Methodist Annual Conference in session at Greenville, North Carolina, June 17-19, 1963, urges the members of our local churches voluntarily to open the doors of their homes, motion picture houses, restaurants, churches, schools, and other facilities to all people of every race.

Adopted in this form.

 OF CONFERENCE AGENCIES

Be it resolved: That when any Fund, Commission, or Board of the North Carolina Annual Conference which receives any part of its income from the Conference, either by assessment or appropriation, shall have an unexpended balance in excess of one year's appropriation for its cause, then any unexpended funds remaining at the close of the Conference year shall be held over in the Conference treasury to be applied to the following year's budget appropriation for that agency, rather than having such surplus funds added to the existing balance of the agency.

R. W. PRITCHARD

RESOLUTION CONCERNING SUPREME COURT DECISION

Be it resolved that the Methodist North Carolina Conference register its great disappointment and distress over the Supreme Court decision to outlaw the Bible and the Lord's Prayer from our public schools by a vote of eight to one. And by this has rejected this Nation on the most reckless and irreligious course in its history.

We wish to convey the message of appreciation to the one dissenting Supreme Court jurist—Justice Potter Stewart—that he has kept the faith of the Christian people of this Nation. We send him our love and prayers as he has stood alone.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this Annual Conference expression be sent to our North Carolina Congressmen in Washington and to the Governor of this State.

CYRUS B. HUTCHINSON

Referred to Commission on Christian Social Concerns.

RESOLUTIONS OF GRATITUDE

Having come to the close of the 138th session of the North Carolina annual conference in which we have felt the impact of the gracious hospitality, Christian fellowship and warm welcome of Jarvis Memorial Church and the entire city of Greenville, N. C., we wish to express our deepest appreciation. Therefore, be it resolved that we, the delegates to this conference, do hereby record our sincere gratitude:

1. To Dr. Edgar B. Fisher, the host pastor, the staff, the committees, the official the pages and members of Jarvis Memorial Church and to Rev. R. Grady Dawson, host District Superintendent who have so wonderfully met our every need.

2. To the entire city of Greenville, its homes and its other churches that have opened their doors in a spirit of genuine hospitality.

3. To East Carolina College in making available to us its many very adequate facilities and conveniences.

4. To the choirs and individuals who have inspired our hearts with the sacred music of these hours.

5. To the program committee for the host of challenging speakers who have lifted us to new aspirations and rededications.

6. To our guest Bishops: Nolan B. Harmon, Paul Hardin, Jr., and Walter C. Gum for the inspiration of their presence and the encouragement of their dynamic messages.

7. To the publicity channels, newspapers, radio and television that have given complete and informative coverage to all the activities of our conference.

8. To our own beloved Bishop Paul N. Garber who has again demonstrated his wonderful Christian love, his brotherly spirit and his unsurpassed ability of leadership. To him we express our sincere appreciation for the added presence of his charming bride who has affectionally won her place in our hearts.

9. And to the one prevailing Spirit of our Heavenly Father in whose business we are engaged.

1. STATEMENT BY PRESIDENT OF COMMISSION ON WORLD SERVICE AND FINANCE

You Are The Methodist Church

Our blessings are manifold, yet our giving is not keeping pace with our gratitude — our practice with our profession of faith. How can it when as eastern Carolina Methodists we are tithing for the church only $49.58 per member per year — 95¢ per week.

Surely during this year, our tithing should be a Christian's tithe? Many Methodists have changed from the philosophy, "I can't afford to tithe" to, "I can't afford not to tithe!" Prove me, saith the Lord, if I will not open the windows of Heaven and pour out so rich a blessing you will not be able to receive it!

What a challenge! Our response has been a good deal less, however. Our total giving in the ending July 31, 1963, did not raise our budget. We are short by $27,885.01. Serious curtailment of our program next year can result unless as Methodists we support the Methodists we support the Methodist Program with a commitment of love, our service and our gift of a tithe.

BILL PRICE, President
Commission on World Service and Finance.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

The scope of our examination is contained in our opening letter. Certain features of the examination are set forth below.

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Recorded cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges, as shown by the Treasurer's records, was confirmed directly with the pastors, and minor differences reported to us as of the date of this report were adjusted or satisfactorily explained.

Distribution of income from charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1962 and 1963 session of the annual Conference and by reference to proper authorizations from the various boards of the Conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and the various boards and funds were either inspected or, if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our examination.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1962-63 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for accounts. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for the distribution of 1962-63 collections.
